Our Lady of Perpetual Help Devotion with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament: Wednesdays at 7:00 p.m.; with Mass on the First Wednesday of the month.

Some Words from the Pastor

What a beautiful celebration we had last weekend. We had the Living Rosary as our way of culminating the month of the Rosary. We have shown our devotion and love for our Blessed Mother who always prays for us. She truly cares for us as she leads us closer to her Son Jesus. The formation of the human beads was certainly symbolic of our unity and our union with Jesus through Mary. Once again we acknowledge and appreciate the efforts and sacrifices of the organizers and all who were actively involved in this celebration. We thank our sponsors as well, and everyone who showed their generosity through their financial assistance. May the Lord bless you all. We were also blessed to have Bishop Alex Aclan with us who celebrated the mass with us. It is always a moment of grace and inspiration for us as a community. The month of November is here. Times flies by so fast. I do experience the seemingly rapid passage of time. The celebration of the Solemnity of All Saints Day and the Commemoration of the Faithful Departed are just over. And as I write this brief message, we are having National Election Day. Other events or celebrations are coming up at the end of this month, like Thanksgiving Day and for the church, the Solemnity of Christ the King. This latter being the last Sunday in our liturgical calendar. We can expect the liturgical readings to be talking about the end times and readiness as we approach another season.

Indeed, our gospel this Sunday calls us to be ready and to be vigilant. While it talks about being ready for the coming of the bridegroom, we need to have this constant disposition of being prepared and watchful especially during these extraordinary times. We have to keep our guard tight as we ensure the safety and protection of each one from the virus. It is imperative that we observe the protocols on wearing face masks, keeping social distance, sanitizing and washing of hands and disinfecting. We should also be very vigilant during these days when some people talk about instability and chaos. We are a people of peace and love. Being vigilant and alert is being able to work for peace and justice, and never allowing fear to overcome us. Let us be like the five wise women in the gospel who showed calmness, remaining focused while waiting for the bridegroom. Likewise for us, let us be alert and focused as we await for the coming of the Lord

Have a Blessed Sunday!

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Readings: Wis 6:12–16; Ps 63:2, 3–4, 5–6, 7–8; 1 Thes 4:13–18 [13–14]; Mt 25:1–13

Keep your lamps

In the old spiritual, “Keep Your Lamps Trimmed and Burning” we hear the imperative to wait and be ready, and while there are many variations, it usually ends “The world is nearly done.” “The time is drawing near.” or “The day is dawning nigh.” The liturgical year is near its end, and we begin to feel that tension of “already but not yet” as the readings become more eschatological (about the end-times) in nature. We are called to wait patiently. Yet, like the wise and foolish virgins, we run the risk of falling asleep, and or running out of oil. Waiting for God, preparing for God, requires much hope, much preparation and discipline, and at times it is counter-intuitive. We must put aside impatience or the desire for immediate gratification and keep the end in sight. In running terms, it is not a sprint, but a marathon.

Trimmed and burning

So how do we do this? Whether we are sitting in the pew or one of those involved more intimately in liturgical ministry, this is a call for spiritual self-maintenance. None of our scriptures today is passive. Seeking and waiting for God requires work. Presence and participation in the liturgy are among the easiest and most natural ways to provide fuel for our spiritual lamps. But like a car, we need to do more than just put in gasoline. There are other needs to attend to for upkeep. Just read the opportunities in this bulletin! Perhaps you may want to attend a parish scripture class or find a spiritual book to read. Sign up online to receive the daily readings or some sort of daily reflection. Find a spiritual podcast to listen to on your commute home from work or turn off the news and music and drive in morning silence. Share simple, regular prayer times as a family such as at meals and bedtime. Experience the sacrament of Reconciliation. Or maybe you do too much, and the call is to let go of something. Do not become burned out or lose heart. Take courage and remember, “The day is drawing nigh!” Amen.

Expecting the Unexpected

If it ever crossed your mind that Jesus was somewhat lacking in a sense of humor, today's Gospel should belie any such notion. Jesus' story of the five wise and five foolish bridesmaids is downright hilarious. The circumstances of the story were surely familiar to Jesus' listeners, just as they are—if we think about it—to us. Weddings never, ever start on time. There's always a delay. Buttons pop off at the last minute. Flowers wilt. Cars full of wedding guests get caught in traffic. Soloists contract laryngitis. Brides or grooms or priests show up late! So the only reasonable way to approach a wedding is with a sense of humor, to realize that something probably will go awry, and, when that happens, to smile about it.

Jesus tells this funny story to encourage us to be watchful, yes; to be ready, yes. But he doesn't tell it to make us dour and somber. The heavy-hearted tremble, waver, lose sight of their place and purpose, and fall asleep. The lighthearted know that the unexpected will happen—is bound to happen—so they are awake in their place and ready in their purpose when it comes. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Did you Know?

Cyberbullying is still a threat with distance learning

This year, with school starting online children of all ages will be interacting with one another via technology even more than usual. Be on the lookout for signs that bullying is happening via the internet, texting, various apps, or social media – as challenging as it is, monitor both the amount of time your children are “plugged in” and the content of what they are doing when interacting with their peers. Cyberbullying can include the use of apps, texts, photographs, and images that are intended to hurt, harass, embarrass, or even destroy the reputation of a victim. Unlike at school, you cannot walk away from cyberbullying — it spreads instantly, 24/7. Children who are cyberbullied may avoid going online or talking to their so-called friends. They are likely to be sad or angry and may have low self-esteem. For more information on this topic, visit <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>.

Trigésimo Segundo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Lecturas de hoy: Sab 6:12–16; Sal 63 (62):2, 3–4, 5–6, 7–8; 1 Tes 4:13–18 [13–14]; Mt 25:1–13

Guarda tus lámpara

En la antigua frase “mantén las mechas ajustadas y encendidas de tu lámpara”, escuchamos de manera urgente esperar y estar listos, y aunque hay otras formas de decir esa frase, por lo general concluye así: “el mundo está por terminar”, “el tiempo se acerca” o “el amanecer del día se aproxima”. El fin del año litúrgico casi está por terminar y empezamos a sentir el nerviosismo de “ya pero todavía no” a medida que las lecturas se vuelven más escatológicas (sobre el fin de los tiempos) en su esencia. Se nos llama a esperar pacientemente. Sin embargo, como las vírgenes sabias e imprudentes, corremos el riesgo de quedarnos dormidos o de quedarnos sin aceite. Esperar a Dios, prepararse para Dios, requiere mucha esperanza, mucha preparación y disciplina, y a veces es en contra del sentido común. Debemos dejar a un lado la impaciencia o el deseo de satisfacción inmediata y tener el final a la vista. En términos de una competencia de carreras, no es una carrera corta, sino un maratón.

Adjustada y encendida

Entonces, ¿cómo hacemos esto? Ya sea que estemos sentados en las bancas o seamos alguien que participa activamente en alguno de los apostolados o ministerios litúrgicos, esto es un llamado al auto mantenimiento espiritual. Ninguna de nuestras Escrituras de hoy es pasiva. Buscar y esperar a Dios requiere trabajo. La presencia y participación en la liturgia son una de las formas más fáciles y naturales de proporcionar combustible a nuestras lámparas espirituales. Pero al igual que en el automóvil, necesitamos hacer algo más que poner gasolina. Hay otras necesidades que atender para el mantenimiento. ¡Lea este boletín y encontrará algunas oportunidades! Tal vez quieras asistir a una clase de Biblia o buscar y leer un libro espiritual. Inscríbete a algún sitio en Internet para recibir diariamente una reflexión o las lecturas del día. Busca un podcast espiritual para que lo escuches mientras vas de camino de regreso del trabajo a casa o maneja en silencio y apaga el radio con noticias o música. Comparte en familia momentos de oración sencillos y regulares, como en las comidas y a la hora de acostarte. Acude al Sacramento de la Reconciliación; o tal vez, haces demasiado, y la llamada es dejar de hacer algo. No te fatigues o desanimas. Ten valor y recuerda, “el día se acerca”. Amén.

Esperar lo inesperado

Si alguna vez se te pasó por la mente que a Jesús le faltaba un poco del sentido del humor, el Evangelio de hoy destierra esa noción. La parábola de Jesús sobre las cinco jóvenes precavidas y las cinco jóvenes descuidadas es sumamente chistosa. Las circunstancias de la parábola sin duda resultaban familiares a los que escuchaban a Jesús, como lo son para nosotros. Las bodas nunca, nunca comienzan a la hora. Siempre hay un retraso. Botones que se caen al último minuto. Flores que se marchitan. Vehículos llenos de invitados atascados en el tráfico. Solistas que contraen laringitis. ¡Novias, novios o sacerdotes que llegan tarde! Así que la única manera razonable de encarar una boda es con buen sentido del humor, conscientes de que algo va a salir mal, y, cuando eso suceda, sonreír.

Jesús cuenta esta historia chistosa para alentarnos a que seamos vigilantes, sí; a estar preparados, sí. Pero no nos la cuenta para que nos amarguemos y nos ensombrecamos. Los apesadumbrados tiemblan, titubean, pierden de vista su lugar y propósito, y se quedan dormidos.

Los festivos saben que sucederá lo inesperado —más que seguro— así que están despiertos en su puesto y listos para cumplir su propósito en el acto. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

¿Sabía Usted?

Revise las reglas y planes de seguridad de su familia

Este año, con la escuela comenzando en línea, los niños de todas las edades estarán interactuando unos con otros vía tecnología aún más que lo usual. Esté pendiente de señales que indiquen que está ocurriendo acoso vía internet, textos, por medio de aplicaciones, o de las redes sociales. Aunque constituya un desafío, monitoree tanto la cantidad de tiempo que sus niños pasan conectados, como el contenido de lo que ellos están viendo cuando interactúen con sus amigos. El ciberacoso puede incluir el uso de aplicaciones, textos, fotografías, e imágenes con los cuales se intenta herir, hostigar, avergonzar, o hasta destruir la reputación de una víctima. Los niños que son acosados por medio de internet pueden evitar conectarse en línea o de hablar con sus llamados amigos. Ellos podrían mostrarse tristes o enojados y pueden tener baja autoestima.
