INTROIT (9:00) Gregorian chant, mode III
Tibi dixit cor meum, quæsivi vultum tuum, vultum tuum Domine requiram: ne avertas faciem tuam a me. Ps. Dominus illuminatio mea, et salus mea: quem timebo? When he calls to me, I will answer him; I will rescue him and honor him; with long life will I satisfy him. PROCESSIONAL HYMN Saint Michael Hymnal
687 O Wondrous Type! O Vision Fair AGINCOURT

GREETING
Celebrant: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. R: Amen.
Celebrant: The Lord be with you. R: And with your spirit.

PENITENTIAL ACT
Celebrant: Brethren, let us acknowledge our sins, and so prepare ourselves to celebrate the sacred mysteries.
R: I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,
And, striking their breast, they say:
through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;
Then they continue:
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.
Celebrant: May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.

GOSPEL
Mark 9:2-10
Deacon: The Lord be with you.
℟: And with your spirit.
Deacon: A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mark.
℟: Glory to you, O Lord.
At the conclusion of the Gospel:
℟: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

NICENE CREED
I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven,
(All bow while saying:)
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Have you ever wondered about questions like: What is the best way to pray? Or how much should I pray each day? Or how often should I pray the rosary? Our Lenten Friday night lecture series this year will attempt to answer those questions and many others regarding prayer. Prayer is a personal response to God’s presence. God loves us more than we can imagine. We respond to that love by loving him back. People in love want to spend time together. Prayer is a person to person communication with God. Come and learn about things like Lectio Divina, Ignatian contemplation, Liturgy of the Hours, novenas and many other prayer related topics.

This series will explore the divine call to give our entire self to God in love. We will explore what it means to truly do so and look at the lives of several saints who embody these qualities richly. All of these presentations will be in Fr. Moorman Hall at 7:00 PM and last about an hour.

Our lecture on Tuesday, February 27th: Loving God with Your Whole Mind with Sts. John of the Cross and Josephine Bakhita.

Our Friday Night Lecture Series on Prayer will be held in Fr. Moorman Hall, starting at 7:00 PM. All proceeds will go to Holy Family Academy. We had great reviews on the baked fish option. New this year; credit cards accepted. Prices are still $8.00 for adult plates and $4.00 for children plates.

PARISH CONFESSION NIGHT

We will have several priests available to hear private confessions at this time. Come listen to beautiful reflective music, pray and prepare your heart. Plan on attending.

A MESSAGE FROM FR. JOSEPH JOHNSON

SUGGESTIONS FOR LENT

Lent is about discovering true joy instead of settling for the passing pleasures we often experience. We should prefer union with God to the myriad temptations which all try to convince us of the same lie: “there is something better than God somewhere else.” God loves us infinitely and unconditionally! Lent helps us purify our hearts to recognize that our relationship with Jesus is our true treasure—what could be better than a love that never fails? The confidence with which we make our “yes” to be disciples of Jesus gives us the strength to say “no” to temptations which lead us away from Him.

We live in a society where every day is a party—we can have whatever we want whenever we want it. Fast food, convenience stores, and online shopping have made instant gratification our constant way of life. We need to return to a rhythm of life with fasts and feasts. Only then do celebrations become real and bring true joy. Lent is a time of preparation which leads to the celebration of Easter. How well we prepare directly impacts the richness of our celebration. Perhaps the most radical thing we could do this Lent would be to restore the rhythm of each week. Saint John Vianney started freeing his parish from the secularization of the French Revolution by convincing people to keep Sunday holy. It should be a day free from shopping, household chores, and homework and instead devoted to prayer, family, recreation, and service of others.

The three pillars of Lent are prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. All three are ways of growing in holiness. Every Lenten practice should manifest itself as another step towards our becoming saints. If it doesn’t contribute to an increase of love for God and neighbor, then it really isn’t relevant to Lent.

Let’s look at these one at a time... Fasting.

FASTING
Principle: I need to develop self-restraint instead of self-indulgence. By being faithful in little things I train myself in order to become faithful in big ones. Fasting strengthens the will to command the unruly passions. I can acquire discipline instead of giving in to the mentality of “if it feels good, do it.”

Try these practices:
- No snacks between meals!
- Give up desserts except on feast days.
- Limit or eliminate forms of “screen time” (television, video games, and general computer usage).
- Pull back from social media, texting, and even lengthy phone conversations—which waste time, even if not otherwise sinful.
- Don’t throw parties or festive social gatherings except on feast days—remember the penitential season!
- Turn off the radio (or iPod, etc.) except for certain times of day—escape the “dictatorship of noise” which forms a continual background to life and instead pursue silence which fosters a prayerful and contemplative life.

BOTTOM LINE
Any budget is a theological document—show me how you spend your time, energy, and money and I will be able to tell what’s important to you. Use prayer, fasting, and almsgiving to line up the concrete decisions of daily life with the priorities we should have as Christians. Lent is about becoming saints—not about holding our breath until Easter and then resuming life as we were before!
