Feast of the Baptism of the Lord

The Feast commemorates the Baptism of Jesus in the Jordan River by St. John the Baptist. St. John proclaimed Christ the Lamb of God whose way he had prepared. On this last day of the Christmas season, the Gospel does not tell a story from Jesus' childhood. Instead the Gospel reveals Jesus' relationship to God: the Son of Mary and Joseph is also God's own Son. We believe that through Baptism we are also made children of God.

The Baptism of the Lord is notable because it marks the beginning of Jesus' ministry and confirms his identity as the Son of God. It also marks the beginning of Ordinary Time.

Prayer

Lord, I believe that you are the Son of the Eternal Father and the Saviour of the World.
I believe that you have brought about a new era of grace and truth and that I am called to follow you wherever you lead.
As we begin this liturgical season of Ordinary Time next week, may it be a time of extraordinary grace in which I daily heed your voice. Amen.

The Use of Latin at Mass

Although largely in disuse in its spoken form, Latin is one of the world's most influential languages. Many languages owe their origins to Latin – for example Spanish, French, Portuguese, Italian and other minor languages. In addition, many other world languages (especially European ones) have inherited vocabulary from Latin Latin remains the official language of the Holy See and the Vatican City-State. The Vatican City is the only place in the world which has an ATM with Latin instructions!

Although the Second Vatican Council (1962-65) permitted the Mass to be conducted in the vernacular language, Latin remains the official language of the Roman Catholic Mass, and as such, the Lord's Prayer is the official liturgical version (taken from the Catechism of the Catholic Church).

However, in most parts of the world, with the exception of the Vatican, the Lord's Prayer is generally spoken in the language familiar to the community. However, many churches have instituted the practice of using some Latin prayers from time to time.

Latin Prayers

Note: Latin versions of prayers below were taken from the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

The Our Father “Pater Noster”

PATER noster,
qui es in coelis; sanctificetur nomen tuum:
Adveniat regnum tuum;
fiat voluntas tua, sicut in cœlo, et in terra.

Panem nostrum cotidianum da nobis hodie:
Et dimitte nobis debita nostra,
sicut et nos dimittimus debitoribus nostris:
et ne nos inducas in tentationem:
sed libera nos a malo.

Lamb of God “Agnus Dei”

Agnus Dei,
quitollis peccata mundi: miserere nobis.

Agnus Dei,
quitollis peccata mundi: miserere nobis.

Agnus Dei,
quitollis peccata mundi: dona nobis pacem.
