Some Words from the Pastor

You must be noticing the changing of times and season. You might have felt more comfortable going outdoors because of the relatively cooler days. What a respite from the heat wave that we had to endure during the past days. We just hope that the cooler air would bring relief to our skin and body that had been uncomfortably accustomed to the scorching heat of the sun. But they days are coming when we start observing some changes. The day is becoming shorter. It was already dark when we celebrated the evening mass last weekend. Every morning whenever I go to the veranda from my room in the new parish house, I can feel the cold air on my skin. We are certainly getting some respite from the usually warm and hot days. What a relief.

We are grateful to Bishop Alex Aclan, our regional bishop who came to visit us last Sunday. I called him initially to ask him if I and Fr. Al can see him for a courtesy call. I came from the Santa Barbara Pastoral Region. So I wanted to make a formal courtesy call upon assuming my role as the new paster of St. Genevieve. However, instead of us going there he told me that he would like to come here instead. To our delight. After the evening mass, which he presided, we had a sumptuous meal. We indulged into a light and nice conversation. It was truly inspiring to have this bonding with the bishop who was so gracious and kind. It was indeed, a wonderful evening and weekend.

Some changes are yet to come as we move on. I am on my third week already. How days are passing by so quickly. As I continue to acquaint myself and have a feel of the rhythm and flow of parish life here at St. Genevieve, I am all the more getting excited about my ministry. A lot of people have approached me already to express their intention to help. I certainly need sound and good advice to guide me as I discern and make decisions for our parish community. Let us continue to pray for one another, and work together in building the kingdom of God in our midst.

Have a Blessed Sunday!

Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Readings: Is 55:6-9; Ps 145:2-3, 8-9, 17-18; Phil 1:20c-24, 27a; Mt 20:1-16a

An unexpected lesson

Jesus' parable depicts workers who "punch the clock" at various times throughout the long day: dawn, nine, noon, three, and five o'clock. Regardless of when they began working in the vineyard, the laborers all receive the same reward. The reward seems lavish to the latecomers, of course, and shockingly unfair to the long-faithful workers. The landowner soothes his most dutiful laborers, however, delighting in them as friends and transforming their bitter confrontation into a reflection on generosity. The laborers who arrived at five o'clock might have been late to the job, but those who began at the crack of dawn were last to understand the extravagant bounty of the landowner. Seen in this way, the parable discusses not only God's generosity toward "unworthy" believers, but also the Lord's inexhaustible patience toward those who thought they had nothing more to learn.

Beginning again

Today's readings provide sweet refreshment to all of us who know the bitterness of discouragement. No matter how stubbornly we determine to improve ourselves, the human condition often leaves us in puddles of failure and regret. Jesus has a new plan for us. Today's Gospel parable demonstrates the mercy of God, mercy that rejoices in fresh beginnings. We take comfort in knowing that God accompanies us in our labors—and works for us—whether we struggle with caring for our bodies, striving for patience, avoiding gossip, making time for prayer, being generous, overcoming addiction, remaining in recovery, or simply attending to our daily work. Jesus shows us that he actively engages with us each time we fall short. From dawn to dusk, the Lord seeks us out, calling us to join him in the vineyard. Now, today, right this moment, is our dawn. Or our nine o'clock. Or noon? Ignore the clock! Jesus invites us to forget past failures; divine mercy wipes them away. Today's psalm insists that the "Lord is near to all who call upon him." In hope, then, we begin again.

Did you Know?

Cyberbullying is still a threat with distance learning

This year, with school starting online children of all ages will be interacting with one another via technology even more than usual. Be on the lookout for signs that bullying is happening via the internet, texting, various apps, or social media – as challenging as it is, monitor both the amount of time your children are “plugged in” and the content of what they are doing when interacting with their peers. Cyberbullying can include the use of apps, texts, photographs, and images that are intended to hurt, harass, embarrass, or even destroy the reputation of a victim. Unlike at school, you cannot walk away from cyberbullying — it spreads instantly, 24/7. Children who are cyberbullied may avoid going online or talking to their so-called friends. They are likely to be sad or angry and may have low self-esteem. For more information on this topic, visit <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>.

Vigésimo Quinto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Lecturas de hoy: Is 55:6-9; Sal 145 (144):2-3, 8-9, 17-18; Flp 1:20c-24, 27a; Mt 20:1-16a

Una lección inesperada

La parábola de Jesús describe a los trabajadores que “registran la entrada al trabajo” en varios momentos en el transcurso del día: al amanecer, a las nueve, a las tres y a las cinco. Independientemente de la hora en que empezaron a trabajar en la viña, todos los trabajadores reciben la misma paga, y para quienes empezaron tarde la paga les parece generosa desde luego, pero a los que sí empezaron temprano les parece injusta. El patrón calma a los trabajadores enfadados; sin embargo, junto con ellos se alegra y transforma su enfado en una reflexión hacia la generosidad. Los trabajadores que empezaron tarde como a las cinco, pero aquellos que empezaron al amanecer fueron los últimos en entender la extravagante paga del patrón. Visto de esta manera, la parábola no solamente habla de la generosidad de Dios hacia los creyentes “indignos”, sino también de la infinita paciencia del Señor hacia aquellos que pensaban que no tenían nada que aprender.

Empezando de nuevo

Las lecturas de hoy nos dan un dulce refrigerio a todos los que conocemos la amargura del desánimo. No importa cuán obstinadamente determinemos mejorararnos, la condición humana a menudo nos deja en charcos de fracaso y arrepentimiento. Jesús tiene un plan nuevo para nosotros. La parábola del Evangelio de hoy demuestra la misericordia de Dios, misericordia que se regocija en comienzos nuevos. Nos reconforta saber que Dios nos acompaña en nuestros trabajos -y obra para nosotros- ya sea que luchemos con el cuidado de nuestros cuerpos, nos esforcemos por tener paciencia, evitando los chismes, dedicando tiempo a la oración, siendo generosos, superando la adicción, permaneciendo en la recuperación o simplemente atendiendo a nuestro trabajo diario. Jesús nos muestra que él activamente se compromete con nosotros cada vez que nos quedamos cortos. Desde el amanecer hasta el anochecer, el Señor nos busca, llamándonos a unirnos a él en la viña. Ahora, hoy, justo en este momento, es nuestro amanecer. ¿O a nuestras nueve de la noche, o a nuestro medio día? Ignoremos el reloj. Jesús nos invita a olvidar los fracasos pasados, la misericordia de Dios los borra. El salmo de hoy insiste en que “el Señor está cerca de todos los que lo invocan”. Con esperanza, entonces, empezemos de nuevo.

Isaías nos dice algo que ya sabemos, pero que parecemos olvidar de tanto en tanto. Nos dice, en esencia, que Dios es Dios y nosotros no lo somos. Cuando estamos confundidos, llenos de problemas y no podemos solucionarlo todo, tal vez sea sabio recordar a Isaías (alguien que está más en la sintonía divina que nosotros) hablando en nombre del Señor y explicando que Dios se mueve de maneras que ni siquiera podemos imaginar. En comparación, san Pablo lo ha resuelto todo. Casi todo. Cuando menos entiende su llamado en esta vida: dar gloria a Cristo en todo lo que hace. Esto debería marcar el rumbo para nosotros. Jesús también nos marca el camino, explicándonos una vez más en la parábola de los viñadores que los últimos serán los primeros, y que los primeros serán los últimos. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

San Mateo

Leví era su nombre, hasta que Jesús, viéndolo sentado en su mesa de cobrador, le dijo: “Sígueme” y dejándolo todo, lo siguió. El teólogo Dietrich Bonhoeffer señala en esto la radicalidad del llamado de Jesús a emprender una conversión total que no puede esperar. En adelante no será Leví, sino Mateo: “regalo de Dios”. Este antiguo cobrador de impuestos vivía en Cafarnaúm y su trabajo era recolectar dinero para entregarlo a los romanos. Era considerado traidor y al igual que sus colegas era despreciado, pues la gente los tenía por deshonestos ya que sus exagerados cobros hacían imposible la vida de los pobres. No obstante, Jesús se fijó en él y escandalizó a los religiosos de su tiempo cuando no sólo lo llamó a ser su seguidor, sino que además compartió la mesa. Aquello fue un escándalo, porque tal acción equivalía a compartir el estilo de vida y aprobarlo. No obstante, Jesús no aprueba su proceder, sino que le ofrece su amistad y lo invita a la construcción del Reino de Dios. Esa es la radicalidad del llamado de Jesús.

Revise las reglas y planes de seguridad de su familia

Este año, con la escuela comenzando en línea, los niños de todas las edades estarán interactuando unos con otros vía tecnología aún más que lo usual. Esté pendiente de señales que indiquen que está ocurriendo acoso vía internet, textos, por medio de aplicaciones, o de las redes sociales. Aunque constituya un desafío, monitoree tanto la cantidad de tiempo que sus niños pasan conectados, como el contenido de lo que ellos están viendo cuando interactúen con sus amigos. El ciberacoso puede incluir el uso de aplicaciones, textos, fotografías, e imágenes con los cuales se intenta herir, hostigar, avergonzar, o hasta destruir la reputación de una víctima. Los niños que son acosados por medio de internet pueden evitar conectarse en línea o de hablar con sus llamados amigos. Ellos podrían mostrarse tristes o enojados y pueden tener baja autoestima.
