SAMDAG is our biggest fundraiser here at St. Angela Merici.
It is a wonderful event full of fun and fellowship!

We need your help to make SAMDAG 2019 successful!
If you have items to donate for the auction, we appreciate you bringing the donation form and donated items into the parish office.

Thank you, we appreciate your donations!
Our faith formation team works with young people of all ages - but ‘work with’ is an oversimplification. We accompany them as they discover faith and the role it plays in their own day to day living. We also learn a bit along the way. Here’s what some of our own catechists say about this rewarding ministry:

“Be careful! You’ll fall in love with the children.”

“My Catholic faith has grown deeper. Sometimes, when I’m reading Bible stories to the kids, I’m almost amazed myself at how great God is, and how he loves us unconditionally.”

You don't need a degree in theology! A teacher's guide is provided, you can prepare the lessons beforehand and read about that particular lesson at home.

“You don’t need to be a teacher - Jordan and the rest of the team are great sources for ideas and assistance planning your lessons.”

“Reading and discussing the upcoming Sunday scriptures with the children has given more meaning to the scriptures for me and the children.”

Please consider your own place as a Catechist! If you have any questions, please contact Jordan in the parish office.

For most people, Saint Bonaventure is not a household name. However, it is important to note that he played an important role in both the history of the Franciscan Order and the Medieval Church.

Bonaventure was born in Bagnorea in 1221, he was baptized John, but received the name Bonaventure at age 22 when he became a Franciscan. Little is known about his childhood, but we do know that his parents were Giovanni di Fidanza and Maria Ritell. While Saint Francis died about 5 years after the birth of Bonaventure, Saint Francis is credited with healing Bonaventure as a boy who suffered a serious illness.

A senior faculty member at the University of Paris, Bonaventure captured the hearts of his students through his academic insights and skills; more importantly, he captured their hearts through his Franciscan love for Jesus and the Church. Like Saint Francis, Jesus was the center of everything for Bonaventure—his teaching, his administration, his writing, and his life. So much so, that he was given the title of “Seraphic Doctor.”

Saint Bonaventure taught until his teaching career came to a halt because the Friars elected him to serve as their General Minister. He served in this position for 17 years. Many of the years were fraught with conflict; however, because Bonaventure was a man of prayer and a good administrator, he managed to structure the Order, and offered the Friars an organized spirituality based on vision and insights of Saint Francis. There is a warmth to Bonaventure’s writings and teachings that make him appealing. He managed to unite the practical and pastoral aspects of life with the doctrines of the Church.

Before Bonaventure ended his service as General Minister, Pope Gregory X appointed him a Cardinal and a Bishop of Albano. A little over a year, and while engaged in the Second Council of Lyon, Saint Bonaventure died suddenly on July 15, 1274, with a rumor that he was poisoned.

Saint Bonaventure is known for the structure and the renewed Franciscan Order with a body of work that always glorifies Jesus—his major love.

Theology on Tap

Wednesday, July 31st, 6:30pm
London Bridge Pub, 256 Figueroa Street
(at the foot of Wharf 2), Monterey

Our speaker this month is Dr. Tom Bruneau, Ph.D, Distinguished Professor Emeritus of National Security Affairs at the Naval Postgraduate School. His topic will be “Good Catholic Spies and the Ethics of Espionage: The Just War Doctrine and Intelligence.”

Just War Doctrine has been applied to major warfare, counterterrorism, and the Cold War, but the Church has not taken a stand on the ethics of spying. Is it good? Bad? Should it be limited? Questions to think about! Come learn more and share your thoughts!

Join us for interesting and enlightening conversation as we delve deeper into our faith and enjoy dinner with friends. All are welcome!
Join Monterey Theology on Tap on Facebook! You can also send questions to Deacon Warren Hoy at whoy@dioceseofmonterey.org. Hope to see you!

School of Ministry for Lay Formation of missionary disciples

Join Us!
If you have discerned a call to greater service as a Lay Minister, your journey begins with an inquiry and simple application.

Year 1
Group study one Saturday per month laying the foundation for ministry

Year 2
Group Study focusing on one or more specializations in ministry

Upon successful completion the participant will receive a Certificate of Lay Ministry for the Diocese of Monterey (Awarded by Bishop Garcia in a Liturgical Ceremony.)

Formation for Lay Ministry has Four Dimensions

Human Formation
Includes formation in the human virtues and skills including: the capacity to relate well with others, collaboration and communication in ministry, and in cultural appreciation and sensitivity.

Spiritual Formation
Includes training and opportunities for spiritual growth, going deeper in prayer and discernment, and consequent growth in self-knowledge and freedom for love and ministry.

Theological Formation
A review of the theological, moral and sacramental Tradition of the Catholic Church over the course of the year.

Pastoral Formation
Explores faith development of adults, principles of effective ministry, integration of spirituality and ministry, the call to evangelization and mission, and a 2nd Year focus and practicum based learning for specific ministry of choice.
