HOMILY

NICE CREED
I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven,
(All bow while saying:) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate
of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
his death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Church of St. Bede - Sunday 5 PM Mass

The Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of St. Peter, the parent organization of the Church of St. Bede, is equivalent to a diocese and was created by the Vatican in 2012. The Ordinariate was formed to help former Anglicans become Catholic and celebrate Catholic Masses while still retaining some Anglican traditions.

Therefore, this Mass is different from the Sunday Mass you are probably used to, but still orthodox and fulfills a Roman Catholic's Sunday obligation.

All are welcome to attend! Visit the Church of St. Bede’s website at www.thevenerablebede.org for more information.

HOLY FAMILY WELCOMES FATHER MARCUS MILLESS

“My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my savior!”

These words of Mary sum up my first three years of priesthood at All Saints in Lakeville and the grace I’ve experienced in receiving the latest call to serve at HCMC as a hospital chaplain and with all of you at Holy Family parish and school as a parochial vicar. Since being ordained on May 31, 2014, the feast of the Visitation, I’ve felt called to hospital chaplaincy. I desire to learn how to bring Christ’s healing presence to the sick and suffering through the Sacraments. Yet, as that call has grown, so has my love for parish life. From celebrating Mass on Sunday, preaching, hearing confessions, presiding over Weddings, baptizing, and praying with others, Christ has shown me his unfading glory. So, I’m grateful to Archbishop for the assignment and Fr. Johnson for inviting me to join in the life here. My main assignment is HCMC, but I will also be here regularly.

A little bit about the Lord’s work in my life: I’m 29 years old and I grew up in a loving Catholic family with 11 brothers and sisters at the Church of the Epiphany in Coon Rapids. I was blessed to attend Epiphany Catholic School and later Coon Rapids High School. In high school, I began to question whether I was called or not. I led to any of their conversions. I also enjoyed serving Mass as well. I did celebrate “Mass” and preached to my siblings. I don’t know if it attracted and grew stronger in my high school years. As a kid, I did celebrate “Mass” and preached to my siblings. I don’t know if it led to any of their conversions. I also enjoyed serving Mass as well. In high school, I began to question whether I was called or not. I knew it was a heroic life, but wasn’t sure if it was for me. Then I met a priest by the name of Fr. Oliver Dufresne at my graduation. I knew it was a heroic life, but wasn’t sure if it was for me. Then I met a priest by the name of Fr. Oliver Dufresne at my graduation. We recognized all those actively living their Christian discipleship in their various parish activities and organizations and gave a special blessing.

Then, following the 11 AM Mass on Sunday, we will host an all-parish picnic to welcome Fr. Marcus Milless to Holy Family! See below for a letter from Fr. Millless. For those who did not RSVP, you can still bring your own picnic lunch and join us! Please bring your own chair or blanket.

The Nun is an award-winning documentary about Marta, a young Catholic woman in Sweden and her counter-cultural choice to become a cloistered Carmelite nun, living her life for God alone. Documentary filmmaker Maud Nycander followed Marta and her family for ten years to tell the story of her vocation, receiving a special exception from the Carmelite monastery to interview Marta while in the convent. Three Parishioners Need Your Mission Support Parishioners Sophia Horinek, Therese Brown, and Molly Laxen are requesting your help! Beginning in August, they will train and become youth ministers for NET (National Evangelization Teams), a Catholic organization that has been sending traveling teams of young across the United States since 1981. These teams then spend a year sharing their faith with the Catholic youth of the nation during retreats, talks and small group sessions; all the NET teams combined bring the Gospel directly to over 80,000 young people per year! This is Sophia’s second year with NET, and Therese and Molly’s first.

These three ladies are asking for mission partners (who can make monthly pledges or one-time gifts) to help cover the costs of these critical endeavors. Everyone who becomes a mission partner will receive NET’s newsletters and Sophia, Therese, or Molly’s personal updates during their year of service. Find out more about NET or donate online at www.netusa.org/donate.

Please also support them through prayer. If you have questions for Sophia, Therese, or Molly, or want to assure them of your monetary or prayerful support, please contact them respectively at srhorinek@gmail.com or trezsmiles2@gmail.com or molly.laxen@gmail.com.
