Sacrament of Reconciliation

We know that we live in a fallen world. We stumble; we make mistakes; we fall into sin. But Jesus promises to make all things new in our lives and hearts. We have the great gift of Reconciliation, in which we bring our weaknesses to Christ and seek out his forgiveness. Christ’s mercy is boundless, and in his mercy he gives us the strength to go forward and grow in unity with Jesus and all people. Through the sacrament of Reconciliation we are fully reunited with Christ. We are reminded of Christ’s unconditional love for us and encouraged to show that same compassion and love to the community in which we live. Christ does not call us to be perfect, but he does call us to recognize our own weakness and resolve ourselves to find strength in him. We know what it is like to be weak, and by humbly uniting with each other in our weakness, we are made strong. We can use the strength we find from Christ’s mercy to strengthen the important ministries and outreach programs of the diocese.

Christ makes all things new

The one who sat on the throne said, “Behold, I make all things new.” Then he said, “Write these words down, for they are trustworthy and true.”

~ Revelation 21:5