HOMILY

NICENE CREED
I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven,

(All bow while saying:)
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

HOLY COMMUNION

We invite actively practicing Catholics who are properly disposed to come forward to receive Holy Communion. Our brothers and sisters of other faiths are invited to approach with arms crossed over the chest to receive a blessing. At Holy Family we receive the combination of the Body and Blood of Christ on the tongue. If you prefer to receive just the Body of Christ in your hand, please have your hands clearly out before you approach.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON
Gregorian chant, mode VIII

Venite post me: faciam vos piscatores hominum: at illi, relictis retibus et navi, secuti sunt Dominum.

“Follow me; I will make you fishers of men.” Whereupon they, leaving their nets and their boat, followed the Lord. Mt 4:19, 20
COMMUNION MOTETS

O praise the Lord, all ye nations: praise him, all ye people. For his merciful kindness is great toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth for ever. Praise ye the Lord. Ps 116

11:00 Ave Maria S. Lindley
Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee; blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus Christ. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen. Cf. Lk 1:28, 42

Ave verum Corpus E. Elgar
Hail true Body, born of the Virgin Mary; who truly suffered, immolated upon the Cross for mankind, from whose pierced side flowed water and blood: may we taste thee before we enter the trial of death. O sweet, O faithful, O Jesus, Son of Mary, have mercy upon me. Trope to the Sanctus, 14th c.

CHAPLET OF DIVINE MERCY Lumen Christi Missal - p. 1032

PRO-LIFE PRAYER
℟: I give you thanks, dear God, for the gift of my life and the lives of all my brothers and sisters.
I know that there is nothing that destroys more life than abortion.
Yet I rejoice that you have conquered death through the resurrection of your Son.
I commit myself today never to be silent; never to be passive; never to be forgetful of the unborn.
I commit myself today to be active in the pro-life movement and never to stop defending life until all of my brothers are protected and our nation becomes, once again, a nation of liberty and justice, not just for some, but for all.

The Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of St. Peter, the organization behind the Church of St. Bede, is equivalent to a diocese and was created by the Vatican in 2012. The Ordinariate was formed in order to help former Anglicans become Catholic and celebrate Catholic Masses while still retaining some Anglican traditions. Therefore, this Mass is different from the Sunday Mass you are probably used to, but still orthodox and fulfills a Roman Catholic’s Sunday obligation. All are welcome to attend!

TRAVELING VOCATIONS CHALICE

This Sunday, the Chalice can be picked up by the David Rockwell Family after 9 AM Mass.

For information on the Traveling Vocation Chalice, please contact Phyllis Galarneault at thegconnec@aol.com or at 612.702.3735 (call or text). Thank you!

We would also like to offer special thanks to the Squires for their help in loading up the cars for delivery!

CURRENTLY, THE TIMES OF OUR GREATEST NEED ARE:

Fridays: 5 - 6 PM
Sundays: 7 - 8 PM

Please help make this our best drive ever!
The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity 2017 takes place from January 18th through the 25th. The theme of this year's Week of Prayer is "Reconciliation - The Love of Christ Compels Us." (Cf. II Cor 5:14-20). The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity has a history of over 100 years, in which Christians around the world have taken part in an octave of prayer for visible Christian unity. By annually observing the WPCU, Christians move toward the fulfillment of Jesus' prayer at the Last Supper "that they all may be one." (Cf. Jn 17:21).

Holy Family parish is blessed to have the Church of St. Bede, a parish of Catholics who have come back to full communion with the Church from Anglicanism, host a beautiful rite of the Mass here in our church each Sunday at 5 PM. You are welcome to attend! Visit https://ordinariate.net/about for more information.

A prayer for Christian Unity from the Church of St. Bede
O God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, our only Savior, the Prince of Peace: Give us grace seriously to lay to heart the great dangers we are in by our unhappy divisions; take away all hatred and prejudice, and whatever else may hinder us from godly union and concord; that, as there is but one Body and one Spirit, one hope of our calling, one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism, one God and Father of us all, so we may be all of one heart and of one soul, united in one holy bond of truth and peace, of faith and charity, and may with one mind and one mouth glorify thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

NEW FEATURE! FAITH AND ART

Over the centuries, the Church has been a major patron of the arts. Many of the greatest buildings, sculptures, paintings, and musical compositions were created by artists in service of the Church. Have you ever wondered why?

Why not use all of our energies and resources to build schools, hospitals, and homeless shelters? Catholic churches could be simple structures which shelter us from the cold, wind, and rain without any elaborate decoration. Why does the Church do other than support people’s basic physical and intellectual needs?

While we do spend lots of energy and resources on education and caring for the sick and poor, the Church also recognizes that man needs beauty to feed his soul! Churches are places where all people, including the poor, can be both cared for and surrounded by beauty that lifts their minds above their worldly concerns.

The ancient Greek philosophers stated that the Divine can be sought through an encounter with Truth, Goodness, and Beauty. We often hear a lot of religiously-based talk about Truth and Goodness. Pope Benedict XVI reminded us that Beauty is an important path to God as well! The quality we call “transcendence” is that aspect of something which helps us to see beyond our earthly horizon, and to catch a glimpse of eternal realities. No matter what style or time period, sacred art should be characterized by this transcendence.

In the coming weeks, I will write about many of the decorative elements of our parish church. We are blessed with a truly beautiful church building and have a tradition of filling it with beautiful sacred music. My hope is that you will be able to move beyond a basic appreciation for the loveliness of our church to see how it enables a richer encounter with God. So, when your mind wanders during those lengthy homilies, you can let the beauty around you help you to meditate on Heaven!
