Some Words from the Pastor

Reopening. This is the most popular word these days as California relaxes its regulation on the wearing of face masks and social distancing. People got excited about it. Last Sunday, when I mentioned that we don't have wear our face masks in the church next weekend, people started clapping their hands. It reflected how tired the people had become of face masks. Others are still careful about it though, and insisted that they will still use their face masks.

We received the Liturgical guidelines from the Archdiocese of Los Angeles regarding this move to go back to the usual normal. The Archbishop has given out a letter that stated that he is lifting the dispensation from the obligation of Sunday masses. Meaning, people have to come to church now, in person for the celebration of the mass starting June 19, 2021. Of course this doesn't include those who are sick and the elderly who are physically unable to come to church.

While there is so much excitement, others are having some apprehensions. Those who are vaccinated can come to church without face masks and without observing social distancing. For those who are reluctant to come inside, we are still keeping the tents outside the church so that they can still join and participate in the celebration of the mass.

Let us continue to pray for safety and protection. We ask the Lord for wellness and good health. This is what we have been praying for. Let us hope that this pandemic will completely come to an end. Meantime, let us move on and go forward in our journey of faith. God will certainly be with us always.

May God bless us all, especially the fathers as we celebrate Father's Day. Happy Father's Day to all fathers!

Have a blessed Sunday!

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Readings: Jb 38:1, 8–11; Ps 107:23–26, 28–31; 2 Cor 5:14–17; Mk 4:35–41

Though we re-enter Ordinary Time already knowing that Jesus is the Son of God (see the centurion's words at the end of the Palm Sunday Passion reading from Mark's Gospel), the long succession of Sundays confronts us again with the question that each Christian community, each individual Christian faces continually throughout life: "Who is this?" (Mark 4:41), and prompts an "examination of conscience" regarding the practical consequences of our response. This year's Gospel readings from Mark suggest that we find our answer in the cross and in the Eucharist. Today's stark challenge of Jesus' call to discipleship is, thankfully, balanced by the comfort we can take in relating—perhaps only too well—to the disciples' fears. Though we welcome Jesus in Word and Eucharist Sunday after Sunday, don't we all, from time to time during our lives' "ordinary time," experience Jesus' "real absence"?

Sea and Wind

As always in Ordinary Time, today's Old Testament sets the stage for the Gospel. God, who in Jesus will "rebuke the wind" and "command the sea to be still" (Mark 4:39), "addresses Job out of the storm" (Job 38:1), speaking to the turmoil in Job's heart, calling to mind the primal chaos of creation's untamed sea, reminding Job that God's mighty word then was enough to command order and bring forth life. In today's Gospel, the disciples' fear, even near despair, takes center stage. Are any of us strangers to such emotions? Squall-force winds buffet their boat, waves break over it, and Jesus might as well not be there. Mark's account is especially grim. Alone among the evangelists, he tells us that Jesus is in the stern, the very back of the boat, not just asleep—sound asleep! Only Mark adds the detail, "on a cushion" (4:38).

Awaken Christ

Though we welcome Jesus in Word and Eucharist Sunday after Sunday, haven't we all, from time to time, experienced Jesus' "real absence"? This personal application should comfort us, as it has generations of disciples before us. Though the "boat" is, primarily, a symbol of the Church, never forsaken by Christ, carried safely across time's stormy waters, Saint Augustine preaching on this very Gospel sixteen hundred years ago noted that, since each of us is a temple of God, each one's heart is a sailing boat. Consider any temptation, says Augustine, as "the wind, the surging of the sea," and do what the disciples did: wake up Christ, "the sleeper in your heart," by recalling his words and commands. Then be like the wind and the sea: "The sea obeys him, the wind is still." Whenever emotions make our hearts turbulent, whenever Christ seems absent or at least asleep, "let us not despair but awaken Christ, so that we may sail in quiet waters, and reach at last our heavenly homeland."

Did you Know?

Using the "What If" game to raise problem-solving children

The "What If" game is a great way to walk your children through potential scenarios, and work with them to find the best solutions. Ask your children about "what if" scenarios, mixing silly questions with real world ones to keep them engaged and thinking, like "What if you had super powers?" and "What if a stranger asked you to go somewhere with him at the mall?" You can empower your children with problem-solving skills that will keep them safe even when you can't be there to protect them. For more information, visit <https://www.d2l.org/what-if-game/>.

Duodécimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Lecturas de hoy: Job 38:1, 8–11; Sal 107 (106):23–26, 28–31; 2 Cor 5:14–17; Mc 4:35–41

Aunque volvemos a reempezar el Tiempo Ordinario sabiendo que Jesús es el Hijo de Dios (léase atentamente las palabras del centurión en la lectura de la Pasión del Domingo de Ramos del Evangelio de Marcos), la extensa serie de domingos nos enfrenta con la pregunta que cada comunidad cristiana, cada uno de los cristianos afronta continuamente a lo largo de la vida: “¿quién es este?” (Marcos 4:41), y nos impulsa a hacer “un examen de conciencia” sobre las consecuencias prácticas de nuestra respuesta. Las lecturas para este año del Evangelio de Marcos sugieren que encontremos nuestra respuesta en la cruz y en la Eucaristía. El reto claro de hoy de la llamada de Jesús al discipulado está, afortunadamente, balanceado con el consuelo que tenemos al relacionarse, quizá demasiado bien, con los temores de los discípulos. Aunque demos la bienvenida a Jesús en la Palabra y la Eucaristía domingo tras domingo, ¿no hemos experimentado todos, de vez en cuando, durante “el tiempo ordinario” de nuestras vidas, la “ausencia real” de Jesús?

El mar y el viento

Como siempre en el Tiempo Ordinario, las lecturas de hoy del Antiguo Testamento preparan el escenario para el Evangelio. Dios que, en Jesús, “reprenderá el viento” y “mandará calmar el mar” (Marcos 4:39), “se dirige a Job desde la tormenta” (Job 38:1), hablando desde la confusión de su corazón, recordando a Job que entonces la Palabra poderosa de Dios bastaba para con una orden devolver la vida. En el Evangelio de hoy, el miedo de los discípulos, incluso su desesperación, es el protagonista. ¿Acaso alguno de nosotros es ajeno a esas emociones? Los vientos de la borrasca golpean la barca, las olas rompen sobre ella y Jesús podría no estar ahí. El relato de Marcos es particularmente triste. Solo entre los evangelistas, él nos cuenta que Jesús está en la popa, en la parte trasera de la barca, y no solo dormido, sino que está profundamente dormido. Únicamente Marcos añade el detalle “sobre un cojín” (4:38).

Despertar a Cristo

Aunque acojamos a Jesús en la Palabra y la Eucaristía domingo tras domingo, ¿acaso no nos ha pasado a todos que experimentamos, de vez en cuando, la “ausencia real” de Jesús? Esta experiencia personal debería reconfortarnos, como así ha sucedido con generaciones de discípulos antes que nosotros. Aunque ante todo la barca es un símbolo de la Iglesia, nunca abandonada por Cristo, llevada con seguridad a través de las aguas tormentosas del tiempo, san Agustín al predicar sobre este mismo Evangelio hace mil seiscientos años, señaló que, puesto que cada uno de nosotros es un templo de Dios, el corazón de cada uno es una barca de vela. San Agustín dice: considera cualquier tentación como “el viento, el oleaje del mar”, y haz lo que hicieron los discípulos, despierta a Cristo, “el durmiente en tu corazón”, recordando sus palabras y mandamientos. Luego sé como el viento y el mar: “El mar lo obedece, el viento está tranquilo”. Siempre que las emociones hagan turbulento nuestro corazón, siempre que Cristo parezca ausente o al menos dormido, “no nos desesperemos, sino despertemos a Cristo, para que podamos navegar en aguas tranquilas, y llegar por fin a nuestra patria celestial”.

¿Sabía Usted?

Uso del juego “¿Y si ...?” para criar niños que resuelven problemas

El juego “¿Qué pasaría si ...?” es una excelente manera de guiar a sus hijos a través de posibles escenarios y trabajar con ellos para encontrar las mejores soluciones. Pregúntele a sus hijos sobre escenarios de “qué pasaría si”, mezclando preguntas tontas con preguntas del mundo real para mantenerlos interesados y pensando. Por ejemplo, “¿Y si tuvieras superpoderes?” o “¿Qué pasa si un extraño te pide que vayas a algún lugar con él en el centro comercial?” Usted puede capacitar a sus hijos con habilidades para resolver problemas que los mantendrán seguros, incluso cuando usted no pueda estar allí para protegerlos.
