The University of Holy Cross Department invites applications for a full-time faculty position in Theology. This position will help foster the Mission of the University in teaching, research, and service.

Review of applicants will begin upon receipt of application materials and continue until the position is filled with an ideal start date of August 17, 2020.

Position Description: Reporting to the department’s Chair/Coordinator, the successful candidate will teach undergraduate/graduate courses, provide academic advisement to students; promote; supervise student worker(s); and serve on committees and participate in official activities at the departmental, college, and university levels.

This position is a 9-month appointment. Salary is competitive and commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Responsibilities:
- Classroom instruction and curriculum planning of Theology courses at the undergraduate and graduate levels;
- Service to the university which includes the responsibility to foster the mission of the university through development (financial and programmatic) and recruitment, in collaboration with and at Theology Chair's direction, including reasonable attendance at events that facilitate these activities;
- Teaching effectiveness, service to students and university, and scholarly/professional achievement are required for retention and promotion;
- Teach twelve (12) credit hours (or their equivalent) for undergraduate full-time faculty or nine (9) credit hours (or their equivalent) for graduate full-time faculty or a combination of each based on department needs and other duties to be determined through collaboration with Chair and at Chair’s direction.
- Candidate must address the needs of a student population of great diversity-in age, cultural background, religions, ethnicity, primary language and academic preparation – through course materials, teaching strategies and advisement; and
- Oral/ written competence in English.

Required Qualifications:
- Terminal degree in Theology
- Conduct oneself in a professional and respectful manner in accordance with the full rights and responsibilities specified in the UHC Faculty Handbook.
- Commitment to excellence in teaching and learning as evidenced by a presentation during the interview;
- Promise of productive scholarship/creative activities consistent with the teacher-scholar model;
- Commitment to teaching, scholarship, and service that is consistent with the College’s priorities for the Department and the mission of the University;
• Ability to contribute to a positive work environment in the Department, College, and University;
• Technological literacy and a commitment to integrate technology in teaching and scholarship; and
• Ability to work in a diverse academic and professional community.

Preferred Qualifications:

• Experience teaching Theology classes in higher education
• Expertise for potential online teaching

University of Holy Cross assures equal opportunity for all qualified persons without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, handicap, marital status, or veteran’s status in the admission to, participation in, or employment of its programs and activities.

To be considered for this position, send a letter of application, curriculum vitae, graduate and undergraduate transcripts, and three letters of recommendation to:

Christine Watts, Director of Human Resources, University of Holy Cross, 4123 Woodland Dr, New Orleans, LA 70131 or by email cwatts@uhcno.edu

Incomplete applications will not be reviewed.