YOUTH MINISTRY
Overview of Comprehensive Youth Ministry

Renewing the Vision

I. Definition of Catholic Youth Ministry

The definition of youth ministry offered by the Bishops is formed by our love for and our commitment to youth: youth have needs we care for and gifts to share. “Youth ministry is the response of the Christian community to the needs of young people and the sharing of the unique gifts of youth with the larger community.” (RTV 1)

II. Three Goals of Catholic Youth Ministry

In Renewing the Vision, three goals serve as directions for ministry with youth.

A. Empowerment

“To empower young people to live as disciples of Jesus Christ in our world today” (RTV 9)

B. Participation

“To draw young people to responsible participation in the life, mission, and work of the Catholic faith community” (RTV 11)

C. Growth

“To foster the total personal and spiritual growth of each young person” (RTV 15)

1 Renewing the Vision: A Framework for Catholic Youth Ministry (USCCB, 1997)
III. Seven Themes of Comprehensive Youth Ministry

The themes of a comprehensive vision presented in Renewing the Vision provide a guide for ministry development that helps us to use all of our resources and to be inclusive and responsive in our ministry efforts.

A. Developmentally Appropriate

Effective ministry responds to the developmental growth of adolescents by developing programs and strategies that are age-appropriate and strategically focused to contribute to the positive development of youth.

B. Family Friendly

Effective ministry recognizes the family as an important setting for ministry and provides links between the programs of youth ministry and the family home through the sharing of information, inclusive programs, and resources.

C. Intergenerational

Effective ministry utilizes the intergenerational parish community by developing shared programs and by connecting youth to adults in the community.

D. Multicultural

Effective ministry provides ministry to youth in the context of their culture and ethnic heritage. Effective ministry also promotes cross-cultural understanding and appreciation.

E. Community-wide Collaboration

Effective ministry promotes collaboration with leaders, agencies, and congregations in the wider community. This collaboration includes sharing information, sponsoring programs, and developing advocacy efforts.

F. Leadership

Effective ministry mobilizes the people of the faith community to become involved in youth ministry efforts by providing for diverse roles and commitments for adults and youth.

G. Flexible and Adaptable Programming

Effective ministry provides flexible and adaptable program structures and ministry responses to address the variety of youth and families in our communities.
IV. Eight Components of Comprehensive Youth Ministry

The components describe specific areas of the mission of the Church that work together to provide ministry with or to adolescents. These components provide a framework for the Catholic community to respond to the needs of young people and to involve young people in sharing their unique gifts with the larger community (RTV 26).

A. Advocacy

The ministry of advocacy engages the Church to examine its priorities and practices to determine how well young people are integrated into the life, mission, and work of the Catholic community.

1. It places adolescents and families first by analyzing every policy and program – diocesan, parish, domestic, and international – for its impact on adolescents and families.

B. Catechesis

1. The ministry of catechesis helps adolescents develop a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ and the Christian community, and increase their knowledge of the core content of the Catholic faith.

2. The ministry of catechesis also helps young people enrich and expand their understanding of the Scriptures and Sacred Tradition and their application to life today and live more faithfully as disciples of Jesus Christ in their daily lives, especially through a life of prayer, justice, and loving service.

C. Community Life

1. The ministry of community life builds an environment of love, support, appreciation for diversity, and judicious acceptance that models Catholic principles, develops meaningful relationships, and nurtures Catholic faith.

2. The ministry of Community Life is not only what we do (activity), but who we are (identity) and how we interact (relationships).

D. Evangelization

The ministry of evangelization shares the Good News of the reign of God and invites young people to hear about the Word Made Flesh.

1. The starting point for the ministry of evangelization is our recognition of the presence of God already in young people, their experiences, their families, and their culture.
2. Evangelization, therefore, enables young people to uncover and name the experience of God already active and present in their lives. This provides “an openness to the gift of the Good News of Jesus Christ” (Challenges of Catholic Youth Evangelization: Called to be Witnesses and Storytellers (NFCYM², 1993)).

3. The ministry of evangelization incorporates several essential elements: witness, outreach, proclamation, invitation, conversion, and discipleship.

E. Justice and Service

The ministry of justice and service nurtures in young people a social consciousness and a commitment to a life of justice and service rooted in their faith in Jesus Christ, in the Scriptures, and in Catholic social teaching; empowers young people to work for justice by concrete efforts to address the causes of human suffering, to serve those in need, to pursue peace, and to defend the life, dignity, and rights of all people; and infuses the concepts of justice, peace, and human dignity into all ministerial efforts.

F. Leadership Development

The ministry of leadership development calls forth, affirms, and empowers the diverse gifts, talents, and abilities of adults and young people in our faith communities for comprehensive ministry with adolescents.

1. Leadership roles in adolescent ministry are key. Leaders must be trained and encouraged.

2. This approach involves a wide diversity of adult and youth leaders in a variety of roles.

G. Pastoral Care

The ministry of pastoral care is a compassionate presence in imitation of Jesus’ care of people, especially those who are hurting and in need.

1. The ministry of pastoral care involves promoting positive adolescent and family development through a variety of positive (preventive) strategies:
   a. Caring for adolescents and families in crisis through support, counseling, and referral to appropriate community agencies
   b. Providing guidance as young people face life decisions and make moral choices
   c. Challenging systems that are obstacles to positive development (advocacy)

² National Federation of Catholic Youth Ministry
2. Pastoral care is most fundamentally a relationship – a ministry of compassionate presence.

3. Pastoral care enables healing and growth to take place within individuals and their relationships.

H. Prayer and Worship

The ministry of prayer and worship celebrates and deepens young people’s relationship with Jesus Christ through the bestowal of grace, communal prayer, and liturgical experiences.

1. It awakens their awareness of the spirit at work in their lives.

2. It incorporates young people more fully into the sacramental life of the Church, especially the Eucharist.

3. It nurtures the personal prayer life of young people.

4. It fosters family rituals and prayer.

V. Ministry Settings for Comprehensive Youth Ministry

To open opportunities, it is necessary to identify all available resources. Four settings for youth ministry create possibilities and inspire our shared creativity.

A. Youth

Youth ministry is most commonly associated with ministry to and with youth. This includes the variety of ways that young people gather for shared ministry. Youth group meetings, socials, sporting events, youth retreats, youth service events, and special youth prayer services are examples of gathered ministries in the youth setting. Sometimes specialized programs are provided for small groups of young people. Often times youth are not gathered for ministry. Instead, resources are developed for them. Many parishes develop a card that fits in a young person’s wallet or purse. This card includes hot-line support telephone numbers for their area. Other parishes organize teams of adults and youth to be present at high school football games, concerts, plays, and other events where young people are present.

B. Family

Ministry in the family setting includes the variety of ways families are supported as they share faith together in the home. This includes programs designed to help parents communicate with their adolescent. Resources that help families to pray and share together are also part of this setting. An important process in the family setting is building bridges between youth programs and the home. With strategies as simple as developing information packets for parents when youth attend a program, parents will know what their children are experiencing; they are better prepared to support these efforts.
C. Parish

The parish setting includes the many ways that youth experience ministry through the life of the parish itself. How do parishes include the gifts of youth and respond to their needs through our parish liturgies? What can parishes do to help youth join the central prayer of our faith? Some communities prepare liturgies that include youth in the liturgical ministries and youth examples in the prayers and homilies. The parish’s community life becomes a place to minister to youth when parishes pay attention to their needs and their gifts. For example, when planning a parish mission or a parish-wide service event, parishes consider its young members; link youth to the variety of service, ministry, and leadership roles in the community.

D. Wider Community

Ministry to youth in the wider community connects youth and families to programs and resources beyond our parish. Examples are participation in inter-parish, inter-church and diocesan events, and ways that connect youth and families to programs, resources, and events in the civic community. Connecting youth to service in hospitals, soup kitchens and homeless shelters is a wonderful way for youth to develop their gifts. Parish leaders take advantage of shared strength when they come together with other people and agencies in the wider community as advocates for youth.

VI. Putting the Framework Together

Together, the definition, goals, themes, components, and settings provide a framework for developing a unique response as a parish community. This framework provides a guide for developing comprehensive ministry and is designed to:

A. Utilize each of the Church’s ministries – advocacy, catechesis, community life, evangelization, justice and service, leadership development, pastoral care, prayer, and worship – in an integrated approach to achieving the three goals for ministry with adolescents

B. Provide developmentally appropriate programs and activities that promote personal and spiritual growth for younger and older adolescents

C. Enrich family life and promote the faith growth of families of adolescents

D. Incorporate young people fully into all aspects of Church life and engage them in ministry and leadership in the faith community

E. Create partnerships among families, schools, churches, and community organizations in a common effort to promote positive youth development (RTV 20)
VII. Key Features of Comprehensive Programming

A. A Diversity of Program Settings

Comprehensive ministry with adolescents uses all four ministry settings – youth, family, church community, and civic community to respond to the needs of young people and to involve young people more fully in the life of the faith community. The four ministry settings are a distinctive feature of comprehensive youth ministry.

B. A Balanced Mix

Comprehensive ministry with adolescents balances and integrates the eight ministry components, four program settings, and program approaches so that youth ministry can reach all the young people and their families and so that the resources of the community can be wisely used.

1. A distinctive feature of comprehensive youth ministry is responding to the needs of young people through the eight ministry components.

C. A Variety of Approaches

Comprehensive ministry with adolescents can be designed using three (3) different program approaches: gathered programs, small group programs, or individualized programs. Mixing and balancing the three program approach ensures that comprehensive youth ministry is flexible and adaptable in responding to young people’s needs.

1. Gathered Programs

Gathered programs focus on participation in organized, assembled programs in youth-only, family, parish-community, or civic community settings.

a. Examples of gathered programs include youth meetings, social events, trips, retreats, liturgical experiences, parish events, family programs, and intergenerational programs.

b. The gathered approach to programming is probably the most common, but it is also the most overused and the least flexible in responding to the complexity of people’s schedules and the diversity of adolescent needs.

2. Non-Gathered Programs

a. Small Group Programs

   i. Small group programs focus on using a small group setting of youth, families, or intergenerational groupings.

   ii. Small groups provide great flexibility in addressing a wide variety of needs because of the variety of scheduling and site options (e.g., homes for learning programs, social service centers for service projects) that are available.

   iii. Small group programs provide another alternative to adolescents who cannot attend gathered programs because of school, work, or family schedules.

   iv. Small groups can be utilized for evangelization programming, catechetical courses, prayer groups, self-help support groups, and Bible study.

   v. Small group settings allow easy use of video-based or video-assisted programs.

b. Individualized Programs

   i. Individualized programs focus on designed programming for individual or family use.

   ii. Individualized programs provide great flexibility in responding to a wide variety of needs and removing scheduling and site requirements.

      • They also provide another alternative to adolescents who cannot attend gathered programs because of school, work, sports, or family schedules.
iii. Individualized programs include home-based activities and resources, spiritual direction, mentoring, independent learning projects, peer ministry, and newsletters.

VIII. A Variety of Scheduling and Setting Options

Comprehensive ministry with adolescents is best implemented using a variety of program offerings organized in time formats and settings designed to meet the needs, schedules, and interests of youth and families. There is so much diversity in needs and so much competition for young people’s time that a youth ministry program must be very creative in offering formats, settings, and schedules that respond to the real-life situations of young people.

A. A variety of program schedules – weekly, bi-weekly, monthly, extended time, full day, overnight, weekend, weeklong, 3-6 p.m. weekdays

B. A variety of environments for programming – parish facility, homes, retreat centers, community centers

IX. Asset-Building for Positive Adolescent Growth

The forty (40) developmental assets, identified through national research by the Search Institute, are powerful shapers of young people’s behavior and provide concrete things that the Church can do to nurture adolescent growth and make a lasting difference in the lives of adolescents.3

A. “The asset-building approach reinforces the need for comprehensive youth ministry and affirms the comprehensive framework presented in Renewing the Vision.”

1. Asset development begins at birth and needs to be sustained through childhood and adolescence. Each stage of development requires persistent attention to meeting young people’s developmental needs.

2. Asset building depends primarily on individuals – parents, grandparents, teachers, neighbors, and many others – building positive relationships with children and teenagers.

3. Building assets also requires a highly consistent community, in which children and teenagers are exposed to clear messages about what is important.

4. Family can and should be the most powerful generator of developmental assets.

5. The assets are more likely to develop, if they are nurtured simultaneously by families, schools, youth organizations, neighborhoods, religious institutions, health care providers, and in the informal settings in which adults and youth interact.

3 Youth Works. Center for Youth Ministry Development, ©1994 ((888) 723-2433 www.cmdnet.org)
6. Because asset development necessitates relational, consistent, and redundant communities, all residents have a role. (Search Institute)

B. Use the description of assets that follows to determine how your ministry promotes asset building:

1. Identify current programs and activities in all four ministry settings – adolescents, families, church community, and civic community – that promote each asset.

2. Use the assets to focus the goals and content of current and new youth ministry programming.

3. Use the forty developmental assets to identify the need for new programs or activities.
   a. Utilize the four ministry settings to create new programs and activities.

4. Use the tool to identify community programs, activities, and resources that promote the forty assets, and then determine ways to incorporate these community resources in your ministry.
   a. Promote “weaker” assets by collaborating with other community organizations to design and implement new programs or initiatives.

Parish Coordinators of Youth Ministry

I. Guidelines for Hiring a Coordinator of Youth Ministry

A. The Office of Youth, Young Adult, and Campus Ministry (YYACM) seeks to assist parishes wishing to hire a Coordinator of Youth Ministry either on a part-time or full-time basis. The following information is offered to pastors, parish councils, and search committees seeking guidance in the hiring process.

1. YYACM does keep resumes on file as they are received from individuals seeking youth ministry positions.
   a. Please contact the YYACM Office for a copy of any resumes currently on file.

B. The following material is compiled from three sources: Renewing the Vision: A Framework for Catholic Youth Ministry, Competency-Based Standards for the Coordinator of Youth Ministry (NFCYM, 1990), and the Diocese of Austin Youth Ministry Advisory Council.

1. This information is to be used as a framework or guide to develop a job description that will meet the needs of young people and their families at an individual parish.

2. It is to guide the hiring process and support a national vision of youth ministry.

3. It is offered as a support, not a replacement, for current parish practices or needs.

C. Developing a Job Description for a Coordinator of Youth Ministry

1. Begin with the end in mind
   a. What will youth ministry at the parish look like, if it is successful and vibrant?
   b. What will be required for a vibrant youth ministry to develop or continue at the parish?
The Qualities of a Coordinator of Youth Ministry

1. As in any ministry, a quality person in a leadership position is the key to the success of that ministry. The NFCYM, supported by Renewing the Vision, gives clear direction to the role and qualities of leadership in youth ministry. Renewing the Vision states:

   The Coordinator of Youth Ministry must always be qualified and well trained, as well as have an excellent reputation. He or she facilitates the people, programming, and resources of the parish or school community in a comprehensive ministry effort. The Coordinator is primarily responsible for facilitating, planning, administering programs, developing a leadership system for adult and youth leaders (recruitment, training, and support), and serving as an advocate and link for young people to the faith community and wider community. (41)

2. According the NFCYM Competency-Based Standards for the Coordinator of Youth Ministry, “the Coordinator of Youth Ministry responds to the spiritual and social needs of Catholic Youth in the Parish.”

   a. The age range that the coordinator will be responsible for varies with each parish.

      i. Some parishes ask the coordinator to oversee grades 6-12.
ii. Other parishes (especially larger parishes) narrow the range of responsibility to middle school or high school.

iii. Some parishes include confirmation preparation in the responsibilities of the Youth Ministry Coordinator – other parishes do not.

3. In following NFCYM Competency-Based Standards for the Coordinator of Youth Ministry, the following should be included in the job description:
   a. An active Catholic in good standing with the Church
   b. An active and visible member of a parish community
   c. A person of deep faith and prayer
   d. A person called to ministry
   e. Maintains a flexible work schedule averaging forty (40) hours per week (for full-time staff) including evenings, weekends, and special occasions.

4. Building on Renewing the Vision and the Competency-Based Standards, the Diocese of Austin has determined the following qualities as being important in a Coordinator of Youth Ministry.
   a. Possess an understanding of Comprehensive Youth Ministry
   b. Excellent verbal and non-verbal communication skills
   c. Relational approach to youth ministry
   d. Mature, flexible, and adaptable
   e. Collaborative and able to work well with various levels of administration, staff, and laity
   f. Motivational and authentic in his/her approach to ministry

E. Determining Salary Ranges

1. Because of the varying needs, economic situations, and realities of parishes within the diocese, it is not the policy of the diocese to set a salary structure or pay scale for professional ministers.
   a. Allowing for the varying economic situations of parishes, the salary for a Youth Ministry Coordinator will vary throughout the diocese.
   b. By providing a just, livable, and comparable salary, the pool of applicants will be greater in number and quality.
c. The following considerations can be of assistance when determining what is fair and just compensation for this role in a particular location.

2. Considerations in determining the salary for a parish Coordinator of Youth Ministry

a. The greater the amount of experience in youth ministry this person may possess - the more experience in youth ministry or a related field – the larger the salary that will be required.

b. What are the areas of responsibility for this position? A person who will be required to coordinate middle school and high school programs and confirmation preparation for grades 6 through 12, should be compensated at a higher level than one who is responsible for solely for high school youth ministry.

c. Can a person reasonably live on the amount of money being offered? Will this person need to take on additional work to make ends meet?

d. What do Catholic and public school teachers in the area make at a comparable level of experience?

e. What are the salaries of youth ministers in the surrounding area? Research in this area should include Catholic parishes as well as Protestant denominations with vibrant youth ministries.

F. Ongoing Education Opportunities

Professional development and continuing education opportunities are integral to the success of the Coordinator of Youth Ministry and the growth of a parish youth program. Provisions for financial resources and allotment of time away from a parish to participate in formation opportunities should be part of the package offered to an individual.

G. Benefits

The Diocese of Austin Human Resources Policy Manual may be consulted for policies regarding benefits and other human resource questions.

H. Additional Information

Please contact the Diocese of Austin Office of Youth, Young Adult, and Campus Ministry for additional information regarding hiring a parish youth ministry coordinator or copies of Renewing the Vision: A Framework for Catholic Youth Ministry.

c. Reports should be made as soon as possible but no later than 48 hours before bruises and marks start to fade. It is important for the investigators to be able to see the physical signs.

e. Please provide at least the following information in your report.

i. Name, age, and address of the child

3. What if I'm not sure?

If you have reason to suspect child abuse, but are not positive, make the report. If you have any doubts about whether or not it is abuse, call the hotline. They can advise you on whether the signs you have observed are abuse.
