

Name: Nam Hyun Kim

Class Year: 2021

Concentration: Joint History and Anthropology (Archaeology)

Hometown: Fairfax, VA

High School: Robinson Secondary School

Favorite Saint and Why: St. Joseph. As a loving father to Jesus and a faithful spouse to Mary, he was the saint who allowed me to witness the immense joy contained within the humble, Holy Family.

Favorite Place to Pray: By the Charles River

Favorite Place to Study at Harvard: The

Eliot Dining Hall

Favorite Off Campus Dining Choice: Not quite the dining choice, but grabbing ice cream has always been a favorite of mine to do (Amorino's, the gelato place near Eliot House, has a special place in my heart!)

Fondest Memory of the Harvard Catholic Center: I felt very lost during my first month on campus and I found myself at Totus Tuesday in front of Christ in a way I had never been before. I was sitting in the back, hidden in the dim church light. As I prayed and looked at Jesus, there was an overwhelming love that surged through me and my heart so warm, as if God were giving me a glimpse into the love He had for me. This is one of the first times I felt so moved in prayer, and it led me to be more involved in the parish and Catholic community on campus.

What Three Words Would You Use to Describe the HCC: Comforting, Warm, Nurturing
