Holy Trinity Pilgrimage to Ireland & Scotland

12 days / 10 nights

Day 1: Monday, June 25
Our pilgrimage begins with an overnight flight from Denver to Ireland

Day 2: Tuesday, June 26: Welcome to Ireland
We begin with a panoramic tour of Dublin, discovering the north side of the Liffey River. This area offers great striking monuments, such as the GPO (General Post Office) on the city main thoroughfare, O'Connell Street, the Custom House along the quays and the Phoenix Park (the largest public park in Europe). The south side appears more sophisticated, with its vast Georgian squares (such as Merrion Square, where Oscar Wilde’s House can still be found). After we enjoy Wilde’s house, with its colorful doors, we will walk along Grafton Street and its quality shops. Not so far from St. Stephen’s Green, you will see the house of Bram Stoker (the author of Dracula). This part of the city is also dominated by the students of Trinity College, where the famous book of Kells is permanently exhibited in its library. The university is facing the medieval district, where Dublin Castle and the two Anglican Cathedrals can be found. We pay a visit to Trinity College, with the Book of Kells. Thomas Burgh built the Old Library in the 18th century. Today, it houses one of Ireland’s most illustrious books: the 9th century “Book of Kells.” Before viewing the famous book, visitors pass through an excellent exhibition based on the book of Kells and other important books written in monasteries around Ireland from the 9th century. After viewing the Book of Kells, visitors are invited to visit the long room, built in 1745. Once the principal library of the University, it now contains over 200,000 books and manuscripts of the Trinity’s oldest volumes. There are also several artifacts on display: Brian Boru’s harp, said to be the “oldest harp in Ireland,” and a copy of the 1916 proclamation. Lastly, we celebrate Mass at Our Lady of Lourdes Church in Dublin. Dinner and overnight in Dublin.

Day 3: Wednesday, June 27: Wicklow & Glendalough
This morning, we depart Wicklow, also known as the Garden of Ireland. It is home to Powerscourt, Mount Usher and Russborough – a few of its many houses and gardens. This region features all the various types of scenery that makes Ireland so beautiful. The coastline is bordered by charming sea resorts, such as Bray or Greystones. In the heart of its gentle and rounded hills are nestled Enniskerry and Avoca, both very picturesque villages. We will discover its romantic and quiet beauty, the deserted mounts where nothing but heather grows, the small forests and the lush prairies illuminated by yellow gorse in spring. Next we visit Glendalough. The English name Glendalough originated from the Irish phrase, “Gleann Dá Locha,” which translates as “The valley of the two lakes.” It was here that St. Kevin – son of the king of Leinster – founded a monastery in the 6th century. From a simple beginning, the site grew to become famous as a centre of learning throughout Europe. Standing for 600 years it was destroyed in 1398. Much of what is to be seen today dates from the 10th to 12th centuries. One of the most attractive features is the fine 34m high round tower. A cathedral, stone churches and decorated crosses also survived, albeit as ruins. Glendalough has an excellent visitor’s centre and display area, which is located at the entrance to the Valley. It houses a very comprehensive exhibition on Glendalough, detailing the history, archaeology and wildlife of this area of Wicklow. Lastly, we celebrate a possible Mass at St. Kevin’s Church in Glendalough. Return to Dublin for dinner and overnight.
Day 4: Thursday, June 28: Dublin to Galway
This morning we leave Dublin for Galway. En route we visit Bru Na Boinne Visitor Centre and Newgrange. Brú Na Bóinne Visitor Centre is designed to present the archaeological heritage of the Boyne Valley, which includes the fascinating megalithic passage tombs of Newgrange, Knowth and Dowth. Also visit the Hill of Slane, in County Meath. There is an artificial mound on the western end of the hilltop. The hill may have been chosen as the site of Christian abbey due to the presence of an existing pagan shrine, the remains of which may be two standing stones in the burial yard. It is claimed that St. Patrick lit a Paschal fire on this hill top in A.D. 433 in defiance of the High King Laoire. Celebrate Mass in Delvin before continuing to Galway for dinner and overnight.

Day 5: Friday, June 29: Galway, Slieve League Cliffs & Donegal
Today we will take leave of Galway and travel to Northern Ireland, visiting Knock Shrine en route to Derry. The story of Knock shrine began on Thursday evening of the 21st August, 1879, when the Virgin Mary, St. Joseph and St. John the Evangelist appeared at the south gable of the church at Knock in County Mayo. Two commissions of enquiry, in 1879 and 1936, accepted the testimony of this apparition as trustworthy and satisfactory. Today, Knock ranks among the world’s major Marian shrines. We will visit the Slieve League Cliffs (Europe’s highest sea cliffs) before continuing to Derry for dinner and overnight.

Day 6: Saturday, June 30: Derry to Belfast
This morning we enjoy a city tour of the walls of Derry. Founded in the 6th century by St. Columba, Derry is the second largest city and port of Northern Ireland. Walk along the walls of Derry as they are among the best-preserved fortifications in Europe. Today, these walls separate two communities, the Bogside (a Catholic ghetto with its famous murals) and the Waterside (a Protestant enclave). We continue along the coast to visit Giants Causeway. The new Visitor centre explores the major themes of mythology, geology, landscape, ecology, culture and social history based on the UNESCO World Heritage site that consists of 40,000 basalt polygonal columns formed 60 million years ago after a volcanic eruption. We continue to Belfast for dinner and overnight.

Day 7: Sunday, July 1: Belfast to Glasgow
This morning we enjoy a city tour of Belfast and take in the leaning Albert Memorial Clock tower, the Opera House, City Hall, The Crown Bary, Queens University, Botanic Gardens, Harland and Wolfe Shipyard (where the Titanic was built), and Shankill and Falls road. We board the ferry from Belfast to Scotland and continue towards Glasgow for dinner and overnight.

Day 8: Monday, July 2: Glasgow to Oban
This morning we enjoy a city tour of Glasgow that includes, the Merchant City, the Waterfront, the West End, and Dumbarton Castle. In the afternoon we will continue to Oban for dinner and overnight.

Day 9: Tuesday, July 3: Isle of Mull & Iona
Today we take the ferry from Oban to Craignure and continue to the Isle of Iona. We follow in the footsteps of pilgrims who have been coming to Iona since not long after St Columba’s arrival AD 563. We will walk past the old nunnery and the historic graveyard that contains the remains of a score of Scottish and even some Norse Kings, on the restored Abbey Church. This evening we return to Oban for dinner and overnight.

Day 10: Wednesday, July 4: Oban to Edinburgh
We take leave of Oban for Edinburgh. En route we visit Stirling Castle, one of Scotland’s grandest castles before continuing to Edinburgh for dinner and overnight.

Day 11: Thursday, July 5: Edinburgh

Today we take a city tour of Edinburgh, beginning with what may be the most recognizable symbol of Scotland: Edinburgh Castle. The castle, dating back as far as the 9th century B.C. (although the nature of early settlement is unclear), was a royal residence from the 12th century until the Union of the Crowns in 1603. From the later 17th century, the castle became a military base with a large garrison; many of the buildings we’ll explore today are from its use as a military garrison. We’ll also see the Honours of Scotland, known as the Scottish regalia and the Scottish Crown Jewels which date from the 15th and 16th centuries and are the oldest set of crown jewels in the British Isles. Other landmarks on our tour include the Royal Scots Regimental Museum, Arthur’s Seat, Charlotte Square, the Royal Mile (approximately one Scots mile long and runs from Edinburgh Castle at the top down to Holyrood Abbey), Sir Walter Scott Monument, St. Andrew Square and St. Giles. The afternoon is free to for individual reflection and exploration before we gather together for a farewell dinner in Edinburgh.

Day 12: Friday, July 6: Depart for Home

With hearts full of gratitude and memories for a lifetime, we transfer to the Edinburgh airport for the return flight home to the USA. The daily Masses, breaking open the Word, and faith sharing of this pilgrimage, have challenged us to deeper discipleship in Christ and Church, with a commitment to be good stewards of God’s gracious gifts in our lives.

We highly recommend travel insurance to cover trip cancellation/interruption, travel delay, emergency medical, baggage delay and accidental death coverage. Please read the insurance information included in this document. If insurance is purchased at the time of a tour member’s initial deposit for the trip, the travel insurance covers that tour member even if he/she must cancel or interrupt the trip due to a pre-existing condition.
Sometimes it happens - an emergency at home or a sickness causes people to cancel their vacation or interrupt their trip. We hope this doesn’t happen to you, but if it does, what about the financial costs involved? And what about losing your personal belongings or becoming ill while on your trip? Because these unfortunate events can occur, a travel protection plan offered and administered by Trip Mate, Inc. is available with all Faith Journeys International travel arrangements. This high-quality travel insurance plan covers your vacation investment, your belongings, and most importantly, you. This travel protection plan covers you even if you must cancel or interrupt your trip due to a pre-existing medical condition - if you purchase the plan within 30 days of your initial deposit/payment for your trip.

12.5. Deviations: Late return deviations are sometimes permitted from the original city of departure, for a minimum fee of $150, if the class of service is still available at time of booking and if the carrier’s fare rules permit the change. All deviations must be applied for by writing, faxing or emailing your request to Faith Journeys. When a deviation is confirmed by the airline, passengers will be notified and invoiced for all charges incurred for their deviation. Each subsequent change is subject to an additional $50 processing fee, plus airline fees once confirmed. Deviations are difficult, especially during high season, so requests must be made as early as possible. Clients who deviate must arrange for their own ground transportation to and from the airport.

13. FREQUENT FLYER PROGRAM MEMBERS

If Client desires to use frequent flyer miles for free tickets, Client will need to book its flights directly with the airline and purchase a "Land Only" package from Faith Journeys. Faith Journeys is unable to provide ticket copies after departure for mileage credits. Client should check with their preferred carrier to determine if Client qualifies for any mileage accrual.

14. LAND ONLY

Any Client choosing the 'Land Only' package after their initial full-tour reservation has been made in writing, faxing or emailing, is subject to a $50 change fee up to 60 days prior to departure. Anyone changing to a 'Land Only' option 60 to 0 days prior to departure will be subject to a $1,000 change fee. If Client chooses the 'Land Only' option must arrange for their own ground transportation to and from the airports and any mid-tour flights.

15. TOUR PRICES

The services specified are based on a minimum of number of passengers. If this quota is not reached, the price of the tour will be increased proportionately. All tour prices quoted for transportation and land arrangements are based on rates (including foreign exchange rates) and taxes in effect at time of publication and are subject to change. Adjustments will be made when the exchange rate varies more that 5% at 120 days prior to departure. Confirmation of final air and land prices and taxes will be advised at that time.

16. TRAVEL INSURANCE

Travel insurance is highly recommended. Faith Journeys offers TRIP MATE travel insurance. Coverage includes Accidental Death & Dismemberment, Medical Expense/Emergency Assistance, Pre-Departure Trip Cancellation due to illness, Post-Departure Trip Interruption, Travel and Baggage Delay and loss of Baggage and Personal Effects. The non-refundable premium must be paid at the time of the initial deposit to include any pre-existing medical conditions that do not disable you from travel at the time the premium payment is made. A detailed copy of the Faith Journeys Travel Protection Plan Summary is provided with the tour brochure. All cancellations are subject to the terms and conditions stated therein unless the U.S. State Department bans travel to the countries included in the itinerary. Claims for refunds will be handled expeditiously and will be made within 60 days following the termination of the tour program.
Flight contracts – Frequent Flyer numbers – Seat changes/requests – “Land Only” packages

Group Air

Faith Journeys is a faith based tour company that specializes in exclusive group travel. We negotiate and secure group air contracts with all major airlines departing from the designated airport for each Faith Journeys group. This allows us to keep all passengers within the group traveling together, in most cases.

Group air contracts differ from individually purchased airline tickets in many ways. When group air contracts are negotiated, we are able to hold a large number of seats at the same rate until we ticket the group approximately 45 days prior to departure. We are limited in what types of deviations are allowed from the group contract and in some cases need to look at published, individual tickets. Taxes and fuel costs are subject to change until the tickets are issued.

All airlines require valid passport information including full name (first, middle and last), date of birth, gender, country, in which your passport has been issued and passport expiration date. To ensure that we are able to provide this information accurately, we require a photo copy of each person’s passport traveling on each tour. Faith Journeys will apply each registered passenger’s name to the group air contract approximately 60 days prior to departure. Communication is made with the group tour host to review passenger information before group ticketing is finalized with the airline.

Frequent Flyer Numbers

Frequent Flyer #’s are not always accepted in group air contracts at time of ticketing, however you may apply your FF# to your flight at the ticket counter on the day of your departure. Please make sure to have this information with you when you check-in upon arrival at the airport.

Seat Requests & Seat Changes

Faith Journeys makes every effort to honor each request received by our passengers regarding seating preferences. Please understand that although requests are being made directly with the airline, not every request is guaranteed or granted by the airline. If you would like to make any changes to your seat, you are welcome to contact the airline directly or change your seats upon check-in at the airport prior to departure.

“Land Only” Tour Package

Faith Journeys understands that some will wish to arrange their own air transportation for their tour. Arranging transportation on your own gives you the ability to use your flight miles for your ticket, secure the seat you desire/require, or upgrade to business class or an extra leg room seat. However, because our group air contracts allow us to hold space with the airline, we are able to limit cancelation penalties in the event of a group or passenger cancelation. Faith Journeys also reserves the right to search alternative flight schedules to better accommodate the group until shortly before ticketing. If the flight schedule you purchase arrives or departs at a time different from the group, it is your responsibility to join the group either at the airport or at the first hotel.
