Fourth Sunday of Lent (B)

2 Chr 36:14–16, 19–23; Eph 2:4–10; Jn 3:14–21

The first reading this 4th Sunday of Lent begins with rather startling words: “all the princes of Judah, the priests, and the people added infidelity to infidelity, practicing all the abominations of the nations and polluting the LORD’s temple which he had consecrated in Jerusalem.” What happened subsequently was the destruction of King Solomon’s Temple (the 1st Temple) in Jerusalem and the exile of the people to a foreign land, Babylon. Within a few generations, the people were allowed to return to Jerusalem and rebuild the Temple (2nd Temple), although much more modestly. At the time of the public ministry of Jesus, the expansion and refurbishment of the Temple had been going on for 46 years, under the reign of King Herod. Jesus was about 30 ½ years old when He said, in the 2nd Chapter of Saint John’s Gospel, “destroy this temple, and I will raise it in three days.”

The 2nd temple was actually completed by the year 63 A.D., but only seven years later, it was permanently destroyed by the Romans in the year 70 A.D. However, the “3rd Temple” had already been under ‘construction’: when Jesus died on the cross, “behold, the veil of the sanctuary was torn in two from top to bottom. The earth quaked, rocks were split...” (Matthew 27:51) This sign was that the new and permanent “temple” was that of Christ, crucified (sacrificed), died, and buried, now risen from the dead. The “holy of Holies” was revealed from beyond the torn veil to show us God’s mercy, forgiveness, and love in the temple of Christ’s Body. For “God so loved the world that He gave His only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life.”

Pope Francis, on December 8, 2020, instituted a Year dedicated to Saint Joseph. This coming Friday, March 19, is the Solemnity of Saint Joseph. Bishop Schlert will announce for our diocese a Year dedicated to the Real Presence beginning on Divine Mercy Sunday 2021 and concluding on Corpus Christi Sunday 2022.

In these religious themes, we see the “Temple” of Christ’s Body as His permanent, REAL presence. Saint Joseph was chosen by God to protect and nourish and bring to full manhood the Son of God, along with His mother, the Blessed Virgin Mary. Because God so loved us, He enters into our own lives really and substantially in the Sacrament of His Body and Blood, the Holy Eucharist, the sacred Bread of Angels which sustains the “temple” of our own bodies, minds and souls. We are indeed, because of our Baptism, “temples of the Holy Spirit.” And where the Spirit is, so is the Father and the Son. Hence, Jesus has zeal for our own holiness. He wants us to be purified more so than He wanted the Temple to be purified (see last week’s Gospel).

Let us enter into both the Year of Saint Joseph, protector of the Son of God, protector and Patron of the Church, as well as the upcoming Year of the Real Presence to begin the Sunday after Easter. Let us “live the truth [and] come to the light, so that [our] works may be clearly seen as done in God.”

God bless you! Monsignor Koons

Operation Rice Bowl is a wonderful way to bring the spirit of Lenten sacrifice home. Operation Rice Bowl allows millions of our starving brothers and sisters to benefit and it doesn't cost us a cent! To participate, choose one night a week to eat a sacrificial meal. We will publish suggested meals in the bulletin each week. The meal is designed to imitate the quantity of food eaten by the poor. Take the cost of the meal, subtract it from what you normally would have spent for dinner that day, and give the difference to Operation Rice Bowl. This week's menu: Broccoli Cheese Soup, Captain's Wafers, Citrus Sections OR Grilled Cheese and Tomato Sandwich on Whole Wheat Bread, Banana and Orange Sections.

Memorial Fund: Gratefully the parish acknowledges the following memorial contributions in memory of Paul Kovach: $25 F. Michael Schneider; $20 Larry and Joanne Hiestand.

Slovak Kolach Sale: Your Easter Slovak Kolach orders are due by today, Sunday, March 14. Please complete the salmon colored form and return it with your payment. The cost is $16.00 each. Night at the Ball Game: Come and enjoy an Iron Pigs baseball game on Friday, June 25 on the Party Porch, 1st base line, at Coca-Cola Park, 1050 Ironpigs Way, Allentown hosted by B.V.M. Choir. Food will be available from 6:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. Game starts at 7:05 p.m. For ticket reservations call Jane Spengler at 610-262-8138. Cost is $40 per person. Save Aluminum Pulltabs: Save the pull tabs from cans of soda and bring them to the church. Place them in the receptacle in the lobby of the church. Tabs will be taken to the Ronald McDonald House in Philadelphia. The tabs are recycled and generate income to defray the cost of running the Ronald McDonald House, where parents of chronically ill children stay while their children are being treated in nearby hospitals.
