HOMILY

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

(All bow while saying:)

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

APPEAL FOR ADORERS
It is our goal at Holy Family to have at least two adorers present at each hour on the adoration schedule, so that every adorer can have a partner for scheduling back-up and safety during nighttime hours.
We are always in need of committed substitutes! If you wish to adore at a time not listed, you are still welcome and needed!
Please contact Mike Zwack, our Adoration coordinator, if you are willing to make an hour’s (or greater) commitment each week, and for information on the other times available:

CHURCH OF ST. BEDE - 5 PM SUNDAY MASS

The Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of St. Peter, the organization behind the Church of St. Bede, is equivalent to a diocese and was created by the Vatican in 2012.

The Ordinariate was formed in order to help former Anglicans become Catholic and celebrate Catholic Masses while still retaining some Anglican traditions.

Therefore, this Mass is different from the Sunday Mass you are probably used to, but still orthodox and fulfills a Roman Catholic’s Sunday obligation.

All are welcome to attend!

HOLY FAMILY ACADEMY: TELL YOUR FRIENDS!

Word of mouth is the both the best way to welcome others, and the best advertisement. Please tell the parents you know about all the amazing things HFA has to offer their children, ages Pre-K through 8th grade!

_Holy Family Academy provides its students with a classical education._

A classical education gives students a strong background in literature, history, language, grammar, writing, math and the sciences. It views all of these subjects as interrelated, and shows students the connections between them. A classical curriculum concentrates on fully developing the intellectual and character skills appropriate to each age level, thereby progressively and effectively guiding students into more advanced work. The classical model of education represents the backbone of the Western tradition, and was used by the Catholic Church to instruct her faithful for most of her 2,000 year history.

NEW THIS SCHOOL YEAR:

† _Montessori Pre-K for 3- and 4-year-olds_
  5 Days per Week -or- 3 Days per Week | ½ Day -or- Full-Day
  The philosophy of Montessori education is to support students in their natural development of mind, body and soul. Both Montessori and Classical education seek to allow students to behold the truth, goodness and beauty in the world as revealed to mankind through the Incarnation.

† _Catechesis of the Good Shepherd: Pre-K through Grade 1_
The purpose of The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is to assist the involvement of children and adults in a common religious experience in which the religious values of childhood, primarily those values of contemplation and enjoyment of God, are predominant. For more information, visit www.cgsusa.org.

The program is open to all men of the parish, and will start at 7:30 PM with Rosary in the Church, followed by the Watchmen event in Fr. Moorman Hall at 8 PM. Meal and beverages are provided, but a free will donation is appreciated. The Knights’ monthly business meeting will start at 6:45 PM in the Fr. Wilkins Room.

The Holy Rood

What is a “rood”? The word “rood” means Cross in Old English, also spelled “ruid” in Scots. Dangling above our heads as we approach the sanctuary is a beautiful, carved crucifixion scene. It depicts Jesus on the Cross with Our Lady and St. John on either side. Such an image emplacement is often known as the “Holy Rood.”

Why is it hanging up there? Last week I wrote about the choir screens surrounding the front part of the sanctuary. What I didn’t tell you is that the screen traditionally continued around the front of the sanctuary. “Wait a minute!” I hear you say. “That would block our view!” Indeed, it would! Nonetheless, the cathedral churches of England and some other parts of Europe often had their sanctuaries enclosed by a continuous screen with an arched opening at the central aisle for the procession of clergy to enter the sanctuary. Look at images from the royal wedding of Prince William in Westminster Abbey a few years ago—the invited guests in the nave couldn’t see anything happening at the altar!

The “rood” was placed at the top of the choir screen or suspended from the ceiling above it to provide the faithful with an image to meditate upon during Mass. The whole screen then became known as the “rood screen.” After the English Reformation, the puritanical hatred of images caused most of these “roods” to be destroyed. They were often later replaced with pipe organs. If you ever watch the world-famous “Festival of Lessons and Carols” broadcast from the exquisite Gothic chapel of King’s College, Cambridge, you will see an organ where the “rood” used to be. If you ever go to an Orthodox church, you will find the sanctuary blocked by an elaborate “iconostasis.” It functions in a similar manner to the “rood screen.”

Back to the question: “Why would they want to block my view?” Essential to participating in the liturgy is understanding that we are entering into a mystery. St. Thomas Aquinas’ Eucharistic hymn Adoro Te Devote reminds us that the senses of sight, touch, and taste fail us. It is only hearing that teaches us the truth of the Real Presence of Jesus in the Holy Eucharist. The words of Jesus at the Last Supper and in the sixth chapter of the Gospel of Saint John teach us the truth of this mystery.

Before electric lighting and microphones, it was clearly understood that the faithful’s interior participation in the mystery happening at the altar was more important than seeing or even hearing what was going on at that exact moment. This doesn’t mean that it isn’t easier to have interior participation when we can directly connect with the priest’s action. However, it does explain why the Church was unconcerned that most people didn’t understand Latin and that the priest faced the same way as the congregation, thus blocking their view of the altar. A sense of mystery was dominant. Now that we can see everything the priest does and understand what he says, has our appreciation of the Holy Eucharist improved? Is there more reverence than before? Or have we lost a sense of mystery?

“We adore Thee O Christ and we praise Thee, for by Thy Holy Cross Thou hast redeemed the world!” -Fr. Joseph

SEEKING HEALING

If you have been abused or victimized by someone representing the Archdiocese of Minneapolis and Saint Paul, we want to hear from you. Any and all abuse should be reported to the police. We are here to offer you help and healing. We will also help you make a formal complaint of abuse to this Archdiocese or assist you in contacting another archdiocese/diocese/eparchy. Please call our Victim/Survivor Help line at 651.291.4497. The Archdiocese partners with Canvas health, an independent and professional local care provider, to offer assistance or referrals for assistance. Learn more at: SafeCatholicsSPM.org

BULLETIN SUBMISSIONS

If you have a parish-related or archdiocesan event or announcement you'd like included in the Holy Family weekend bulletin, please submit the item to andrew@hfcmn.org at least two weeks in advance. Thank you!
