Some Words from the Pastor

Last Tuesday afternoon, I heard an emergency alert from my cellphone. I thought there was flood or fire somewhere. I was used to receive that kind of alarm when I was in Lompoc or in the Santa Barbara County where there are these seasonal floods and wildfires. When I got hold of my phone, I read the message about the alarming surge of Covid-19 cases in the Valley. To receive that kind of alert message is certainly alarming. The intention was of course to warn us and to remind us of following the protocols such as wearing our face masks always, observing social distance, sanitizing and washing our hands and disinfecting the things that we use. We always remind our parishioners about these guidelines. As more and more people are coming to church for the celebration of our outdoor masses we need to be extra careful and vigilant.

I am just grateful how our parishioners show their concern and support for the parish. People have donated tents. Others would provide disinfectants or sanitizers. Still others are being generous with their financial assistance and also with their time. Each one is willing to share as they express their care for our church. It is certainly reflective of the gospel this weekend about the sharing of talents and gifts. We are called to be good stewards. Stewardship enables us to acknowledge that everything that we have comes from God. We use them not just for our own good, but also share them for the good of the parish community. As we share our talents, time and treasure, we are sharing the gifts of ourselves. Each one is truly a gift from God. Pope Francis would try to emphasize this as he says, "It is important to keep alive the awareness that the other person is a gift from God - and for the gifts of God we say thank you! Thank the special people in your life for everything they do, and remember to thank God, too, for the gift of those special people.

So I thank you my dear brothers and sisters. And I thank God for the gift of each one of you. May God bless you always!

Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Readings: Prv 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31; Ps 128:1-2, 3, 4-5; 1 Thes 5:1-6; Mt 25:14-30 (14-15, 19-21)

Remain in Me

In the story of the talents, the head of the household leaves the servants "talents" or money, which they are expected to foster and develop during the leader's absence. Today we think of talent as an innate ability or a skill. It is interesting that they were distributed "according to ability," which would express a certain intimacy as we realize that the master knew each one, and already had an idea of their capabilities. They were not given explicit instructions like "put this in the bank" or "invest this in your portfolio" or "take piano lessons." Rather, we are told that the goods were divided unequally. One received five, one received two, and the last received one.

Bear much fruit

When the head of the household returned, the outcomes were just as varied as we and our responses might be. Some people are multitalented, and capable of accomplishing many great things, like the servant who turned five into ten. Others may be more inclined to do one or two things very well and may excel in them. Still, there are some who may struggle in life, and their accomplishments are very small. But those who made use of their gifts were praised and told, "Well done, good and faithful servant." When it came to the second coming, the return of their master, they both made some effort. The only one in whom the head of household showed any disappointment was the one who made absolutely no effort, the one who was frozen by fear or indifference. As we journey toward the kingdom, there are not always clear instructions. We are simply asked to try, to give it our best effort. There is nothing in the passage to say that these servants didn't make mistakes along the way, but their master saw them and loved and praised them for their actions, their attempts, as God will do with us. And now you know the rest of the story.

Change Our Lives

The letters of Paul to the Thessalonians are among his earliest writings, and are driven by his belief and the belief of the entire early Christian community that the return of Christ was imminent, and that devoting time or attention to anything else was foolish.

As time progressed, this fervor subsided a bit. Today we may wonder, when we hear these readings about the coming end-times, if we should take them to heart, if we really believe that Christ still may come upon us as a "thief at night" (1 Thessalonians 5:2). Does this mean that we are to stop our long-range goal-setting, get rid of our yearly calendars and planners, or stop putting money in the college education fund? Of course not. What it does mean is that we need to change our lives, living like children of the light and illuminating the world around us with the light of the gospel. Then, on that day, when the details of our daily living become unimportant, we will be ready to find our peace and security in Christ Jesus.

Did you Know?

Cyberbullying is still a threat with distance learning

This year, with school starting online children of all ages will be interacting with one another via technology even more than usual. Be on the lookout for signs that bullying is happening via the internet, texting, various apps, or social media – as challenging as it is, monitor both the amount of time your children are "plugged in" and the content of what they are doing when interacting with their peers. Cyberbullying can include the use of apps, texts, photographs, and images that are intended to hurt, harass, embarrass, or even destroy the reputation of a victim. Unlike at school, you cannot walk away from cyberbullying — it spreads instantly, 24/7. Children who are cyberbullied may avoid going online or talking to their so-called friends. They are likely to be sad or angry and may have low self-esteem. For more information on this topic, visit <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>.

Lecturas de hoy: Prov 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31; Sal 128 (127):1-2, 3, 4-5; 1 Tes 5:1-6; Mt 25:14-30 (14-15, 19-21)

Permanece en mi

En la historia de los talentos, quien era la cabeza de la familia deja a los sirvientes “talentos” o dinero, del cual se espera que administren y multipliquen durante la ausencia del patrón. Hoy pensamos que los talentos son una destreza o habilidad innata. Es interesante que esos talentos fueran distribuidos “de acuerdo con sus habilidades” y eso podría significar que hay una cierta intimidad de parte del patrón hacia ellos y que podría conocer sus capacidades. A ellos no se les dieron instrucciones claras como “pon este dinero en el banco”, “inviértelo en donde te paguen intereses” o “con este dinero paga para tomar clases de piano”. Más bien, se nos dice que los bienes se repartieron de manera desigual. Uno recibió cinco, otro recibió dos y el último recibió uno.

Da fruto adundante

Cuando el cabeza de familia regresó, los resultados no fueron tan variados como nosotros o nuestras respuestas podrían ser. Algunas personas son multitalentosas y capaces de lograr muchas cosas, como el sirviente que de cinco obtuvo diez. Otros pueden estar más inclinados a hacer una o dos cosas muy bien y pueden sobresalir en ellas. Aún así, hay algunas que pueden luchar en la vida y lograr muy poco. Pero esos que hicieron uso de sus dones fueron elogiados y se les dijo: “bien hecho, siervo bueno y fiel”. Cuando suceda la segunda venida, el regreso de su patrón, ambos habrán demostrado un esfuerzo. El único en quien el patrón mostró su desilusión fue por el que no hizo ningún esfuerzo, el que estaba como inmovilizado por el miedo o la indiferencia. En el camino hacia el reino, no siempre hay instrucciones claras. Simplemente se nos pide que lo intentemos, que hagamos nuestro mejor esfuerzo. No hay nada en el pasaje que diga que estos sirvientes no hayan cometido errores en el camino, pero su amo los vio, los amó y elogió por sus acciones, sus intentos, como Dios lo hará por nosotros. Y ahora ya conoces el resto de la historia.

Cambia Nuestras Viads

Las cartas de Pablo a los tesalonicenses están entre sus primeros escritos movidos por su creencia, y la creencia de la comunidad de la Iglesia joven, de que el retorno de Cristo era inminente, y que dedicar tiempo y atención a otras cosas era tontería.

Con el paso del tiempo este fervor disminuyó un poco. Hoy, cuando escuchamos sobre la llegada del fin de los tiempos, podemos preguntarnos si la tenemos que tomar en serio, si es que realmente creemos que Cristo todavía puede venir por nosotros como “un ladrón en la noche” (1 Tesalonicenses 5:2). ¿Significa esto que debemos ponerle un paro a establecer metas a largo plazo, despojarnos de nuestros calendarios y agendas anuales, dejar de ahorrar para una educación universitaria? Por supuesto que no. Lo que significa es que necesitamos cambiar nuestra vida, vivir como hijos de la luz e ir iluminando el mundo que nos rodea con la luz del Evangelio. Entonces, en aquél día, cuando los detalles de nuestra vida diaria se tornen poco importantes, estaremos listos para encontrar nuestra paz y seguridad en Cristo Jesús.

¿Sabía Usted?

Revise las reglas y planes de seguridad de su familia

Este año, con la escuela comenzando en línea, los niños de todas las edades estarán interactuando unos con otros vía tecnología aún más que lo usual. Esté pendiente de señales que indiquen que está ocurriendo acoso vía internet, textos, por medio de aplicaciones, o de las redes sociales. Aunque constituya un desafío, monitoree tanto la cantidad de tiempo que sus niños pasan conectados, como el contenido de lo que ellos están viendo cuando interactúen con sus amigos. El ciberacoso puede incluir el uso de aplicaciones, textos, fotografías, e imágenes con los cuales se intenta herir, hostigar, avergonzar, o hasta destruir la reputación de una víctima. Los niños que son acosados por medio de internet pueden evitar conectarse en línea o de hablar con sus llamados amigos. Ellos podrían mostrarse tristes o enojados y pueden tener baja autoestima.
