NEWS RELEASE

Nightly Rosaries prayed for late Monsignor Quitugua; San Juan Bautista parish to offer Rosary for Pastor Emeritus on Sunday

Rosaries are being prayed in holy remembrance of the late Monsignor David I.A. Quitugua who died last Tuesday, Sept. 15 at the age of 84.

Father Mike Crisostomo, the Archdiocese of Agaña's Vicar for Clergy announced that the family of the beloved priest is leading a nightly Rosary at 7 o'clock in coordination with Father Duenas Memorial School (FDMS). The Rosary is being live streamed and available on Zoom or on the Facebook page of Father Duenas Memorial School.

"FDMS mourns the passing of one of our beloved alumni, Monsignor David I.A. Quitugua. He was an alumnus priest who served our archdiocese and school community in every way he could," Father Duenas posted on its website. "As a prime example of the original mission of the school, he was a good and faithful servant who was always strong in the faith."

The faithful are welcome to join in praying the Rosary for Monsignor David. People can join at the following link:
