

Temporary Online EIM Training Verification

(A, B and all questions in Sections 1-3 must be completed)

Today's Date _____

A. Full Name (as it appears in your EIM account) _____

B. EIM Application Submission Date (found at top left on your Application Overview page) _____

C. E-mail Address _____

Section 1 – Protecting our Children: A Family's Response

1. Jeff & Judy's son disclosed that he was being abused while it was still happening. According to the video, is it common for a child to disclose abuse while it is occurring?
Common Not Common
2. Would a volunteer regularly trying to spend isolated, one-on-one time with a child possibly be a sign of:
Building a Healthy Relationship Grooming
3. Which of these behaviors might be a sign that a child is possibly being abused? Overly fearful
Increased anxiety Withdrawn Doing well in school All of these
4. Is abuse more likely to be committed by someone known to the child or by a stranger?
Someone known Stranger
5. Name something that you learned, surprised you or touched your heart? _____

Section 2 – Policies, Reporting Procedures and Code of Ethics

1. Diocese of Austin EIM policies were first issued in 2001. What year was the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People approved? 2001 2002 2003
2. Which are examples of appropriate behavior when working with minors in ministry?
Side hugs Verbal praise Twirling hair of minor Kneeling down for brief hug with child
3. Who is required to report suspected abuse in Texas? Any adult citizen who suspects abuse
The first person who is made aware of an allegation Both of these
4. To which entities must a report of abuse be made by church personnel? Law enforcement/Dpt. of Family & Protective Services Diocese of Austin Both of these

Do you commit to abide by the EIM Code of Ethics while serving in ministry in the Diocese of Austin?

Yes No Signature _____

*Thank you for completing this temporary online EIM training and your continued efforts to protect minors and all of God's children from harm.
Remember to submit this form in order to receive credit for this training.*