GOSPEL
Matthew 17:1-9

Deacon: The Lord be with you.
R. And with your spirit.

Deacon: A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew.
R. Glory to you, O Lord.

At the conclusion of the Gospel:
R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

NICENE CREED
I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

CHURCH OF ST. BEDE - 5 PM SUNDAY MASS

The Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of St. Peter, the parent organization of the Church of St. Bede, is equivalent to a diocese and was created by the Vatican in 2012.

The Ordinariate was formed in order to help former Anglicans become Catholic and celebrate Catholic Masses while still retaining some Anglican traditions.

Therefore, this Mass is different from the Sunday Mass you are probably used to, but still orthodox and fulfills a Roman Catholic’s Sunday obligation.

All are welcome to attend! Visit the Church of St. Bede’s website at www.thevenerablebede.org for more information.

TODAY AT HOLY FAMILY

MARCH 8th WAS THE 25th ANNIVERSARY OF OUR ADORATION CHAPEL!

All are welcome to celebrate the anniversary with us today, Sunday, March 12th, following both morning Masses! A display detailing the history of the chapel will be available for viewing, and cake and donuts will be served in Fr. Moorman Hall. At the same time, check out other displays made by the students of Holy Family Home Educators during their St. Bridget’s Project Fair!

Make sure to go see the newly installed wood carving on the Adoration Chapel door, put there as a memorial of this special day! And don’t forget to stop in to see Jesus!

“The Lord is truly present—right there in front of us—in our very own perpetual adoration chapel. To become an adorer, then, is a fundamental commitment to the life of our parish. One is also richer through a ‘yes’ to a visit to our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.”

—Mary Baron, Holy Family Parishioner

When J. R. R. Tolkien was writing to his son Michael, during the dark days of the German bombing of Britain, he told him to bind his heart to the Eucharist: “Out of the darkness of my life, so much frustrated, I put before you the one great thing to love on earth: the Blessed Sacrament…”

PRAYER CANDLES FOR CONFIRMATION STUDENTS

Votive candles with each students’ name are still available in the back of church. Please take a candle and leave a signed card for a student; then remember to pray daily for your confirmand. Our students appreciate your prayers!

HOLY FAMILY ACADEMY: TELL YOUR FRIENDS!

Word of mouth is the both the best way to welcome others, and the best advertisement. Please tell the parents you know about all the amazing things HFA has to offer their children, ages Pre-K through 8th grade!

Holy Family Academy provides its students with a classical education.

A classical education gives students a strong background in literature, history, language, grammar, writing, math and the sciences. It views all of these subjects as interrelated, and shows students the connections between them. A classical curriculum concentrates on fully developing the intellectual and character skills appropriate to each age level, thereby progressively and effectively guiding students into more advanced work. The classical model of education represents the backbone of the Western tradition, and was used by the Catholic Church to instruct her faithful for most of her 2,000 year history.

NEW THIS SCHOOL YEAR:

Montessori Pre-Kindergarten for 3- and 4-year-olds
5 Days per Week -or- 3 Days per Week
½ Day -or- Full-Day

The philosophy of Montessori education is to support students in their natural development of mind, body and soul. Both Montessori and Classical education seek to allow students to behold the truth, goodness and beauty in the world as revealed to mankind through the Incarnation.

The Montessori Method believes in:
• Respect for each child
• Freedom and independence for each child
• Intrinsic motivation
• Practicing concentration

This study of the Bible would be a perfect family activity for Sundays (or every day) of Lent. It is written by parishioner Linda Wandrei, along with Emily Cavins and a couple of other local writers.
