NEWS RELEASE

Archbishop to celebrate Mass for Protection of the Unborn
4 p.m. Friday at Cathedral-Basilica in unison with other parishes

Archbishop Michael Byrnes will celebrate Mass for the Protection of the Unborn 4 p.m. Friday, January 29 at the Dulce Nombre de Maria Cathedral-Basilica in Hagatna in unison with other Catholic churches on Guam.

The Archdiocese of Agana is showing solidarity with Catholics nationwide in prayerful opposition to abortion through the Masses.

Archbishop Byrnes encourages all Catholics to participate in the Masses. Because of the pandemic, the archdiocese is adjusting its observation of the national March for Life peaceful protest against abortion and the Roe vs. Wade supreme court decision which legalized abortion 48 years ago. With safety in mind, we will celebrate Masses in place of the local rally.

The faithful can attend Mass at their nearest participating parish or follow through live streaming or live broadcasts which will occur at some of our churches on Jan. 29. Catholic Educational Radio KOLG 90.9 FM will air the 4 p.m. Mass live at the Cathedral.

Prayer intentions for the unborn will be recited. The churches will toll their bells at 4 p.m. in memory of the millions of unborn children killed through abortion.

National March for Life organizers have adjusted their annual activities protesting the legalization of abortion through Roe vs. Wade this year because of the global pandemic.

“In light of the fact that we are in the midst of a pandemic which may be peaking, and in view of the heightened pressures that law enforcement officers and others are currently facing in and around the Capitol, this year’s March for Life will look different,” March for Life organizers declare in a statement on their official website, <https://marchforlife.org/statement-on-2021-march-for-life/>.

“The annual rally will take place virtually and we are asking all participants to stay home and to join the March virtually,” officials state.

The health and protection of all Guam Catholics is also a high priority of the Archdiocese of Agana. We will follow the same prudence of the national March for Life group. Gathering for prayers and Masses at individual churches under controlled and restricted conditions allows the Church to more effectively promote the safety of all participants. It also follows established archdiocese and community protocols.

Parish Mass schedules accompany this news release and can also be found at archagana.org.
