Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Reading: Zec 9:9–10; Ps 145:1–2, 8–9, 10–11, 13–14; Rom 8:9, 11–13; Mt 11:25–30

Many years ago, there was a very popular Christian poster that did nothing but list names for God from the scriptures. While it included powerful names like “Lion of Judah” and “Wonderful Counselor,” as a whole it was a sharp contrast to the simple and beautiful images present in our scriptures today. The prophet Zechariah prefigures the Christ coming in meekly and mildly on an ass—the vision we might have of Palm Sunday. In Romans Saint Paul reveals to us our truer selves, calling us to embrace the Spirit of Christ, put aside our fleshly beings, and live more fully in Christ. In the Gospel of Matthew, Jesus bypasses the learned, and God reveals things to the childlike. We are presented with a simple, straightforward approach to God, and to finding God.

Our Complicated Lives

We live in an age and a society that has never been more educated or had a higher standard of living, yet never have we carried as much debt. Many are living beyond their means. We have so many resources and time-saving devices at our hands, yet our lives are more complex than ever. While many people may not engage in extreme manual labor we rarely escape our jobs. Many are connected through phones and constantly receive calls, texts, and emails. Others spend hours in traffic on their daily commutes or pack on the frequent flyer miles.

We spend hours binge-watching our favorite shows. Many children are accustomed to being in front of a screen all the time and no longer know how to play creatively. The statistics for those who continue to leave the Church and all forms of organized religion also continue to rise. While there is no such thing as a “good old days” to return to, there was something to be said for sleeping soundly after putting in a good day's work, and for a family gathering around the table for a shared meal. For many, this model for eucharist rarely exists. Jesus knows and feels our pains, and calls out, “Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest.”

It's Not Rocket Science

So how do we declutter? Downsize? Devote ourselves again to Christ and live out our gospel calling? Sign up for a liturgical ministry, or volunteer to help with a religion program. Join a small faith group. Volunteer at a food pantry or Habitat for Humanity. Become involved as an individual, or a family. Meanwhile, back at the house, make a commitment to go through one drawer a day, and take things to your local St. Vinnie's or secondhand store. Remember meal and bedtime prayers. Find a minute to read the daily scriptures. Take many baby steps. It's not rocket science. It is a continual commitment to bring ourselves as we are, and to respond to Jesus' call to “Come.”

Mass Re-Opening

Starting Sunday June 14, 2020, we will be reopening our masses at new specific times and with certain guidelines. Reserve your mass times online at stgenparish.org, spacing is limited. Stewardship of Time*

Here are the new guideline procedures:

1. Masks are required at all times while inside the church.
2. Body temperature will be checked before entering the church.
3. Seating inside the church adheres to the social distancing of six feet.
4. Hand sanitizing is required.
5. You will remain in your assigned seat at all times- no roaming around the church.
6. High-risk individuals-those 65 years and older, who are immunocompromised or who have underlying health conditions- should stay at home.
7. Maintain physical distancing (6 feet apart).

“Singing the Body of Christ Amid Pandemic Distancing”

Zoom Presentation with Fr. Ricky Manalo
Thursday, July 23 from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

Who would imagine our church gathering online to celebrate Easter or Sunday Mass on a regular basis? Thankfully, such liturgies are not the norm, however the COVID-19 pandemic is forcing us to radically reconsider our encounter with the Body of Christ and what fuels our lives of faith. How do we “live and breathe and have our being” through a facemask, confined to our homes, and at a distance from one another? How do these changes impact our music ministry, particularly when the sung participation of the assembly remains a significant goal in our contemporary church? And finally, how do we begin to gather again as parishes re-open? This presentation embraces our current “in-between space” and looks at how to sustain our music ministerial integrity during this difficult time for our church, ourselves, and so many people in need. Stewardship of Time*

Tips for keeping calm and parenting during stressful times

We are living in unprecedented times, and many parents are stretched to capacity. The added stress of pandemic living can make it hard to parent calmly and effectively when children are acting out, but it's important to remember that children are also going through a huge period of change right now. Instead of reacting in anger, try these ideas to keep your cool. Talk to a friend – many people are suffering from a lack of physical community, so reach out by phone or text. Pray together as a family, asking for patience, cheerfulness, and whatever other virtues you need to get you through the day. Set an example of forgiveness with your children — ask for it when you need it and grant it when they do. For more tips, get a copy of the VIRTUS® article, “Say it on repeat: I am going to keep my calm!” at <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>.

Décimo Cuarto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Lecturas de hoy: Zac 9:9-10; Sal 145 (144):1-2, 8-9, 10-11, 13-14; Rom 8:9, 11-13; Mt 11:25-30

Nuestras complicadas vidas

Vivimos en una época y una sociedad que nunca ha sido tan educada o tenido un nivel de vida más alto, pero nunca hemos tenido tantas deudas. Muchas personas viven por arriba de sus necesidades. Tenemos a nuestra disposición muchos recursos y aparatos que nos ahorran el tiempo, y aún así nuestras vidas son más complejas que antes. Aunque muchas personas no se dedican a trabajos manuales extremos, rara vez evitamos nuestros trabajos. Muchos están conectados a través de teléfonos y reciben constantemente llamadas, textos y correos electrónicos. Otros pasan horas en el tráfico en sus viajes diarios o acumulan millas en sus programas de viajeros frecuentes. Pasamos horas mirando compulsivamente nuestros programas favoritos. Muchos niños están acostumbrados a estar frente a una pantalla todo el tiempo y ya no saben cómo jugar creativamente. Las estadísticas de quienes van dejando la Iglesia y de otras religiones siguen aumentando. Si bien no hay tal cosa como “en los buenos viejos tiempos” a los que volver, había algo que decir para dormir descansadamente después de un buen día de trabajo, y para una reunión familiar alrededor de la mesa para compartir los alimentos. Para muchos, este modelo de eucarística casi nunca existe. Jesús sabía y sentía nuestros dolores, y gritaba “vengan a mí, todos los que están fatigados y cansados y yo les daré descanso”.

No es ninguna ciencia espacial

¿Cómo organizamos? ¿Reducimos? ¿Nos dedicamos de nuevo a Cristo y a nuestro llamado al Evangelio? Apúntate para ayudar en algún apostolado o ministerio, o se voluntario para ayudar en el catecismo para niños. Intégrate a un pequeño grupo de fe. Hazte voluntario en un banco de comida o en Hábitat para la Humanidad. Involúcrate personalmente o como familia. Mientras tanto, regresa a casa, comprométete a revisar un cajón cada día, y toma las cosas a la tienda de segunda cerca de tu casa o al banco de ropa más cercano. Recuerda las oraciones de los alimentos y de la noche antes de irte a dormir. Dedicar un minuto para leer las Escrituras del día. Da pasos de bebé. No es ninguna ciencia espacial. Es un compromiso continuo de llevarnos a nosotros mismos como somos, y responder al llamado de Jesús a “venir”.

Reapertura masiva

A partir del domingo 14 de junio de 2020, volveremos a reabrir nuestras misas en nuevos momentos específicos y con ciertas pautas. Reserve sus tiempos masivos en línea en stgenparish.org, el espaciado es limitado. *Corresponsabilidad de Tiempo

Estos son los nuevos procedimientos orientadores:

1. Las máscaras son necesarias en todo momento mientras están dentro de la iglesia.
2. La temperatura corporal se comprobará antes de entrar en la iglesia.
3. Sentarse dentro de la iglesia se adhiere al distanciamiento social de seis pies.
4. Se requiere desinfección de manos.
5. Permanecerá en su asiento asignado en todo momento, sin itinerancia por la iglesia.
6. Las personas de alto riesgo, aquellas mayores de 65 años, que están inmunocomprobadas o que tienen condiciones de salud subyacentes, deben permanecer en casa.
7. Mantenga el distanciamiento físico (6 pies de separación).

Si usted está experimentando los siguientes síntomas por favor evite asistir a la masa:

- Fiebre o escalofríos
- Tos
- Dificultad para respirar o dificultad para respirar
- Fatiga
- Dolores musculares o corporales jaqueca
- Nueva pérdida de sabor u olor
- Dolor de garganta
- Congestión o esroteo
- Náuseas o vómitos
- Diarrea

¿Sabía Usted?

Esté consciente de los peligros de envenenamiento en el hogar

Estamos viviendo tiempos sin precedente, y muchos padres de familia están llenos de responsabilidades. El estrés que se añade el vivir en el tiempo de la pandemia puede hacer más difícil la crianza de los niños en una forma tranquila y efectiva, cuando los niños muestran un mal comportamiento, pero es importante recordar que los niños también están pasando por un gran período de cambio en este momento. En lugar de reaccionar con enojo, pruebe estas ideas para mantener la calma. Hable con un/a amigo/a. Muchas personas están sufriendo por la falta de contacto físico con la comunidad, así que contáctelos por teléfono o por texto. Recen juntos en familia, pidiendo por paciencia, por alegría, y por otras virtudes que usted necesite para poder pasar el día. Sea un ejemplo de perdón con sus hijos, pídale perdón cuando usted lo necesite y cuando ellos lo necesiten. Para obtener más consejos, obtenga una copia del artículo en inglés de VIRTUS® “Say it on repeat: I am going to keep my calm!” (Repítalo: ¡Voy a mantener la calma!) en <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>. *Corresponsabilidad de Tiempo

Letter to the Faithful for the Memorial of St. Junípero Serra

July 1, 2020

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

In recent days statues to the Apostle of California, St. Junípero Serra, were torn down in San Francisco and in the plaza outside our first church, Nuestra Señora Reina de los Ángeles, in downtown Los Angeles. Up and down the state, there is growing debate about removing Serra memorials from public lands. Ventura officials have announced that they will hold a public hearing July 7 to debate whether to take down his statue from in front of Ventura City Hall.

Faced with the possibility of vandalism, we are taking increased security precautions at the historic missions located in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. Unfortunately, we will probably have to relocate some statues to our beloved saint or risk their desecration.

These developments sadden me. I have been thinking and writing about Junípero Serra for many years now.

I understand the deep pain being expressed by some native peoples in California. But I also believe Fray Junípero is a saint for our times, the spiritual founder of Los Angeles, a champion of human rights, and this country's first Hispanic saint. I was privileged to celebrate his canonization Mass with Pope Francis in 2015. I rely on his intercession in my ministry, and I am inspired by his desire to bring God's tender mercy to every person.

The exploitation of America's first peoples, the destruction of their ancient civilizations, is a historic tragedy. Crimes committed against their ancestors continue to shape the lives and futures of native peoples today. Generations have passed and our country still has not done enough to make things right.

In the family of God here in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, we have worked hard to atone for past errors and wrongs and to find the path forward together. We honor the contributions that native peoples made to building the Church in Southern California and we cherish their gifts in the mission of the Church today.
