DEDICATION

This tenth index to the archdiocesan sacramental records, like its predecessors, includes a dedication to both the living and the dead. This volume is dedicated to Louisiana colonial and territorial families - mothers, fathers, children, extended family members - whose baptisms, marriages, and deaths are recorded in the early church registers. These families formed in great part the early Church in Louisiana and, despite grave obstacles, passed on their faith to future generations.

This volume is also dedicated to the many current scholars, students, and genealogists who have rediscovered these families through their research. Their continued interest has contributed greatly to the ongoing translation of these records and the publication of this series. They have also served as both a stimulus and a support to the recently-implemented archives program for the long-term preservation of these irreplaceable volumes.

INTRODUCTION

This volume continues the series of publications begun in 1987 by the Archives of the Archdiocese of New Orleans, a series providing a detailed surname index to early sacramental records now housed in the archives. This is the third and final volume covering the 1803-1812 Louisiana territorial period. The next volume will begin the early antebellum period.

This volume is intended as an archival finding aid to assist those who seek information from the archives of the Archdiocese of New Orleans concerning their ancestors. The book is a complete index to all surname entries found in these records between 1810 and 1812. This volume will relieve the researcher of the need to request a general search for a New Orleans area ancestor. Surname entries that do not appear in this index are not found in the archdiocesan records for this period.

This tenth volume includes all extant surnames for baptisms, marriages, and funerals that were recorded between January 1, 1810, and December 31, 1812, at St. Louis Cathedral in New Orleans, St. John the Baptist Church on the upper German Coast (now Edgard), St. Bernard Church at New Galvez (St. Bernard Civil Parish), and St. Mary Church (Chartres St.) in New Orleans.

Significant gaps in the Catholic sacramental records for this period continue. All the sacramental records from St. Charles Parish on the German Coast for these years are lost. The early St. Bernard, New Galvez, marriage records (1787-1821) and folios 13 - 46 of the early funeral register for whites (April 28, 1792 - September 8, 1813) are also no longer extant. St. Louis Cathedral, St. John the Baptist Church, and St. Mary Church records are complete for this period.

The index follows archdiocesan policy concerning the confidentiality of sacramental records. Information about race or legitimacy is not included in the entries of this published index.

The archdiocesan archives now houses all parish sacramental registers which end prior to 1901. These parishes are located in the eight civil parishes in and around New Orleans: Jefferson, Orleans, Plaquemines, St. Bernard, St. Charles, St. John the Baptist, St. Tammany, and Washington. All requests for genealogical information from these records is handled by mail. A copy of archdiocesan procedures for requesting sacramental records is available upon request.

All enquiries and requests concerning sacramental records should be addressed to:

The Original Sacramental Registers

The 3,794 entries in this index under 2,385 main surnames include baptisms, marriages, and funerals registered between January 1, 1810, and December 31, 1812, in eighteen sets of original records.

1. [St. Louis Cathedral Baptisms, 1809-1811] numbers 330 pages and is coded B22. This volume was originally listed as Baptismal Book 6. It includes baptisms from June 8, 1809, to December 15, 1811.

2. [St. Louis Cathedral Baptisms of Slaves and Free Persons of Color, 1809-1811] numbers 356 pages and is coded B23. This volume was originally listed as Baptismal Book 11a. It includes baptisms of slaves and free persons of color from September 16, 1809 to January 6, 1811.

3. [St. Louis Cathedral Baptisms of Slaves and Free Persons of Color, 1811-1812] numbers 330 pages and is coded B24. This volume was originally listed as Baptismal Book 12a. It includes baptisms of slaves and free persons of color from January [6?], 1811 to May 30, 1812.

4. [St. Louis Cathedral Baptisms, 1811-1815] numbers 346 pages and is coded B25. This volume was originally listed as Baptismal Book 7. It includes baptisms from December 24, 1811 to June 27, 1815.

5. [St. Louis Cathedral Baptisms of Slaves and Free Persons of Color, 1812-1814] numbers 360 pages and is coded B26. This volume was originally listed as Baptismal Book 13a. It includes baptisms of slaves and free persons of color from May 30, 1812 to March 17, 1814.

6. Libro primero de matrimonios de negros y mulatos de la parroquia de San Luis de la Nueva Orleans; en 137 folios. Da principio en 20 de enero de 1777 y acaba en 1830 numbers 274 pages and is coded SLC, M3. It includes marriages of slaves and free persons of color from January 20, 1777, to July 29, 1830.

7. [St. Louis Cathedral Marriages, 1806-1821] numbers 258 pages and is coded SLC, M6. This volume was originally listed as Marriage Book 3. It includes marriages from June 12, 1806, to June 12, 1821.

8. [St. Louis Cathedral Funerals, 1803-1815] numbers 620 pages and is coded SLC, F7. It includes funerals from December 28, 1803, to August 28, 1815. First 97 entries (Dec. 28, 1803 - Sept. 8, 1804) overlap (but do not exactly match) the initial entries of F6 and were reconstructed (probably in late 1807) from funeral expense records when F6 was temporarily lost. Regular entries for this register begin on October 22, 1807, where previous volume ends.

9. [St. Louis Cathedral Funerals of Slaves and Free Persons of Color, 1806-1810] numbers 432 pages and is coded SLC, F8. It includes funerals from January 17, 1806, to April 27, 1810.

10. [St. Louis Cathedral Funerals of Slaves and Free Persons of Color, 1810-1815] numbers 452 pages and is coded SLC, F9. It includes funerals from April 28, 1810, to February 9, 1815.

11. Registro de bautismos de la parrochia [sic] de San Juan Bautista en la Costa des Alemanes para el año de 1792 [-1796] numbers 272 pages and is coded SJBED, B2. It includes baptisms from January 2, 1792, to February 29, 1796. On page 39 begins Libro de bautismos de negros y mulatos, como también de indios; y comienza del primero de marzo de mil setecientos noventa y seis which includes baptisms of slaves, free persons of color, and Indians from February 14, 1796, to July 21, 1818.

12. 3 me livre des baptèmes des blancs de la paroisse de Saint Jean-Baptiste, commencé en 1796 et fini en 1817. Libro de bautismos de blancos de la parroquia [sic] de San Juan Bautista de los Alemanes en la provincia de la Luisiana: comienza el mes de marzo el año mil setecientos noventa y seis [1-1807] numbers 356 pages and is coded SJBED, B3. It includes baptisms from March 12, 1796, to December 31, 1817.

13. St. John Baptist, Edgard, Marriages, 1807-1818 numbers 296 pages and is coded SJBED, M2. It includes marriages from July 27, 1807 to September 29, 1818.

14. St. John the Baptist, Edgard, Funerals, 1772-1815 numbers 284 pages and is coded SJBED, F1. It includes funerals from September 6, 1772, to December 21, 1815.

15. Libro segundo de bautismos de blancos de esta parroquia de San Bernardo de Nueva Gálvez, que da principio en primero de enero de 1801 y concluye en [1851] numbers 357 pages and is coded SBSB, B2. It includes baptisms at St. Bernard, also called New Galvez and English Turn, from January 1, 1801, to May 13, 1851. [Book One (1787-1801) in this series has been lost - ed.]

16. St. Marie Baptisms, 1805-1838 numbers 186 pages and is coded SMNO, B1. It includes baptisms at St. Mary Church attached first to the Ursuline Convent and later to the bishop's residence from April 6, 1805, to March 11, 1838.

17. Baptêmes des personnes de couleur libres et des esclaves, [1805-1844] numbers 184 pages and is coded SMNO, B2. It includes baptisms of slaves and free persons of color at St. Mary Church from April 14, 1805, to October 5, 1844.

18. St. Marie Marriages, 1805-1837 numbers 284 pages and is coded SMNO, M1. It includes marriages at St. Mary Church from March 17, 1805, to February 20, 1837.

The above coding system was necessitated by the use of a computer to index and edit records. To avoid confusion with older volume numbers (e.g., St. Louis Cathedral Baptismal Books III, 3 and 3a), requests for certificates from St. Louis Cathedral registers should indicate both the volume number and the dates (e.g. St. Louis Cathedral Baptismal Book 7, 1811-1815).

Although two existing St. Bernard funeral registers (F1 and F2) and an early baptismal register (B1) cover this 1810-1812 period, no surname entries were recorded for these years and the books are thus not listed here. There are also no entries for this period in the early St. Mary marriage book for slaves and free persons of color.

One sacramental register is not included in this index: Libro primero de confirmaciones de esta parroquia de San Luis de la Nueva Orleans: contener folios y de principio al folio 1, consigne hasta que [?] Dios Nuestro Señor... ea servido... confirmaciones. A translation of this book of confirmations from 1789 to June 27, 1841, was published in 1967 by the Genealogical Research Society of New Orleans. At the time, the volume was already badly deteriorated in sections; further deterioration presently precludes a new, more scholarly translation.

Format and Content

The format and content of this volume are shaped by its purpose as an archival finding aid. This book is an index to sacred acts - baptisms, marriages, and funerals - that were recorded at St. Louis Cathedral in New Orleans, St. John the Baptist Church on the upper German Coast (now Edgard), St. Bernard Church below New Orleans, and St. Mary Church in New Orleans for sacramental purposes.

Only those records with a decipherable surname are included. In some cases, surnames were lost; in others, no surname was recorded, as in the case of some slaves, free persons of color, unnamed children, and adult strangers.

Each entry in this index includes the following information when it forms part of the original record: the person’s name; date of ceremony; place of ceremony (when different from church where ceremony was recorded); type of ceremony (baptism, marriage, funeral); date of birth; occupation; age; parents’ and grandparents’ names; noble titles; and marginal notes concerning status and date of death. The city, region, and when mentioned, local Catholic parish of birth and residence, are also listed. Occasionally, the 19th-century cathedral clergy noted the death, marriage, or later surname of a long-time parishioner next to the original baptismal entry. Such information is included as a “marginal note.” When a baptismal record included the word “ill,” this meant the child was in danger of death and was baptized immediately.

The amount of information in each record varied greatly. When a particular detail is not found in an entry, this signifies that it was omitted in the original record [o] or is presently lost or illegible [*].

During this period, the clergy continued to frequently list grandparents of a newly-baptized infant or child, often including details concerning their status, place of birth, or current residence. A single 1810-1812 entry can open the door to the birthplaces of all four grandparents. For instance, the grandparents of Fernando Benito DE LISA were natives of Murcia [Spain], St. Augustine of Florida, and New Orleans.

This index generally includes information on unusual causes and circumstances of death and burial. Deaths at Charity Hospital are recorded as such. Some examples of special circumstances are: Maria Josepha FEDERICO and her little boy drowned during the 1812 hurricane; Pedro CLAIRMON was reportedly murdered; Juan Bautista DEBRAIZE was found dead in a small “cava” [wine cellar?] of the house of Domingo LOUGURAN, on rue St. Philippe; Antonio SOUSA was found dead at the doors to the slaughterhouse of this city, but the death was sudden, not violent; Maria Adelaida DUPERE died while giving birth to twins; Santiago SIMEON died suddenly in the middle of the night, after having worked all day at his trade as jeweller/silversmith; infant CAMBRE was buried by Gile CANTIN, cantor of St. John the Baptist Parish; Alonso CHRISTAL was buried in the cemetery on the residence of Mr. DEGRUIS, located on the other side of the river, a league and a half distant from this capital; James MATHER, son of Mayor James MATHER of New Orleans [according to the Dictionary of Louisiana Biography, Mayor MATHER, a native of England, was a Protestant], died at La Balize or the mouth of the Mississippi River, enroute to Europe, was buried at La Balize, then was re-interred in St. Louis Cathedral Cemetery.

One of the most unusual circumstances of burial is recorded in the funeral entry of Antonia Victoria DUREL, where Fr. DE SEDELLA notes that at the same time that the child was brought to the cemetery, another body, reportedly that of a woman, was also brought, but he was unable to acquire enough information to make an entry for her, despite thorough research.

Increasingly in this volume, specific places of death are given, including the names of neighborhoods (Faubourgs Marigny, LaCourse, and Sainte Marie; the district of Chantilly [now Gentilly]); streets (rue Bourbon, Conti, Dumaine, Hospital, Orleans, St. Philippe, Toulouse, and Ursulines); general locations (on the road which leads to the Bayou St. John; on the road from Terre-aux-Boeufs [St. Bernard Parish]; in the parish of Plaquemines down river; on the other side of the river); and even houses (i.e. Catharina & Thomas CONNELIN died in one of the houses of Daniel CLARKE on the road which leads to Bayou St. John). These details are given in this volume, except when the information given is general (i.e. died at home).

Information contained in marriage records is divided between entries for the two spouses. Personal information is included under each spouse’s name, whereas the witnesses are listed only in the husband’s entry. The reader must examine both the husband and wife’s entries to find all the information contained in an individual marriage record.

Legible witnesses are listed for marriages; sponsors, for baptisms. The index does not include additional baptismal witnesses beyond the parents and sponsors; such witnesses appear only in scattered entries.

All extant records with surnames are found in this index. Researchers who do not find ancestors here after reviewing various possible spellings can presuppose that the ceremony was not recorded or that the record has perished.

Certificates issued by the archdiocesan archives carry the following notation:
This entry was recorded as a sacramental record and not as a vital statistic. This certificate faithfully reproduces information contained in original entry, but does not certify the accuracy of the information in this entry.

Information in these records was often provided to the recording priest by family members, sponsors, friends, acquaintances, or, as is indicated in some entries, Charity Hospital officials. Priests often recorded names as they heard them. The accuracy of the information depended on the memory of the priest, family, or friends. There was little or no concern for "correct" spellings nor for verification of the source of this recorded information.

On several occasions, priests noted that the information they received was uncertain or contradictory. The funeral entry of Mr. [o] MINIER notes that he was "reportedly a former French soldier", but that his "nationality, state in life, and other details could not be obtained." Several others were "reportedly" widowers, bachelors, married, natives of a certain place, or a certain age. One funeral entry lists the deceased as Phelipe CRESPO or CRESPILO.

This volume includes several pre-1810 sacramental acts that took place in Cuba and Santo Domingo. Marie Rose JOUBERT was baptized at Port-au-Prince in 1795; Juan Claudio NOTTA, in Santiago, Cuba, in 1809. In both cases, the baptisms were re-recorded at St. Louis Cathedral from original records brought by the refugees. One 1809 funeral entry [GUERES] was also recorded late because, "the majordomo of Charity Hospital forgot to send the information to the parish."

The clergy recorded unusual variations of some names. Fr. DE SEDELLA lists John W. TRIGG, the father of Luisa, as Juan DUUVIURTRIC; the surname of Maria DARDAIN's mother is spelled WLIAMS and WLLIAMS for WILLIAMS; Francisco NEWMAN is recorded as Francisco CHESSMAN. Place names suffered a similar fate. St. Helena became Sautelein, and Quebec became Kebec. Phonetic spelling remained a frequent characteristic of sacramental records during the Louisiana territorial period.

In general, this index continues the conservative policy of combining surname variations only when there is some concrete indicator (same parents, spelling variation within a record, evidence from previous records). Thus, numerous similar names are not combined - BAILLE with BAILLY; CASANAVE with CASNAUVE; DOMINGUES with DOMINGUEZ; FON with FOND; MAZILLIERE with LAMAZILLIER. Undoubtedly, many similar surnames refer to the same family.

All legible surname variations of those baptized, married, or interred are added after the preferred family name. Surname variations of parents, witnesses, and sponsors are NOT indicated under the main surname entry, but rather are included with each individual record.

On occasion, a wife or widow such as Maria MORGAN was listed only under her husband’s name rather than her maiden name.

As a general principle, the preferred spelling was taken first from a legible signature, then from the main text entry, and, finally, from the marginal note. Where different signatures or main entry names appear, the most frequent spelling was adopted. The application of this principle resulted in some main surname entries listed differently from those in earlier volumes.

In general, English city and town spellings are used for familiar locations. Vague, uncertain, and often-used small town names are left in the original, sometimes with an indication of the town, village, or post that the person was trying to express to the priest. French Santo Domingan spellings are used for identified geographical locations. The editors extend a special thanks to Dr. Paul Lachance of the University of Ottawa who provided valuable assistance in identifying Santo Domingo place names.

It is customary in critical editions of texts to indicate misspellings, grammatical mistakes, and historical inaccuracies with [sic] or [?]. This notation is utilized only in limited cases, particularly when different surnames are recorded for children and their parents.

In many entries, priests, witnesses, and sponsors wrote in a hand that formed different letters in exactly the same way. U/N, U/V, C/B, S/Z, A/O, and E/C are common instances where the letters are simply indistinguishable. This uncertainty must be kept in mind, particularly in regard to unfamiliar surnames.
The Spanish priests also used numerous variations that were not evident during the French period. "B" and "V," "W" and "V," "CH" and "G," as well as "S," "Z" and "C" are often used interchangeably. BACHELOT is also VACHELOT; VAILLY is BAILLY; WEBRE is VEBRE; CHENET is GENET. "H" appears and disappears before such vowels as "A" and "E," while "X", "G", and "J" are all pronounced as "H" and thus are sometimes used interchangeably in entries. "I" is often replaced by "Y" in Spanish entries. Thus, ARBEAU appears as HARBAU; AUTIN as OTIN; HERNANDES as ERNANDES; JARREAU as GARREAU; JOLY as YOLI.

One convention in the Edgard records makes precise translations difficult. The pastors often note at the end of a baptismal entry, "all of this parish." It is not always clear if this refers to all godparents, to all witnesses, or to everyone, including the parents, and if this refers to place of residence or place of birth.

In four separate cases, surnames are cross-referenced: for those who assumed new names (replaced in this volume with "aka" instead of "dit"); for significant spelling variations; for combination names; and for maiden-married names of deceased women.

Surname variations in which the first letter differs are cross-referenced (e.g. EASTON with ISTON; ALGRAND with LEGRAND; YIES with DIES; YONS with JONS; CARANTIN with QUARENTIN).

Among the many combination names that are cross-referenced are: BAUCHE ST. MARTIN; FAVRE D'AUNOY; LE BARBIER DUPLESSIS; CHAUVIN DELERY; and VOLANT DELABARRE.

Because of the frequent variations that occurred involving the addition or omission of "De," "Le," and "La," researchers should routinely examine these possibilities. Thus, DE ACOSTA is found under ACOSTA; ALVA under DE ALVA; GROS under LE GROS; FOURCAD under LA FOURCAD; DE CARPANTIER under LE CARPANTIER.

The surnames of deceased spouses of widowers and widows who remarried are not cross-referenced.

Historical Notes

The 1810-1812 sacramental records reflect the striking change that was taking place in the New Orleans Catholic community. Santo Domingan refugees, already numerous in the previous volume (1807-1809), now appear on almost every page of this index. The cathedral clergy seemed particularly concerned about this new immigrant population, providing detailed information about places of birth (often in France), residence in Santo Domingo; they sometimes added details about occupation, time of arrival, and New Orleans residence. This volume is a quasi-introduction to Santo Domingan geography with its numerous references to almost every corner of the island, including numerous small settlements. In numerous cases, even the church parish is mentioned.

The cathedral clergy, who included Santo Domingan refugees Fathers Claude THOMAS and Pierre Jean KOUNE, were particularly conscious of the new arrivals’ refugee status. In record after record, Santo Domingans were listed as "residents" of Santo Domingo rather than "former residents." In 1810-1812, many refugees obviously viewed their flight to New Orleans as a temporary exile.

The 1810-1812 period reflects the continuing contrast between cosmopolitan New Orleans and the more settled country parishes. St. Bernard records are too incomplete for any valid analysis. The records of St. John the Baptist Parish in present-day Edgard make little reference to place of birth; most people were local and known to the community. Among the twenty marriages, only six people were listed as being born elsewhere: three in St. Charles Parish; one in New Orleans; one in New York; and one in Austria. Among the twenty-seven funerals, only one person - Michel CAMBRE, a German - is indicated as a foreigner. Among the 168 baptisms (88 whites; 3 free persons of color; and 77 slaves), only one foreign-born set of parents - the GRIVOTs from France and Canada - was indicated.

In New Orleans, by contrast, foreign-born are found throughout the records. In addition to the vast number of Santo Domingans and usual mix of Europeans, one finds here natives of Calcutta in India, China, Poland, Greece, as well as Cartagena, Lima and Caracas in Spanish America.

The 1810 U.S. Census lists the population of Orleans Parish as 24,552; the 1810 cathedral and St. Mary statistics below reflect a slightly larger area since the church boundaries included the surrounding areas.

In 1810, 1,069 children and adults were baptized in New Orleans at St. Louis Cathedral and St. Mary Chapel (then attached to the Ursuline Convent). Of these, 491 were Slaves [S]; 295, Whites [W]; and 282, Free Persons of Color [FPC]; one African child is not indicated as free or slave.

With increasing frequency, the parents’ place of birth was not indicated in New Orleans (as was the case in the countryside) because they were long-time local residents. Accurate statistics on the number of New Orleans and Louisiana-born parents is not available without extensive research. Twenty-one parents - 11 mothers and 10 fathers - were from the Eastern or Middle United States including Kentucky, Maryland, New York, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, and Virginia.

Santo Domingans outnumbered all other foreign-born combined among the parents of those listed in this volume and baptized in New Orleans. The major foreign nations listed for parents in 1810 were: Santo Domingo - 197 (57 fathers & 140 mothers); France - 95 (all fathers); Spain - 13 (all fathers); Ireland - 10 (6 fathers & 4 mothers); Canary Islands - 10 (6 fathers & 4 mothers); Germany - 9 (all fathers); Italy - 6 (5 fathers & 1 mother); Cuba - 5 (3 fathers & 2 mothers); Switzerland - 4 (all fathers). Several other countries had three or less parents.
In 1810, 829 funerals were recorded at St. Louis Cathedral: \( W - 253 \) (30.5\%); \( FPC - 236 \) (28.5\%); \( S - 340 \) (41\%). The following chart provides an overview by age at death, race, and status.

Almost a third of deaths - 259 (31.8\%) were children under the age of two. Infant mortality was highest among the FPC (38.2\%) followed by S (33\%) and W (24.2\%). Among those of African ancestry who were buried from the cathedral in 1810, 41\% were free; among those who died at age 50 or more, almost two-thirds (65.3\%) were free.
The funeral records reflect the large influx of Santo Domingans who were obviously not immune to Louisiana's debilitating climate. Among the cathedral burials, 300 (W - 63; FPC - 121; S - 116) were Santo Domingans. Among the other nations and regions, Africa (including Congo, Guinea, Senegal as well as the Arrada, Chamba, Ibo, Mandingo, Pular, and Temene nations) numbered 78; France - 72; Spain - 7; Cuba - 3; Ireland - 3; Canary Islands - 2; Martinique - 2; other U.S. states - 6 (Alabama - 4; Arkansas - 2). Numerous U.S. states and other foreign countries had a single death recorded at the cathedral.

Eighty-seven Catholic marriages were recorded in New Orleans in 1810 - 74 between Whites and 13 between of Free Persons of Color; no slave marriages were recorded that year. In 30 marriages (W - 18; FPC - 12), both spouses were from New Orleans or the former Louisiana province (St. Charles, Natchitoches, Pensacola, Iberville, Baton Rouge, and Illinois). In 11 cases, both were from the same foreign country or kingdom: Santo Domingo - 6 (W -5; FPC - 1); Ireland - 2; France - 2; Spanish South America - 1. In 3 marriages, Louisiana natives married someone from another U.S. state outside the former Louisiana province. Just over half the marriages - 44 - included spouses from two different countries or kingdoms. In one case, the husband's place of birth was not indicated.

Forty-nine (49) of the women who married (W - 37; FPC - 12) were natives of New Orleans; 7 other women, all white, were natives of the former Louisiana province - Lafourche (2), Mobile (2), Attakapas, Natchitoches, and Pointe Coupee. The remaining 31 women came from: Santo Domingo - 21 (W - 20; FPC - 1); France - 4; Ireland - 3; and one each from Jamaica, Caracas in Spanish South America, and Maryland. Among the men, only 23 (W - 13; FPC - 10) were natives of New Orleans; 7 others (W - 5; FPC - 2) were natives of the former Louisiana province - St. Charles (2), Iberville (2), Baton Rouge, Pensacola, and Illinois. The remaining 56 men came from: France - 28; Santo Domingo - 10 (W - 9; FPC - 1); Spain - 4; Germany - 3; Ireland - 3; other U.S. states - 3; and one each from Flanders, Lima in Spanish South America; Martinique, Italy, and Corsica. One husband’s place of birth was not given.
Many community leaders of the territorial period appear in this volume. Territorial and first state Governor William C.C. CLAIBORNE not only appears as a marriage witness and godfather, but his marriage to Susana BOSQUE is recorded here. The marriage of the Baroness Micaela Leonarda PONTALBA (née ALMONESTER Y ROXAS) appears in this volume, as does James WILKINSON’s marriage to Celestine TRudeau. "Erudite Lawyer," Santo Domingan refugee, and co-author of the 1808 and 1825 Louisiana Civil Codes Louis Casimir MOREAU-LISLET appears in several records, including that of his daughter’s marriage. Police Commissioner RIVERY appears in several unusual entries in this volume [DEBRAISE and NICOLAI].

Only five families have fifteen or more surname entries in this volume. Four - CAMBRE, HAYDEL, HYMEL, and VICNER - were centered in St. John the Baptist Parish; one - Wiltz, in New Orleans. Another ten families have ten to twelve main entries: they are divided between St. John the Baptist Parish - Becnel, Borne, Conrat, Folse - and New Orleans - Laurent, Martin, Poree, Rillieux, Saucier, and Zeringue. The Spanish surnames that appeared so often in earlier volumes appear here in smaller numbers if at all. No English surname is among those that appear most frequently in the main entries.

This volume also notes several families whose residence was "on the other side of the lake [Pontchartrain]." This referred not only the present St. Tammany area, but as far east as Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, as the Fayard entry indicates.

Several baptisms reflected personal family devotions that were at variance with European church law. Antonio DEJAN and Maria BOISDORÉ, among others, had the Virgin Mary as godmother; Melania LAGRANCHE had St. Joseph as godfather.

Some entries provide information on occupations: Antonio TESTE was a maker of parasols; Carlos TARON of Poland was a postal official; Francisco TIPHON was a bricklayer; Juan [Jean] VIDEAU was a blacksmith; Francisco COTONO and Joseph MARTY were "professional thieves."

In three registers, Father Antonio DE SEDELLA provides a “note for posterity” about the devastating August 19-20, 1812 hurricane. Weaving together the three accounts, the priest reported:

From the 19th to the 20th of August in the year 1812, this city and its jurisdiction experienced a terrible hurricane in which many people died, drowned, and [were] buried under the fallen houses/buildings, and many buildings were destroyed. There was no house which did not suffer some damage with the exception of this church of St. Louis, which God preserved intact; nevertheless, it was at that time found to be uncovered and accordingly the basement and the whole roof are being renovated.

In the funeral entry of Maria FEDERICO, further details of this terrible hurricane are given: the winds were strongest at 10 p.m. and lasted until 4 o’clock the next day when they calmed; her house was blown away; she drowned in Bayou St. John, along with her young son (whose body was not yet found).

Among the white baptismal entries for the cathedral are thirteen abandoned or orphaned children whose parents were unknown. All were under the age of two, except for one two-year-old child, listed as born in Cuba. The most interesting of these entries is that of an infant, apparently only a few hours old, found abandoned by Fr. Antonio DE SEDELLA about 7:30 p.m., in the lane which led from the street to his house, and whom he baptized Arcangel Antonio almost two years later on Christmas Eve.

The records provide information on several cathedral lay ministers. Juan DE CASTRO was the "minister charged with maintaining silence in this church" (CAPET baptism); Thomas [o], an Englishman, was the parish organist about six months before his sudden death.
