The attached “Table of Liturgical Days According to Their Order of Precedence and Color in the Diocese of Pittsburgh” has been approved by Bishop Zubik. The purpose of the Table is to help when planning liturgies, as questions often arise as to what Masses may be celebrated on particular days. Questions about the Table can be addressed to the Department for Worship at either worship@diopitt.org or 412-456-3041.

Section I, Section II, and Section III are delineations from The Roman Missal. “Section I” denotes Solemnities (page 2), “Section II” denotes Feasts (page 3), and “Section III” denotes Memorials (page 5). Please pay attention to the bolded commentary spread throughout these three sections.

Numbers 1-10 state that the only celebrations permissible are those of the Day itself. Therefore, if a confirmation, for instance, would take place on these days, it would be “Mass with Ritual” – meaning that the orations, readings, and color are of the day, with the ritual taking place after the homily.

Numbers 11-17 would permit a Funeral Mass to “trump” the Mass of the day. Draw your attention to 17.b.ii. Not many parishes pay attention to the date of the dedication of their current church building. If the date is known, it should be honored.

Numbers 18-25 would let one of the Ritual Masses enumerated “trump” the day. Therefore at the Ritual Mass, the orations, readings, and color (white) are of the Ritual Mass, ignoring the texts of the day. As an example, if February 2 were on a Saturday, at the Mass “For the Celebration of Marriage” one would use the ritual’s proper orations, readings, and color (white).

Numbers 26-32 suggest that for pastoral advantage and at the discretion of the principal celebrant, the forty-nine (49) “Masses and Prayers for Various Needs and Occasions” and the nineteen (19) “Votive Masses” enumerated in The Roman Missal may “trump” the day. Therefore, the orations and color (usually white) are of the Mass selected, with the readings either from the day or from the appropriate matching section of Volume IV of The Lectionary (Ritual, Votive, Commons).

31. Weekdays of the Easter Time from Monday after the Octave of Easter up to and including the Saturday before Pentecost
32. Weekdays in Ordinary Time

NOTES:
If several celebrations fall on the same day, the one that holds the highest rank according to the Table of Liturgical Days is observed. However, a Solemnity impeded by a liturgical day that takes precedence over it should be transferred to the closest day not listed under nos. 1-21 in the Table of Precedence, provided that what is laid down below is observed.

[Because of its special importance, the celebration of Sunday gives way only to Solemnities and Feasts of the Lord; indeed, the Sundays of Advent, Lent, and Easter have precedence over all Feasts of the Lord and over all Solemnities. In fact, Solemnities occurring on these Sundays are transferred to the following Monday unless they occur on Palm Sunday or on Sunday of the Lord’s Resurrection.]

As to the Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord, whenever it falls on any day of Holy Week, it shall always be transferred to the Monday after the Second Sunday of Easter.

Other celebrations are omitted in that year.

Should on the other hand, Vespers (Evening Prayer) of the current day’s Office and First Vespers (Evening Prayer I) of the following day be assigned for celebration on the same day, then Vespers (Evening Prayer) of the celebration with the higher rank in the Table of Liturgical Days takes precedence; in cases of equal rank, Vespers (Evening Prayer) of the current day takes precedence.
