Today’s readings reflect on our communal identity as disciples. Before we begin Lent together in a few days, we take time to appreciate what God has done by giving us our family of faith. In Leviticus, God tells Moses to “speak to the whole Israelite community” and give them instructions for living in love. Moses passes along the message—to each and every believer—that God’s people must strive together for holiness. Saint Paul echoes this message, insisting that we are indeed God’s holy children. As temples of the Spirit, we belong to Christ and to one another. This mutual belonging is a blessing and a challenge. In Matthew’s Gospel, Jesus sets a high bar for Christian community: his followers must love not only those who are easy to love, but also the people who upset us. Together, let us ask God to give us this kind of love.

Lent: A Time for Inner Cleansing

Kathy Kuczka

Every year my mother would rearrange the furniture in the living room and family room and change the drapes. Then she would open the cupboards and drawers in the kitchen, remove all the dishes, glasses, cups, goblets, plates, pitchers, platters, bowls, casseroles, china, and silverware to clean them. It was as if we were preparing for the biggest banquet of the year. She called this cleansing fury "spring cleaning."

Every year at this time the Church gives us the opportunity to do some inner spring cleaning. In fact, the word Lent is derived from the Anglo-Saxon word meaning "spring." Lent is a prime time to rearrange our priorities, to open the cupboards of our hearts and hold our egos to the light to see those areas that need to be cleaned and polished. Inner cleansing, or conversion, has always been at the heart of Lent. In the early Church, Lent was the final leg of the journey for the catechumens preparing for Baptism. It was also a time when already baptized penitents, isolated from the assembly because of their sins, would prepare to be reconciled to God and the community. The journeys of the catechumen and the penitent were related in that both embraced conversion. As the catechumen looked forward to Baptism, the penitent looked forward to reconciliation. To this day, the focus of Lent remains both baptismal and penitential.

Return, repent, reconcile, and renew are words that we hear in the liturgies of Lent. A common factor among these words is the prefix re-. That prefix expresses the meaning "again," as in words such as redo, remake, and revise; but it also indicates withdrawal or backward motion, as in words such as return, revert, and remember. During Lent, we are called to change by going back to childlike innocence, simplicity, and joy.

Prayer helps us to return to childlike innocence. Prayer prompts us to withdraw. As Jesus said, "When you pray, go to your inner room, close the door, and pray to your Father in secret" (Matthew 6:6, New American Bible, Revised Edition). Prayer nurtures our relationship with God. Prayer also nurtures our relationship with ourselves. Prayer peels away the masks we wear and the layers of ego defenses we think we need to survive. Prayer tells us that it's okay to be who we really are. Prayer changes us.

Fasting helps us to return to childlike simplicity. Fasting challenges us to trust that God will provide all that we need. Fasting helps us to sort our priorities. Because the digestive system doesn't have to work as hard when we fast, we have more energy to focus on what matters. Fasting creates a hunger for God. Fasting changes us.

Almsgiving helps us to return to childlike joy. Almsgiving moves us to acknowledge how much we have been given and that fills us with gratitude and praise. Almsgiving frees us from fear by compelling us to surrender what we have and who we are to others. Almsgiving requires humility. As Jesus said, "When you give alms, do not let your left hand know what your right is doing, so that your almsgiving may be secret" (Matthew 6:2). True humility always leads to joy. Almsgiving changes us.

It is God who calls us to conversion, and it is God's transforming grace that accompanies us on the Lenten journey as we pray, fast, and give alms. Let us pray for the courage to be open to this grace that we might come to Easter, the biggest banquet of the liturgical year, with hearts cleansed and spirits renewed.

Ideas for making Lent a Season of Mercy - Using Corporal Works of Mercy

Feed the Hungry - bring some food to donate for the food pantry; encourage children to do so

Give drink to the Thirsty - transition to a reusable water bottle; donate bottled water to local shelters. Make efforts not to waste water.

Shelter the Homeless - Consider volunteering as our parish participates in helping to house the homeless; bring socks or other goods to support the I-HELP efforts.

Visit the Sick - Take time to visit someone who has been ill; donate blood; check in on elderly neighbors; call someone who lives alone.

Bury the Dead - send a card to someone recently bereaved; take time to honor the final resting places of family or friends.

Give to the Poor - skip coffee and give the money to the poor; clean our your closet and donate to organizations that provide assistance to the poor.

Lenten Food Drive - 2020

Dear St. Angela Merici Parishioners,

The season of Lent begins with Ash Wednesday, February 26th. Our Parish Food Cupboard is conducting a Food Drive to help supply non-perishable food for the hungry families or homeless individuals who come to our Food Cupboard. Each week we suggest one or two items that we need. Of course you may donate any of the items at any time and they will be gratefully accepted.

There is also a sign with “Items Always in Need” on the food donation boxes. There will be a follow up reminder in each week’s bulletin. If many of us take part in the project think of how much food we will be able to give to the needy!

All of your donations will be used to feed the hungry that come to our distribution center in the Parish Small Hall staffed Tuesday and Thursday from 1:00 - 2:30 pm by dedicated volunteers from our parish.

Food donations may be placed in the containers provide at the entrances to the church.

Please bring on Sunday, March 1st Canned Tuna and Peanut Butter.

May God continue to bless you for your concern for the needy and for your faithful generosity.
