PREFACE

This handbook (rev. August 2019) provides policies and procedures governing graduate study in the Master of Arts Program of St. Joseph’s Seminary. It is based on information available at publication. Therefore, policies, fees, dates, and regulations may be subject to change without notice.

Only the Academic Dean and Associate Deans have the authority to grant exceptions to these policies.

It is the student’s responsibility to be aware of all regulations. At the beginning of each new academic year, all students are required to sign a statement that can be found here indicating that they have read this handbook and will adhere to all SJS policies.

MISSION STATEMENT

St. Joseph’s Seminary and College, founded in 11696, is the major seminary of the Archdiocese of New York. Its primary mission is to serve the Church by forming men for the Catholic priesthood. St. Joseph’s functions as the principal institution of priestly formation for the Archdiocese of New York, the Diocese of Brooklyn, and the Diocese of Rockville Centre. St. Joseph’s also welcomes seminarians from other archdioceses, dioceses, eparchies, and other religious congregations.

Rooted in the apostolic community gathered around Jesus Christ, St. Joseph’s Seminary seeks to form future priests who will hand on the life and tradition of the Church’s faith in the context of the new evangelization of the twenty-first century. To accomplish this, St. Joseph’s Seminary offers a program of human, spiritual, intellectual, and pastoral formation that is faithful to the Magisterium of the Catholic Church. In fostering the integration of these “pillars of formation”, St. Joseph’s aims to form men according to the Heart of Jesus the Good Shepherd (see St. John Paul II, Pastores Dabo Vobis, 1992; USCCB, Program of Priestly Formation).

As a complement to its primary mission, St. Joseph’s Seminary also serves the Church by offering graduate theological and philosophical degree programs to qualified students at multiple locations. Graduate degree programs in the theological disciplines are offered to candidates for the Permanent Diaconate, lay men and women, men and women in consecrated life, and clergy who wish to deepen their understanding of the Catholic faith through systematic study, or who are called to serve the Church in roles of leadership. A graduate degree program in Catholic Philosophical Studies is offered to qualified students who seek an advanced understanding of philosophy in the Catholic tradition and its special relationship with the study of Catholic theology.
A spirit of service to the Church guides all of the programs which St. Joseph’s Seminary and College provides to seminarians, Permanent Diaconate candidates, lay, religious, and clergy. This spirit is strengthened by a profound sense of ecclesial communion that is fostered and expressed through fidelity to Church teaching, a daily life of prayer, the celebration of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, the ceaseless invocation of the Holy Spirit, and the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, St. Joseph, and all the saints.
HISTORY OF SAINT JOSEPH’S SEMINARY & COLLEGE

Saint Joseph’s Seminary and College, founded in 1896, is the Major Seminary of the Archdiocese of New York and the fifth educational institution of the Archdiocese for the formation of Catholic priests. Previous Archdiocesan seminaries were established in Nyack (1833-1834), Lafargeville (1838-1840), Fordham (1840-1860) and Troy (1864-1896).

Archbishop Michael Corrigan, wishing to relocate his Seminary closer to New York City, laid the cornerstone for Saint Joseph’s Seminary in the Dunwoodie section of Yonkers on May 17, 1891. The first academic year began on September 21, 1896 with 96 seminarians. For the first ten years of its service, the Seminary was directed by priests of the Society of San Sulpice, who composed the majority of the Faculty during those years. In 1906, the Archdiocese constituted a new Administration and Faculty composed largely of diocesan priests and this practice has remained to this day.

Since its founding, Saint Joseph’s Seminary has served the Church in its primary mission of educating and forming future Priests. In light of this mission, Saint Joseph’s was authorized by the Board of Regents of the State of New York to grant the Degree of Bachelor of Arts in 1908, Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy in 1921 and Bachelor of Divinity in 1965. In 1971, the New York State Education Department granted Saint Joseph’s permission to offer the Master of Divinity Degree.

In 1976, the Seminary’s mission expanded to include the education of the laity and religious and Saint Joseph’s received approval from New York State to offer a Master of Arts Degree in Religious Education, which was offered through the Seminary’s Archdiocesan Catechetical Institute (A.C.I.). In 1987, Saint Joseph’s received approval for the Master of Arts in Theology degree. From 1993 until 2015, Saint Joseph’s administered a Master of Arts in Religious Studies degree.

In addition to these approvals from New York State, Saint Joseph’s Seminary has been accredited by the Middle States Commission on Higher Education since 1961 and the Association of Theological Schools since 1973.

On November 11, 2011, Timothy Cardinal Dolan (Archbishop of New York), Most Reverend Nicholas DiMarzio (Bishop of Brooklyn) and Most Reverend William Murphy (Bishop of Rockville Centre) signed a Joint Operating Agreement (hereafter J.O.A.), that pledged the cooperation of the three Catholic dioceses of the downstate New York region in a single program of graduate level priestly formation at Saint Joseph’s Seminary. Earlier that year, the three dioceses had already begun to collaborate on a single college and Pre-Theology program at the Cathedral Seminary House of Formation in Douglaston, New York. Subsequently, on March 12, 2012, the J.O.A. was modified by a Memorandum of Understanding which resulted in the aggregation of all diocesan Master’s Degree programs, faculty and students across all three dioceses to Saint Joseph’s Seminary. These foundational documents have guided the collaborative efforts of all three dioceses in theological education ever since and continue to serve the Seminary in its planning for the future.

This aggregation of all degree programs to Saint Joseph’s Seminary was completed in stages. The seminarians from all downstate New York dioceses began studying at Saint Joseph’s Seminary in Yonkers, New York in the Fall of 2012. During the 2012-2013 Academic year, Saint Joseph’s received permission from its accrediting agencies to constitute the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception in Huntington, New York and the Cathedral Seminary House of Formation in Douglaston, New York as extension sites and to administer the Degrees of Master of Arts in Theology and the Master of Arts in Catholic Philosophical Studies to all qualified students. In 2013, St. Joseph’s Seminary began offering a Master of Arts in Theology degree for students not participating in the priestly formation program.

Currently Saint Joseph’s Seminary is the single degree granting institution for all diocesan-sponsored Master’s Degree Programs at the Yonkers, Huntington, Douglaston and Somers Campuses.

Through the sharing of the resources, professors, and personnel from local dioceses, the Seminary’s Administration and Faculty are able to provide the best theological and ministerial education and training possible to all of its students at all locations and is the center of Catholic learning and thought for the entire downstate New York region and beyond.

Classical Language Requirement
Students intending to write a thesis in the area of Sacred Scripture must show competency in Biblical Greek for concentration on the New Testament or competency in Hebrew for concentration on the Old Testament. This may be done either by taking a reading examination or successfully passing a course in the language.

Writing for Theological Research
All new students must participate in a non-credit, workshop, which will review the elements of graduate level writing. There will be a focus on the Chicago Style format as well as attention to theological citation rules. Writing skills and grammar will be included in the workshop.
MA in Theology Summative Requirement
In addition to the course work, each student who qualifies to complete the degree must complete the capstone requirement of a comprehensive examination. Students qualify to take the comprehensive exam with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 (B) or higher. If students qualify, they are able to apply to write a thesis to fulfill their summative in accordance with the MA thesis process outlined below. Students must meet with one of the Associate Deans after they have completed 8 course requirements to discuss their eligibility and options. Registration for the summative requirement is required and the appropriate fees apply.

MA in Theology Comprehensive Exam
Nine study questions are provided to students 6 – 8 weeks prior to the exam; each question is based on one of the nine core required courses. Students must prepare coherent and comprehensive essays. The exam is divided into two sessions (two and a half hours each) and students must complete two out of three essay questions in each session. Essays must be coherent and comprehensive; notes and outlines are unacceptable responses.

The exam is graded within one month on a pass/fail basis. Three passing essays constitute a passing grade. Two or more failing essays constitute a failing grade.

A student who fails the exam may be permitted to retake it in its entirety or in part (as applicable) at the next administration. Students who fail the second exam are not permitted to try again.

MA in Theology Thesis Process: Topic/Director Selection and Required Seminars

When a student has three semesters remaining in their course of study (or four courses) and is interested in writing a thesis for their Master of Arts in Theology Degree Capstone requirement, they are to meet with one of the associate deans to discuss their eligibility for writing a thesis. A student is deemed eligible based on their cumulative GPA and a review of either a writing sample or their portfolio demonstrating sufficient writing and research skills.

The decision regarding a student’s entrance into the Thesis Process is made by a committee consisting of the Academic Dean and the Associate Deans who will review each student’s qualifications.

If eligible, the student then discusses their possible areas of interest with one of the associate deans:

- After consultation among the Academic and Associate Deans, an individual Faculty member is approached by the Academic Dean in order to gauge their comfort and interest in serving as the student’s director;
• If the choices of topic and director are agreeable both to the faculty member and the student, the Dean/Associate Dean informs the student to contact their Thesis Director directly to begin further discussion of the topic.

Once the topic is approved and a Thesis Director is confirmed, the following procedure is to be followed:

1. The student must complete the thesis within 18 months.
2. The student initiates the process by participating in MA 9010 Seminar in Research Methodology for one semester (meetings throughout the semester: tuition $500);
   a. By the end of the semester, the student must complete a detailed outline of the thesis, a bibliography and a one-page précis of the thesis (all of which must be approved by the Thesis Director);
   b. Throughout the process, each student is to be in regular contact with their Director (minimum every 2-3 weeks);
   c. If the student meets all of the required benchmarks during the Seminar in Research Methodology, they may advance to MA 9020 Thesis Mentoring Seminar.
3. Thesis Mentoring Seminar (two-hour sessions once a month; tuition $500 per semester) for two semesters;
   a. While attending the seminar, each student establishes chapter deadlines with their director and should submit their work on time so as to allow for ample time to integrate feedback, editing and formatting;
   b. Two missed deadlines will require a meeting with the Academic Dean or Associate Dean so as to determine the student’s continuance in the program;
   c. Throughout the process, each student is to be in regular contact with their Director (minimum every 2-3 weeks);
   d. A draft of the completed thesis should be submitted in March to allow time to integrate feedback, editing and formatting.
   e. The minimum 50-page thesis is to be completed, approved by the Thesis Director, reviewed for format, and submitted to the Academic Office by April 30th.
4. Three copies (one copy with a report cover/folder and two copies for binding) of the approved thesis are submitted by April 30th to the Academic Office. The MA in Theology degree is meant to be completed within six years, including the summative requirement.

STUDENT LEARNING PORTFOLIO

Students are required to compile portfolios of their work throughout the course of their program of study. The purpose of the student portfolio is to assist students in evaluating their progress towards achieving the intended Student Learning Outcomes for their program to ensure that each student successfully completes the MA degree. The student portfolios also assist the Faculty in its ongoing assessment of the Seminary’s academic degree programs and to document and evaluate each individual student’s learning and progress.

The portfolio is to include selections of the student’s work, feedback, and comments from the Faculty and annual reflections of each student on his or her progress towards fulfilling the Intended Student Learning Outcomes for their degree program. The specific criteria for submissions vary depending on one’s degree and status in the program and are listed below. The portfolio requirements are to be completed before graduation.

The development of each student’s portfolio is to be a collaborative process between each student and the Faculty. All students are to meet regularly with the Associate Dean to review their portfolio, discuss their upcoming submissions, and complete an assessment of the student’s growth and development in the program.

Full-time students (three or more classes per semester) are required to submit one learning artifact per semester. Part-time students are to submit one learning artifact for every three courses completed.

PERMANENT DIACONATE PROGRAM

The National Directory for the Formation, Ministry, and Life of the Permanent Deacon states, “Intellectual formation offers the participant ‘substantial nourishment’ for the pastoral, human, and spiritual dimensions of his life. Intellectual formation is a ‘precious instrument’ for effective discernment and ministry. An increasingly educated society and the new roles of leadership in diaconal ministry require that a deacon be a knowledgeable and reliable witness to the faith and a spokesman for the Church’s teaching. Therefore, the intellectual dimension of formation must be designed to communicate a knowledge of faith and church tradition that is ‘complete and serious,’ so that each participant will be prepared to carry out his vital ministry” (118).

St. Joseph’s Seminary welcomes candidates for the permanent diaconate as degree candidates for the Master of Arts in Theology or as auditors in the courses.

Wives of candidates for the permanent diaconate may participate in the courses for credit or for audit. To do so, they must be meet the admissions requirements (see page 7), and complete the online application.

All participants are subject to the academic policies set forth in this handbook for the Master of Arts Program of SJS.

Students must seek advisement from the Associate Dean prior to their enrollment in a course.

CONTINUOUS ENROLLMENT

The Master of Arts Program has a continuous enrollment policy for both the certificate and degree programs. Therefore, a student must register for at least one course every Fall and Spring semester. Once a student completes their coursework, they are considered enrolled when they are either preparing for the comprehensive exam or writing a thesis. The only exception to this policy is if the student has an approved leave of absence (see Leave of Absence Policy). A student who fails to abide by this policy will be dismissed from the program and will have to re-apply if they desire to return.

TUITION AND FEES

All fees are published on the website. Fees are subject to change. All fees and expenses are payable upon receipt of invoice to the bursar. A payment plan option is available and should be stipulated at registration. If a payment plan is chosen, students are required to complete the Payment Plan Agreement Form found on the Dunwoodie Website and submit the form to the bursar by the beginning of the semester. Students may not register until they have satisfied their financial obligations from the previous semester, nor will grade reports or transcripts be issued.

REFUNDS

Registration is taken to mean a student is attending class until the date on which the student’s written desire to withdraw from a course has been received in the Academic Office. Telling a professor that you wish to withdraw from a course is not official notice of withdrawal. Application, registration, and library fees will not be refunded.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Attendance at all St. Joseph’s Seminary classes is mandatory. All absences must be communicated by the student to the professor and the Associate Dean before the following class session takes place. If a student misses 25% of the course they are not permitted to complete the course. This policy is in keeping with St. Joseph’s withdrawal policies, so students under these circumstances will risk receiving a failing grade for the course. Exceptions to this policy due to extraordinary circumstances will be evaluated by the Academic Dean.

AUDITING

Qualified students are eligible to audit courses. Auditors must complete the application which may be accessed at the MYSJS Portal found on the SJS website, www.dunwoodie.edu. See the admissions requirements and process above.

There is a $50.00 non-refundable application fee.

Auditors attend classes, but are not subject to examinations or written assignments. They should keep up with course readings. They do not receive course credit.

TRANSCRIPTS

The registrar issues two types of transcripts. An official transcript bears the Seminary seal. Official transcripts can be sent to the university, professional school, government agency, or designated businesses. An unofficial transcript bears a stamp “Student Copy” instead of the Seminary seal and may be given directly to a student.

For reasons of privacy, requests for transcripts must be made in writing to the registrar. There is a fee of $10 for each official copy of the transcript requested. Transcript requests can only be processed when all fees have been paid.
WRITING STYLE AND COURSE PAPERS

St. Joseph’s Seminary uses as its guide for the formatting of papers the current edition of The Chicago Manual of Style or the current edition of the abstract of that guide published as Kate L. Turabian, A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses and Dissertations.

SUBMISSION OF ACADEMIC WORK

Each student is subject to guidelines for the successful completion of a course. All required work for each course is to be submitted by the student to the professor according to the due dates established in the course syllabus.

EXTENSIONS:
If, for serious reasons, a student wishes to request an extension for an assignment (paper or exam), the student must make arrangements with the professor at least two weeks prior to the assignment’s due date. This request is granted at the professor’s discretion. If an extension is granted, it is the student’s responsibility to file a “Request for Extension Form” (found on our website, Dunwoodie.edu), which is to be completed, signed by the Professor, and submitted to the Associate Dean two weeks prior to the assignment’s due date. The maximum duration for an extension is two weeks.

LATE SUBMISSION OF ACADEMIC WORK:
Professors, at their discretion, can accept late submission of academic work. If a professor accepts a late submission, one-half letter grade will be deducted from the assignment for each day that it is late (e.g. if a paper is three days late, the highest grade which can be given is a B). The date of reference for the late submission of an assignment will be the due date as indicated on the course syllabus.

INCOMPLETE GRADE:
If, for serious reasons, a professor wishes to grant a student the grade of Incomplete (“I”) for a course, the approval of the Academic Dean is required. The professor is to submit a formal request to the Academic Dean prior to the end of the semester (the form can be found on the website Dunwoodie.edu, and requires the reason for the request and the agreed due date for the completion of all course work). If the grade of Incomplete is granted, the maximum duration of an Incomplete grade is six weeks, at which point the grade is automatically changed to a grade of Failure. For serious reasons, exceptions to this policy can be granted by the Academic Dean.
FAILURES:
Any student who receives a grade of Failure (“F”) will have the opportunity to make up the course at the discretion of the Academic Dean, although the failure will remain on the student’s transcript and will be factored into the student’s grade point average.

PLAGIARISM AND ACADEMIC FRAUD
Plagiarism or any type of academic fraud of any type will not be tolerated at St. Joseph’s Seminary. If plagiarism or cheating is suspected, the professor is to contact the Academic Dean or Associate Deans immediately with the paper or exam in question. If an initial review of the evidence deems the suspicion to be credible, the Academic Dean or an Associate Deans will convene an ad hoc committee of three professors from the full-time faculty to review the evidence. If the committee deems that plagiarism or academic fraud has occurred, the Academic Dean or Associate Deans thereafter request a meeting with the student in which the student has the opportunity to explain their work and evidence.

If no credible explanation is proffered, the student receives an automatic failure for the course and the Rector and the Faculty will review the student’s continued matriculation at St. Joseph’s.

ACADEMIC PROBATION
There are three kinds of academic probation:

A. Academic probation (a) in the event of suspected plagiarism: probation of this sort requires that all written assignments of the student in question must be evaluated by no fewer than 2 professors to assure academic honesty. These professors are encouraged to review the assignment in concert with colleagues and other electronic means of verification.

B. Academic probation (b) in the event of failure of a course: probation of this sort occurs when a student’s academic competencies or other qualifications required for graduate work are called into question. This probation ends after the student receives a B or higher in the two 3-credit courses that he or she completes immediately after the failure occurred on the transcript.

C. Academic probation (c) in the event a matriculated student’s cumulative grade point average (GPA) falls below a 3.0, jeopardizing the student’s ability to successfully achieve the masters degree.
WITHDRAWAL POLICY

Students who would like to withdraw from the MA program must withdraw online though Populi, course no. MA1010

Students may withdraw from a course or change from “for credit” to “for audit” without academic penalty before the 4th class. The students who withdraw receives a grade of W for which there is no academic penalty. However, the student who withdraws or ceases to attend after the 4th class automatically receives a grade of F which will be computed in the GPA.

Students must withdraw from a course online through Populi, course no. MA 1020.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

A student may request a leave of absence at any time during his or her studies. Such a leave permits a student to maintain matriculated status for no more than 5 years from the granting of the leave of absence. During this time, no matriculation fee will be required of the student.

To request a leave of absence, students must register online through Populi, course number, MA1000. The circumstances of the request will be evaluated by the Academic Office to determine whether a leave is warranted.

Please note that not all requests for a leave of absence will be granted.

DISMISSAL

The Seminary reserves the right to dismiss a student for reasons of poor scholarship, academic fraud, or misconduct. The Seminary also reserves the right to require a student to withdraw, if, in the judgment of Seminary officials, such action would be beneficial to the best interests of the student or is considered necessary for the welfare or reputation of the Seminary.
GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

Effective communication is vital to the mission of St. Joseph’s Seminary, as well as to the academic success of our students. The purpose of the grievance procedure is to secure an equitable solution to disputes that students might have with, for example, Seminary policies, a professor’s grading, or classroom procedures. This procedure makes certain that the Seminary will offer whatever assistance it can regarding grievances and ensures the accessibility of the Faculty, Associate Deans, and Academic Dean to all students.

The grievance procedure is as follows:
Students should address a complaint in a timely manner and are encouraged to address the issue directly with the professor, if possible. If the student is not comfortable addressing the issue directly or is not satisfied with the outcome of their oral communication with the professor, they may report their grievance to the Associate Dean in a timely manner. The student must provide a written account of the complaint. If the issues cannot be resolved through mediation and diplomacy, then a hearing may be scheduled with the Associate Dean and another faculty or staff member. Once the hearing takes place, the grievance will be assessed and the student will be notified by the Associate Dean regarding the outcome.

If the student is not satisfied with the final decision, they may request a meeting with the Academic Dean. This request must be made in writing within two weeks of the Associate Dean’s notification.
Libraries

The libraries of St. Joseph’s Seminary are theological research libraries which serve all St. Joseph Seminary students enrolled in the Master of Arts Program and Certificate Programs across our campuses.

Students are requested to complete a library card application for their home library, which is available at each of the three libraries (Douglaston, Huntington and Yonkers). Each campus library has their own library card, so applications must be done separately in person. Except for the Corrigan Memorial Library in Yonkers, which has a digital application option on their website.

Information about holdings, services and access at each library can be found in their section of their home websites (Seminary of the Immaculate Conception; Cathedral Seminary House of Formation; St. Joseph’s Seminary). Searching the print and digital holdings of all three campuses can now be done by using our EBSCO Discovery Service, which aggregates all of our collections in one place. For off-campus access to our electronic resources or any question please contact one of the libraries via phone or email to get the assistance with your request.

APPENDIX II: HATE CRIMES

Bias-related Crimes

Bias-related crimes, also known as hate crimes, are crimes motivated by the perpetrator’s bias toward certain actual or perceived personal characteristics of the victim. Such crimes send a powerful message of intolerance and discrimination and are in stark contrast to the values of St. Joseph’s Seminary.

According to the New York State Hate Crimes Act of 2000 (New York Penal Law Section 485), a person commits a hate crime when he or she commits a specified offense and either:

- Intentionally selects the person against whom the offense is committed or intended to be committed in whole or in substantial part because of a belief or perception regarding the race, color, national origin, ancestry, gender, religion, religious practice, age, disability or sexual orientation of a person, regardless of whether the belief or perception is correct; or
- Intentionally commits the act or acts constituting the offense in whole or in substantial part because of a belief or perception regarding the race, color, national origin, ancestry, gender, religion, religious practice, age, disability or sexual orientation of a person, regardless of whether the belief or perception is correct.

Note: All hate crimes are bias incidents, but not all bias incidents are hate crimes. Interested persons can find more information about “Title Y, Hate Crimes Act of 2000, Article 485, Hate Crimes” at: http://nyscriminallaws.com/penal.law/penal_law_title_y.htm

Any member of the Seminary community who believes he or she is the victim of a bias-related incident or witnesses a bias-related incident, should report the incident(s) to the academic dean, the associate dean or the dean of seminarians. All reports of alleged incident will be brought before the Seminary administration, which will determine further action. Further action may include: investigation of the incident(s); and, if a report is found to have merit, disciplinary action will be taken against any person found to have committed an offense. Disciplinary action may include reprimand, suspension, dismissal from the Seminary, and/or the notification of proper law enforcement authorities. If a member of the Seminary community experiences a bias-related incident, the Seminary administration will assist this individual to find appropriate counseling services.
APPENDIX III: FIRE PROTECTION & EMERGENCY EVACUATION

The Seminary’s Fire Protection System consists of smoke sensors located in most areas of the building and fire alarm pull boxes located on each level near the stairwells and elevators.

Please Note: There is a thirty-second delay from when a pull box is activated to when the horns throughout the building sound and during this time the Fire Department is being contacted.

As a private school with residence facilities, the Seminary is required by the State Education Department to conduct four fire drills per year, to test the alarm system monthly and to undergo an annual inspection by the local fire department. Your cooperation during the drills, tests and inspection is appreciated.

Emergency Evacuation Procedures

Each room has a diagram indicating what the primary and secondary evacuation routes are for everyone in that room. Please familiarize yourself with the layout of the building and with these routes. In the event that the alarm does sound, everyone is required to immediately leave the building by the nearest exit and no one is to return to the building until permission is given.

- Those in the common areas of the building (Chapel, classrooms, offices and refectory) should leave by the nearest exit and report to the front of the building.
- Those in residence rooms should close their room doors as they leave and exit by the nearest stairwell. Only if that exit is blocked should you go through the main building to the center staircase.
- Each residence room has a diagram posted showing a primary and secondary escape route. Exit by way of the primary route designated for the room you are in.
- Those on the third floor should proceed along the inside banister of the stairway in single file while those on the second floor use the wall side. Those on the first floor should proceed out as the flow allows.

Please Note: The first person to enter the corridor after the alarm has sounded should check that each room is vacant and all doors are closed.

All persons are asked to report to the front of the building at the time of all emergency evacuations.

Do not stand on the steps; keep the driveway clear for responding emergency equipment and personnel.

Faculty and staff who park in the front of the building should be prepared to move their cars if necessary.
APPENDIX IV: ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS

St. Joseph’s Seminary and College welcomes students with all types of disabilities into our community of worship and learning. We give individualized consideration of each student’s needs to devise accommodation solutions to ensure equal access to all students. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodation, please contact the Director of Psychological Services at St. Joseph’s Seminary, Dr. Timothy Lock at timlock@dunwoodie.edu.
APPENDIX V: ILLICIT USE OF DRUGS & USE OF ALCOHOL

Health risks associated with the use of illicit drugs and the abuse of alcohol are many. Some of these are: danger of overdose, lessened resistance to sickness and disease, organic damage, mental illness, malnutrition, physical and/or psychological dependence. Abuse of alcohol may cause damage to brain cells, cirrhosis, ulcers, heart disease, cancer and personality disorders. All drugs including alcohol may cause loss of self-control and serious accidents.

Drug Free Policy

St. Joseph’s Seminary is committed to maintaining a drug-free environment in compliance with applicable laws and Christian principles. Possession, sale or use of illicit drugs will result in dismissal and applicable legal sanctions. In the event that you are aware of such incidents, please discuss this as soon as possible with the dean of your department. The report of alleged incidents will be brought before the Seminary administration, which will determine further action. This further action may include: investigation of the incident(s); and, if the report of the incident(s) is found to have merit, disciplinary action will be taken against any person found to have committed an offense. Applicable legal sanctions under local, state or federal law for the unlawful possession, use or distribution of illicit drugs include penalties ranging from confiscation of property to fines and/or imprisonment.

Use of Alcohol

There is to be no consumption or storing of any alcoholic beverages at any time in classrooms or other public areas of the Seminary. The consumption and/or storage of alcoholic beverages in the areas specified above is prohibited. Such conduct, which would include the abuse of alcohol, is subject to disciplinary action, which action may include reprimand, suspension, or dismissal from the Seminary.

Counseling

The Seminary urges students who might be engaged in the use of illicit drugs or the abuse of alcohol to seek professional advice and treatment. The administration of the Seminary would view positively any student who seeks help overcoming a difficulty with drugs or alcohol. A program of counseling and rehabilitation may be required for a student to remain enrolled in a Seminary program.
