Dear Friends in the Lord:

Pope Francis, In his message for World Mission Sunday, implores us, “In this year marked by suffering and challenges created by the COVID-19 pandemic, the missionary journey of the whole Church continues in light of the words found in the account of the calling of the prophet Isaiah and the theme of this year’s World Mission Sunday: “Here I am, send me” (6:8). This is the ever-new response to the Lord’s question” ‘Whom shall I send?’ This invitation from God’s merciful heart challenges both the Church and humanity, in the current world crisis.”

Through the Pope’s own missionary society, you tom can be sent to all the ends of the earth—sent through your support of missionaries and those they serve. Your gifts sustain priests, religious sisters, and brothers as well as lay pastoral leaders in more than 1,100 mission diocese in Asia, Africa, the Pacific Islands and parts of Latin America and Europe as they proclaim the Gospel, build the Church, and serve the poor. With them, you answer, “Here I am, Send me.”

This year, in response to the challenges to the Mission Church from the pandemic, I invite you to consider a sacrificial gift to the annual World Mission Sunday Collection. It will be collected on the weekend of October 17 –18. Your generous support will enable to Society for the Propagation of the Faith to continue to spread the gospel to the growing faith communities of our day.

With gratitude and prayerful best wishes, I am,

Devotedly yours in Christ,
Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan
 Archbishop of New York
