CLOSING HYMN

CONCLUDING PRAYERS

Upon consultation with the Pastoral Council, Father Joseph has accepted the proposal to add two prayers at the end of Sunday Masses as part of our personal acts of thanksgiving, immediately following the closing hymn.
The congregation will pray aloud a “Hail Mary” for the intention of whichever parishioner is the next to be called home.
In light of the current crisis in the Church, then the “St. Michael Prayer” will follow using this translation (pg. 1085 of Lumen Christi Missal):

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray: and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

AMEN.

For your personal devotion, you may also wish to explore the red Lumen Christi Missal in the pew which has a wide variety of prayers for use before and after Mass.

Prayers for Deacon Jim Note from Deacon Jim:
As most of you know, I was diagnosed with Parkinson’s Disease about 7 years ago. The next stage of treatment as recommended by my doctors is “Deep Brain Stimulation Surgery.” This a process where electrodes are attached to the parts of my brain that control the motor functions of the disease. There will be three separate surgeries: right side brain surgery on Friday, Nov. 9th; surgery on Friday Nov. 16th to insert the Electronic Transmitter Device into my chest (similar to a pacemaker) and left side brain surgery on Friday, Dec. 14th. I will be out of the office from Nov. 8th through Jan. 1st depending on how well I recover from surgery and how quickly the new system can stabilize my condition. Thank you so much for all of your prayers and support. I will be back with you as soon as I am physically able. God bless you! Love, Deacon Jim

Join fellow parishioners in a nine day novena to St. John Paul II for Deacon
Jim. Start on November 1st and finish on November 9th, date of Deacon Jim’s first surgery.

The souls of the just are in the hand of God, and no torment shall touch them. They seemed, in the view of the foolish, to be dead; and their passing away was thought an affliction and their going forth from us, utter destruction. But they are at peace.

Indulgence: Visit to a Cemetery

◊ An indulgence, applicable only to the Souls in Purgatory, is granted to the faithful, who devoutly visit a cemetery and pray, even if only mentally, for the departed.
◊ The indulgence is plenary each day from the 1st to the 8th of November; on other days of the year it is partial.

Plenary Indulgence: Visit to a Church on All Souls Day

◊ A plenary indulgence, applicable only to the Souls in Purgatory, is granted to the faithful, who on the day dedicated to the Commemoration of all the faithful departed, piously visit a church, a public oratory or -- for those entitled to use it -- a semipublic oratory. It can be acquired either on the day designated above or, with the consent of the Ordinary, on the preceding or following Sunday or the feast of All Saints.
◊ In visiting the church or oratory, it is required that “one Our Father and the Creed be recited.”

Note that in addition to the described work, obtaining a plenary indulgence also has the following conditions:

- Sacramental confession. A single sacramental confession suffices for gaining several plenary indulgences; but Communion must be received and prayer for the intention of the Sovereign Pontiff must be recited for the gaining of each plenary indulgence.
- Prayer for the intention of the Sovereign Pontiff. The condition of praying for the intention of the Sovereign Pontiff is fully satisfied by reciting one Our Father and one Hail Mary; nevertheless, each one is free to recite any other prayer according to his piety and devotion.
- Eucharistic Communion.
- It is further required that all attachment to sin, even venial sin, be absent. If the latter disposition is in any way less than perfect or if the prescribed three conditions are not fulfilled, the indulgence will be partial only.
