The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph

God sets a father in honor over his children; a mother's authority he confirms over her sons.

~Sirach 3:2

Today at Holy Family

Feast of the Holy Family Celebration
Stop down to Fr. Moorman Hall after Mass on Sunday, December 29th for cake, mimosas and coffee with Bailey’s reception.

For the Feast of the Holy Family in 2013, Bishop Paul Sirba of Duluth blessed our new statue and shrine of the Holy Family. His nephew, also named Paul Sirba, carved the shrine and then later did other carving around the church. He is pictured here along with Helen Sirba, the bishop’s mother. We pray for the repose of Bishop Sirba who died recently and also fondly remember Fr. James Stromberg who served faithfully at Holy Family for 18 years before his death in 2017.

Cancelled Young Adult Sunday Gospel Discussion
The Young Adult Gospel Discussion will not meet in the Nazareth House today. Plan to stop down in Fr. Moorman Hall for the Feast of the Holy Family celebration.

New Year’s Schedule
Please refer to our liturgical schedule on page 3, for Mass times and New Year closures.

Complimentary 2020 Calendars and Christmas Bulletins
Complimentary calendars and Christmas bulletins are available to be picked up near all church doors. Please take one.
“HOLY FAMILY OF NAZARETH: A MODEL FOR OUR FAMILIES”

Looking for a New Year’s resolution?? How about a two-fold resolution to find ways to bring God more into our homes and ways to bring “home” more into our parish?

It was not by accident that Jesus came to earth in the context of a family. It is also not by accident that the family is under a constant strain from the forces of the culture around us. Jesus sanctified the life of the family by His birth. The Blessed Virgin Mary and Saint Joseph should be our models for virtue and maintaining a Christ-centered home. We need to push back against the secular currents that swirl around every aspect of our lives.

The world exerts tremendous pressures that can tear families apart. A huge toll on society has already been exacted by the prevailing moral winds which prefer multiple, no-commitment relationships to the stability of lifelong marriage. We are confronted daily with the not-so-hidden agenda that wishes to redefine God’s creation with dozens of gender options determined by personal choice rather than the simple facts of biology.

Sometimes it is the frenetic pace of life itself. How much do we damage our families by freely participating in the whirlwind? Where can we draw boundaries and set limits to protect the life of the home? A major culprit in this regard has to be identified as sports. This seems to be the new religion of America. We now build stadiums instead of cathedrals. Watching televised sports, attending sporting events, or signing up the kids for various athletic teams… how much of our “free” time is consumed this way? Not to mention the financial cost of going to a professional game or even the equipment and fees associated with each child who just joins a little league team! If I asked you to spend half of this time and energy in church you would think me crazy! Do we value the body more than the soul?

Technology is another major factor. Pry yourself and the kids away from screens and focus on real-world relationships. If you don’t yet have a time when the phones all get locked in a drawer for the night, then start! Try a “tech sabbath” by banning all electronics for the Lord’s Day. That starts with Mom and Dad setting a good example themselves! And how is that precious time of Sunday spent? There is the professional game or even the equipment and fees associated with each child who just joins a little league team! If I asked you to spend half of this time and energy in church you would think me crazy! Do we value the body more than the soul?

And what about our parish? Do we fall into the convenience-store mentality of dropping by church to pick up a sacrament and then jetting off to the next thing? Can we start to refocus and see the parish as our family of faith? It is not just a rhetorical device when I begin every sermon with “my dear brothers and sisters in Christ”!

Our parish follows the same pattern of so many others where less than ten percent of the people do close to 100% of the work. Can we begin to share the same sense of Gospel mission and thus share responsibility? Plan on regularly stopping downstairs for coffee after Sunday Mass and signing up to serve once a quarter. Get involved with a small group for Lent or serve on the committee to run the Spring Fling or Fall Festival. There are plenty of opportunities! Become a monthly attendee at the “Saints and Sinners” potluck dinners so you can learn 50% of your fellow parishioners by name and 80% by sight! Jesus definitely does not want us to be a bunch of strangers huddled under the same roof at the same time—the Church is a family of faith!

My prayer is that this coming year of 2020 sees Christ’s presence strengthen in your homes and your presence strengthened in our parish! May our patrons, the Holy Family of Nazareth, assist us!
