Rejoice, O Jerusalem; and gather round, all you who love her; rejoice in gladness, after having been in sorrow; exult and be replenished with the consolation flowing from her motherly bosom. ¶ I rejoiced when it was said unto me: “Let us go to the house of the Lord.”

R.: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

NICENE CREED
I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven,
(All bow while saying:)
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

Church of St. Bede - 5 PM Sunday Mass

The Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of St. Peter, the parent organization of the Church of St. Bede, is equivalent to a diocese and was created by the Vatican in 2012.

The Ordinariate was formed in order to help former Anglicans become Catholic and celebrate Catholic Masses while still retaining some Anglican traditions.

Therefore, this Mass is different from the Sunday Mass you are probably used to, but still orthodox and fulfills a Roman Catholic’s Sunday obligation.

All are welcome to attend! Visit the Church of St. Bede’s website at www.thevenerablebede.org for more information.

Please click the link on our home page, www.hfcmn.org, to “like” the Holy Family Facebook page and get updates on parish life, Catholic topics around the archdiocese, and upcoming parish events!
SECOND COLLECTION: GLOBAL SOLIDARITY

This weekend is Global Solidarity Sunday weekend in the Archdiocese, with the theme: “…I was blind and now I see” (Jn 9:25). This is an opportunity to reach out in solidarity to our brothers and sisters around the world, letting our light shine for those who still hunger and thirst for God’s mercy, love and healing. On this Sunday, a special collection will be taken for four global priorities of the U.S. Catholic Bishops: Africa, Latin America, Central and Eastern Europe, as well as humanitarian activities of Catholic Relief Services. Please be as generous as you are able and support your brothers and sisters overseas. Thank you.

“YOU: THEOLOGY OF THE BODY FOR TEENS

Holy Family is excited to invite youth to a dynamic, new program! YOU: Life, Love, and The Theology of the Body offers teens, grades 10 to 12, an opportunity to hear from respected Catholic leaders about life, sexuality, and what it means to be created by God for love. The program will normally be held on Sundays, and will be led by two awesome young adults. The second session is today, Sunday, Mar. 26th from 12:30-2 PM in the Holy Family Academy library. The cost to register for the 10-week program is $20, which covers the cost of the student text. Please go to www.hfemn.org to learn more and register by Tuesday, March 28th! If you have questions, please contact Elizabeth Brown at elizabeth@hfemn.org.

LOOKING FOR AN OPPORTUNITY TO OFFER A CORPORAL WORK OF MERCY?

A number of local long-term care facilities and assisted living residents will gladly accept individuals or families to make short visits to the sick and elderly, one of the Corporal Works of Mercy. These visits can take place every week, month, or as often as you and your family are available. Depending upon your desire or interests, the visits can consist of sharing life with residents, praying for their needs, playing board and card games, calling BINGO, doing crafts, making music, etc. Jim Reinhardt gave more information about these opportunities at Mass last weekend. If you were not able to talk with Jim, please feel free to call him at 952.736.0444. Remember, you and your family will receive in grace and blessings much more than you can give. Thank you for your consideration!

LAST CHANCE: MINNESOTA FOODSHARE MARCH 2017

Going strong for 35 years, the Minnesota FoodShare March Campaign is the largest food drive in the state, and congregations like ours are the heart of the campaign. You are invited to bring non-perishable items to Mass every weekend during March: please place them in the collection bins located in the church entryways. Let’s help fill the Saint Louis Park Emergency Program (STEP) food shelves and make sure our neighbors do not go hungry!

MINNESOTA FOODSHARE MARCH 2017

FORMED.ORG: MEDITATE ON HIS PASSION

To access Catholic movies, books, audio recordings and more, go to www.Formed.org, and sign up using our parish code: 2QCG4F. Lent is a great time to develop deeper gratitude by meditating on Jesus’ real sacrifice for us. In The Fourth Cup, Catholic theologian Dr. Scott Hahn explains Christ’s Paschal Sacrifice on the cross as the fulfillment of the traditional fourth cup used in the celebration of the Jewish Passover meal. Through Hahn's scholarly insights and important biblical connections, Mass will come alive for you as never before! Find The Fourth Cup on www.Formed.org under the AUDIO tab, and located in the Adult Faith Formation section.

NOTICE: LIGHTING PROJECT

Please note that the new LED lighting system is now being installed in church! The lights are very bright, and unfortunately cannot be dimmed until they and the system controller are all installed, a process that should take a couple of weeks. Thank you for your patience. It seems quite fitting that this coming Sunday's second reading has something to say on this matter: Ephesians 5:8-14.

HOLY FAMILY ACADEMY

HFA LENTEN ACTIVITIES
Holy Family Academy’s Virtue Family groups are leading the school in two mission activities as a part of our Lenten efforts to fast, pray, and give alms:
- We had a “Rincan Day” this past week to support the Sajan family from India, who we prayerfully and materially support; the family’s son Rincan Sajan, who has cerebral palsy, has communicated with our students over the years.
- We are also raising funds and praying for the Holy Family Hospital in Bethlehem, which especially gives care to poor women and their infants.

IN AND AROUND THE ARCHDIOCESE

BANKRUPTCY UPDATE FROM ARCHBISHOP HEBDA
The following is excerpted from a letter sent by Archbishop Hebda to the parishes of the archdiocese:

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Since arriving in our Archdiocese, I have come to know this local Church - and many of you - and I consider that a blessing. I want to take a few moments to offer some updates, seek your advice, and express my gratitude.

First, I can assure you that through consultation and purposeful corrective actions, and with an unwavering commitment to improve, we are together building a healthier, more responsive and more accountable local Church. Your prayers have undoubtedly been a huge part of that.

Over the past few months, many of you have asked about our remaining legal challenge: bankruptcy. You want to know if the Archdiocese is doing everything it can to ensure that those who were harmed receive fair compensation. You have also asked how your parish and the entire local Church will survive this and continue with their missions.

I can assure you that our goal has been to provide fair compensation as soon as possible. We have liquidated possessions, sold buildings, collected other assets, and negotiated with insurance carriers. We have managed to gather more than $155 million, all with the hope of compensating claimants and finally bringing an end to the bankruptcy.

I know that those who have been harmed deserve justice sooner rather than later, and we realize that prolonged litigation works counter to our desire to maximize the amount available for victims because legal fees and costs, which are already substantial and grow the longer this goes on, reduce the proceeds available to victims. We also know how that the uncertainties of the ongoing litigation have made it difficult for many of our parishes and parishioners to stay focused on our mission. Please join me in praying that the matter might soon be brought to a resolution.

I thank you. We are, together, setting a new course. God willing - and with your help - we will continue moving toward a better future. May God bless you and your families.

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend Bernard A. Hebda
Archbishop of Saint Paul and Minneapolis
