Class Year: 2021

Concentration: Policy Education and Economics

Hometown: San Juan, Puerto Rico

High School: Saint Ignatius of Loyola High School

Favorite Saint and Why: Saint Josemaría Escrivá de Balaguer, founder of the Opus Dei. He is a Saint I admire, because he believed that we all, regardless of our professions or background, can follow God—through ordinary life we can pursue sanctity.

Favorite Place to Pray: I like to go to a church when it is empty in the middle of the day; it gives me peace and a private time to reflect with the Lord. Prayer gives us a pause amidst the hecticness of our lives.

Favorite Place to Study at Harvard: Covid has been tough on all of us. My apartment has turned to be my new favorite place to study, I guess!

Favorite Off Campus Dining Choice: Anywhere in the seaport district; the environment there is fun and can be like a quick escape from the studious Cambridge.

Fondest Memory of the Harvard Catholic Center: Meeting Father George. What a nice and kind gentleman! Quickly and warmly welcomed me into the center without. Very grateful for that—it has given me a community during these novel times.

What Three Words Would You Use to Describe the HCC: Community, Faith, Advancement.
