Some Words from the Pastor

We may see people wearing red clothes today. It is the color of the day which symbolizes love. It's Valentine's Day, February 14. It is also the World Marriage Day. We celebrate the love of husbands and wives who are united through the Sacrament of Marriage. We pray for married couples, that their hearts may always be filled with love and affection for each other as they continue to live with faith in God and fidelity to each other.

We celebrate the eucharist this Sunday with gratitude in our hearts. It is the celebration of the great love of the Lord as we offer the sacrifice of himself for us. The Lord says that there is no greater love than one can give than to lay down his life for one's friends. This is the unconditional love that our Lord Jesus Christ has shown us. Hence it is the greatest love that we celebrate. Red is not just a color that symbolizes love on Valentine's Day, but it is the liturgical color that symbolizes martyrdom. A martyr had given up his or her life for the Lord, giving witness to his or her faith in God. In the eucharist, we celebrate the martyrdom of our Lord, thus, his great love for us, as he suffered and died on the cross for our sake.

Soon we shall begin the season of Lent with the celebration of Ash Wednesday this week. Lent prepares us for the celebration of the Paschal Mystery of our Lord. It is the season when we commemorate the suffering and death of our Lord Jesus Christ. It will prepare and lead us too, to the celebration of his glorious resurrection. We are entering the Season of Lent that reminds us of how loving and merciful God is. It calls us to a change of heart and conversion. When we receive the ashes on our foreheads, the priest or minister says, "Repent and believe in the Gospel." If we love God, then we are willing to change. The Gospel, the good news of his love and desire to save us, will guide and enlighten us to follow the path of love. This enables us to lovingly observe our traditions of fasting and abstinence, of living a life of prayer, and of showing acts of charity through almsgiving. Let us ask for the grace to prepare ourselves for the coming season of Lent.

Have a Blessed Sunday!

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Readings: Jb 7:1-4, 6-7; Ps 147:1-2, 3-4, 5-6; 1 Cor 9:16-19, 22-23; Mk 1:29-39

Surrendering Control

The Gospel today concludes the first chapter of Mark, which traces the rapid expansion of Jesus' ministry. Excitement about Jesus grows so much that he can't enter a town without being besieged. His healing of a leper results in a reversal: the leper, who had been isolated from the community, is now free to speak with everyone. Jesus, who before could speak freely, now must isolate himself from the crowds. By serving others, Jesus lost some control over his ministry. This is the first hint of what happens later in Mark. Jesus' displays of power—over illness, over evil spirits, over nature—eventually lead him to the “powerlessness” of the cross.

The experience of Jesus guides us in our own efforts to be of service. Surrendering control is often very difficult. To be a servant is to engage with others, where frequently we lose some control over our freedoms, time, and energies. Often there is a cross or two to bear. As Jesus let go of control in his life, he also placed his trust in his Father. He invites us to do the same.

For the Glory of God

In today's passage from First Corinthians, Paul concludes his extensive reflections on a variety of issues in Christian life, summarizing with “whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God.” Beyond the specific problems he addresses, Paul invites his listeners deeper, to consider the primary orientation of life in Christ. We live “for the glory of God” when we organize our lives around God's values and purposes. We find our identity within God's story as described in the scriptures. We are called to join God's work in care for others. Just like Paul, we wrestle with many difficult problems emerging from the messiness of daily living. As Lent approaches, we might claim some time to reflect upon how life's messiness connects with our identity and calling.

Did you Know?

Cyberbullying is still a threat with distance learning

This year, with school starting online children of all ages will be interacting with one another via technology even more than usual. Be on the lookout for signs that bullying is happening via the internet, texting, various apps, or social media – as challenging as it is, monitor both the amount of time your children are “plugged in” and the content of what they are doing when interacting with their peers. Cyberbullying can include the use of apps, texts, photographs, and images that are intended to hurt, harass, embarrass, or even destroy the reputation of a victim. Unlike at school, you cannot walk away from cyberbullying — it spreads instantly, 24/7. Children who are cyberbullied may avoid going online or talking to their so-called friends. They are likely to be sad or angry and may have low self-esteem. For more information on this topic, visit <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>. **Stewardship of Time*

Entregando el Control

Con el Evangelio de hoy se termina el primer capítulo de Marcos, el cual sigue la expansión rápida del ministerio de Jesús. El entusiasmo por Jesús aumenta tanto que él no puede entrar a un pueblo sin que sea asediado. La curación del leproso resultó en un cambio, el leproso, que se había aislado de la comunidad, tiene ahora la libertad de hablar con quien quiera. Jesús que antes podría hablar libremente, ahora debe aislarse de las multitudes. Al servir a los demás, Jesús perdió el control sobre su ministerio. Esta es la primera indicación de lo que pasará después en Marcos. La manifestación del poder de Jesús sobre las enfermedades, los espíritus inmundos y la naturaleza; con el tiempo lo llevarán a la "impotencia" de la cruz. La experiencia de Jesús nos guía en nuestro propio esfuerzo por servir. Entregar el control a menudo es muy difícil. Ser un siervo es comprometerse con los demás, donde frecuentemente perdemos algún control sobre nuestras libertades, tiempo y energías. A menudo hay una o dos cruces que tenemos que cargar. Mientras Jesús dejaba el control de su vida, él también depositaba su confianza en su Padre. Él nos invita a hacer lo mismo.

Para la Gloria de Dios

En el pasaje de la primera carta a los corintios, Pablo concluye sus reflexiones extensas sobre una variedad de temas de la vida cristiana, resumiendo con "todo lo que hagan, háganlo todo para la gloria de Dios". Más allá de los problemas específicos que él presenta, Pablo invita a sus oyentes a profundizar, a considerar la orientación primaria de la vida en Cristo. Vivimos "para la gloria de Dios" cuando organizamos nuestra vida alrededor de los valores y propósitos de Dios. Encontramos nuestra identidad dentro de la historia de Dios como se describe en las Escrituras. Estamos llamados a unirnos a la obra de Dios en el cuidado de los demás. Al igual que Pablo, luchamos con muchos problemas difíciles que surgen del desorden de la vida diaria. Al acercarse la Cuaresma, podríamos solicitar tiempo para reflexionar en cómo el desorden de nuestra vida se conecta con nuestra identidad y vocación.

¿Sabía Usted?

Revise las reglas y planes de seguridad de su familia

Este año, con la escuela comenzando en línea, los niños de todas las edades estarán interactuando unos con otros vía tecnología aún más que lo usual. Esté pendiente de señales que indiquen que está ocurriendo acoso vía internet, textos, por medio de aplicaciones, o de las redes sociales. Aunque constituya un desafío, monitoree tanto la cantidad de tiempo que sus niños pasan conectados, como el contenido de lo que ellos están viendo cuando interactúen con sus amigos. El ciberacoso puede incluir el uso de aplicaciones, textos, fotografías, e imágenes con los cuales se intenta herir, hostigar, avergonzar, o hasta destruir la reputación de una víctima. Los niños que son acosados por medio de internet pueden evitar conectarse en línea o de hablar con sus llamados amigos. Ellos podrían mostrarse tristes o enojados y pueden tener baja autoestima. Para obtener más información sobre este tema, visite <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>. **Corresponsabilidad de Tiempo*
