For the 2020-2021 academic year Saint Michael Parish will again offer Religious Education classes in preparation for the Sacraments of First Holy Communion and Confirmation, as well as a continuing religious education class for children in Grades 3 through 6. As directed by the Archdiocese of Newark, all of our classes during this academic year will be done remotely, via "Zoom" or similar live-stream formats. Classes will "meet" on Sunday mornings from 8:30 to 9:30, beginning October 11, 2020. The parish will provide textbooks and other materials to all registered students.

First Communion preparation is a two-year program with separate classes each for children in the First and Second grades. Confirmation class is a one-year program for students in the Seventh grade or higher.

Registered students will receive instructions on how to log into the remote classes prior to the start of the academic year.

The Sacraments will be celebrated here in the Spring of 2021, at the Sunday 10:30 a.m. Masses: The Confirmation Mass is scheduled for Sunday April 18th, and First Holy Communion will be celebrated on Sunday May 23rd.
