An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You are already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

The Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly to thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother; to thee do I come; before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in your mercy, hear and answer me. Amen.

Seasons of Uncertainty & Inequality Prayer Service at the Annunciation Monastery: The public is invited to an outdoor, ecumenical prayer service to lift one another up in love and unity in these times of pandemic and racism. The prayer service will be held on Wednesday, June 17th, at 7:00 p.m. on the lawn in front of Annunciation Monastery, 7520 University Dr., Bismarck, ND, 58504.

Sister Idelle Badt, a Benedictine Sister of Annunciation Monastery, and the organizer of the prayer service, says she has been feeling like the world is imploding around her. "In the midst of a pandemic and such division and racism, I contemplated a conversation I had with Father Jerome Kautzman and Father Marvin Klemmer. They reminded me that the best thing we can do right now is pray. With prayer and conversion of hearts and minds, we can do great things. God can do great things."

This contemplation brought Sister Idelle the idea of holding a peaceful gathering, at a holy place, where people of all faith backgrounds can come together and pray. "This is nothing political, strictly a display of positivity, unity, and love for all of God's children in this nation. During the challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic and racial unrest, we want to honor the health care workers, students, teachers, and all who are affected by racial inequality at this time," Badt explains. Speakers from the civic and religious community will offer inspirational talks on topics such as: racism and love, death and not being able to be with loved ones, health care, grief, being close to God in challenging times, and the marginalized.

Attendees should bring chairs or blankets to sit socially distanced on the monastery lawn and feel free to wear masks. There is no charge to attend.

Thank You to everyone who is keeping faithful to your Parish Financial Contributions at all of our Parishes. It is very much appreciated! Please do not hesitate to call Fr. Shannon or contact the parish office, especially if there is an emergency sacramental need.
