October 4, 11, 2018

9:30 – 11:30am

Archdiocesan Spirituality Center
2501 Maine Avenue Metairie

Broken, wounded, violent, damaged, divisive – these are some descriptions given to the current global situation. Our world desperately needs the noble, essential quality of compassion to be activated; the compassion that was the center of Jesus' ministry and his mission for his disciples-and his call for us today. Join Archdiocesan Spirituality Center Associate Director, Janet Trahan as together we nudge, encourage and inspire one another to be a beloved, Christ like presence, living compassionately.

Please purchase the book and read pages 1-40. Bring a journal. Cost $50.00 (adjustments can be made)
