SMALL GROUP INITIATIVE FOR LENT

The family is the basic building block of society. The parish is the basic building block of the Church. What makes a parish of 710 households a community rather than a group of strangers praying at the same time under the same roof? We need opportunities where people can get to know one another, develop friendships based on Christ, and encourage one another in discipleship. Small groups can serve as those opportunities.

NOW IS THE TIME!
We are here to help with the mechanics of creating small groups. It is sometimes difficult to meet new people. We need to remember that we all have far more in common with one another than we usually recognize: our faith in Jesus Christ! We need to connect with one another as fellow disciples and discover how God blesses us with each other’s presence. Each person in this congregation is a gift!!!

There is no one magic time to meet or one particular topic to study. In fact, your group could start with something as simple as praying the Rosary and then have social time—perfect for families with small children running around! Each group should stay small in order to foster getting to know one another: a maximum of 8-12 people but, ideally, around 6 people; there is no magic number, but there needs to be plenty of opportunity to get to know one another which becomes harder as groups get larger.

Some basics:
Small groups work best based in the relaxed setting of a home. Sometimes members alternate who hosts each week. No one needs to prepare lavish refreshments. Groups can be either “closed”—meaning you invite a few other parishioners and don’t have room for more members—or “open”—meaning you welcome others whom you may not yet know but who are interested in your topic or live in your area, etc. Personal invitation is the most effective way to recruit members to your group, which doesn’t preclude reaching out to someone you see at church but don’t yet know. Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, March 6th, so you have until Tuesday, March 5th, to sign up.

If you have not yet signed up or formed your own small group…
check out these 2 Small Groups meeting here in Fr. Moorman Hall:
