MIXED MARRIAGE DECLARATION and PROMISE

1) A permission to marry a baptized non-Catholic (Canon 1124); a Catholic who has notoriously rejected the Faith (Canon 1071, §2) or a lapsed Catholic; and a dispensation from the Impediment of Disparity of Worship/Cult to marry a non-baptized person (Canon 1086) requires that this form be completed in compliance with Canons 1125-1126 as follows:

The Catholic must be informed fully of his/her grave obligation to safeguard, preserve and profess the Catholic faith and to have all children baptized and educated in the faith (Canon 1125, 1^o). So that mutual understanding may be achieved and possible disharmony avoided, the non-Catholic must be informed in clear terms of the declaration, promise, responsibility and obligation of the Catholic (Canon 1125, 2^o). Both the Catholic and non-Catholic must be instructed about the purposes and essential properties of marriage (Canons 1055-1056) which neither of the two persons is to exclude (Canon 1125, 3^o).

2) It is forbidden to have another religious marriage ceremony before or after any Catholic marriage ceremony. (Canon 1127, §3)

3) A non-Catholic minister may participate in the Catholic marriage ceremony, read from the Scriptures, give a brief exhortation and bless the couple, but with the understanding that only the Catholic priest/deacon presides, reads the Gospel and preaches the homily, and receives the consent of both parties. (Canon 1127, §3)
