A MESSAGE FROM THE ARCHBISHOP

Hurricane Laura Relief

The Lake Charles diocese was the hardest hit – and devastated. If your parish, organization or community wishes to send money or supplies to assist the Diocese of Lake Charles, please let me know. I promised Bishop Provost I would coordinate such efforts. Needless to say, basic daily supplies are needed and money for rebuilding.

THANKS TO THOSE WHO HAVE GIVEN GENEROUSLY IN PRAYER, FINANCIALLY, AND BY SENDING SUPPLIES.

We in the Archdiocese of New Orleans know such devastation. Please see the attached letter to Clergy, Religious and Laity in English and Spanish.

Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship Series

As important local, state, and national elections approach, the Archdiocese of New Orleans is launching an informational campaign to educate Catholics on their responsibility to exercise their right to vote with a properly formed conscience. Using resources based on the US Bishops’ document “Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship” the archdiocese will share through the Clarion Herald and digital communications resources about the roles and responsibilities of Catholic clergy, religious, and laity in public life, how to properly form one’s conscience, and how to have civil dialogue in political debate. For the latest information visit https://nolacatholic.org/ or follow the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of New Orleans on Facebook.
