Dear Friends in the Lord,

It is a great pleasure to announce that the long-time member of St. John's and newly ordained Deacon John LaRochelle will be with us for both the 10:15 a.m. and 12:15 p.m. Masses next weekend. The 10:15 will be lived streamed (every week from here on out) so many of you will be able to see and hear him. Deacon John's summer assignment is at the Cathedral of St. Paul. We are grateful that he will be able to be home with us for next weekend.

This weekend we celebrate – such as we can during these days – the Fourth of July. One of the common refrains that we hear during this holiday is that “Freedom is not Free.” True enough. Still, what we have discovered more clearly during this horrific pandemic is that all of us must be willing to pay the price if any of us can be truly free. The words of the Bishop from the AME Church continue to ring in my ears. He said, “I do not wear this facemask for me, but for you. You do not wear your facemask for you, but for me.” In today's passage from the Gospel of Matthew, Jesus prays to and praises the Father. Specifically, because the Father has hidden from the “wise and the learned” what has been revealed to “little ones.” It is only when we humbly recognize our need for God that we are able to respond to each other's needs.

When we arrive at that humble place, we can experience the Lord's “yoke” as easy. In their book “The Gospel of Matthew,” Curtis Mitch and Edward Sri offer insight into the “yoke of Jesus” that we hear of in this familiar passage:

In biblical and Jewish tradition, a yoke is often a metaphor for religious instruction, in some cases the yoke represents the commandments of the Torah that define what it means to live in a covenant relationship with the Lord. In others, it represents the counsel of divine Wisdom that guides men and women toward pious and prosperous living.

Jesus probably had both traditions in mind when he spoke of “my yoke.” On the one hand, his teaching is the messianic Torah, for it brings to perfection the deepest intentions of the Mosaic law. On the other hand, Jesus conveys new wisdom that finds expression and vindication in his messianic works...

The implications of this is clear: Jesus himself is the living embodiment of a new Torah for the people of God and the incarnation of divine Wisdom for all who seek spiritual refreshment and rest. (p. 161)

In Christ's Peace,
Fr. John Madden

PARTNERS IN CHARITY has received gifts and donations in the amount of $61,040. The parish goal is $76,600 so we are on our way to the goal. Thank you, especially in these uncertain times, for your generosity to this important Annual Appeal of the Diocese.

THE CLOTHING ROOM at the Ascension Campus will be re-opening this Tuesday, July 7 We will resume taking clothing donations at this time. Anyone coming into the clothing center will be required to wear a mask or face covering.

JOIN OUR GENERAL FLOCKNOTE GROUP- We encourage you to stay connected through Flocknote during this challenging time and receive Father Madden's weekly messages and other important updates. We encourage you to use the commenting feature on Flocknote to share your thoughts, concerns, and prayers - so our community as a whole can provide support and prayers as needed.

NOT ON FLOCKNOTE? Simply fill out the short form on the parish website to connect to St. John's on Flocknote. You can choose which groups in the parish you would like to hear from.

THANK YOU to all the families, parishioners and members of St. John's for another wonderful year in Religious Education. More information will be forthcoming about re-opening in the fall and how we plan to proceed with classes. Have a great Summer!

PLASTIC BAG DONATIONS- Our Soup Kitchen and Food Pantry is in need of donations of plastic bags for our "to go" meals and various donations that are given out each day. Any and all donations are appreciated and can be dropped off at the St. Francis Xavier Center, the rectory, or left in the back of the church. Thank you for your continued generosity.

IGNATIAN VOLUNTEER CORPS (IVC) NEW ENGLAND

a yearlong volunteer opportunity for women and men 50 years of age and better, is recruiting volunteers for the upcoming (September to June) year. Volunteers give two full days/week of service and commit to a monthly spiritual reflection program in the Jesuit tradition. IVC works with non-profits in the Boston/Worcester/Providence areas that address problems of homelessness, education, immigration and more. Get info and application by contacting regional director Dave Hinchin newengland@ivcusa.org, or check out the IVC New England website @ www.ivcusa.org/new-england.

WORLDWIDE MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER -

"God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life."
