FAREWELL TO DEACON JIM REINHARDT

My Dear Fellow Holy Family Parishioners,

As many of you know, I was temporarily assigned to Holy Family to serve the parish as deacon last November. The assignment was to be concluded at the end of January, 2019. I was hoping that the chancery had forgotten about me as I have loved every moment of my assignment here and would have preferred to stay on permanently. However, the archdiocese has a fairly strict policy that deacons may not be assigned to their home parish. I recently learned that I am being assigned to a new parish as of Sept. 1st.

I want to express my gratitude for the love and support I received throughout my 10-month assignment at Holy Family. This parish is filled with so many good and holy people. One needs only to look around at Mass and see the reverence for the Holy Eucharist, the openness to life and the love the parishioners have for one another. I have experienced so much support and encouragement from so many of you. That has meant a great deal to me. I am also grateful for the ongoing support and training I have received from Fr. Johnson and Deacon Jim (Meyer), the Greater. They have both been such a blessing to me during my years of formation and first 2 years as a deacon. I have also been blessed to assist Fr. Welzbacher and Fr. Milless, two more holy and devoted priests. Finally, I want to thank and honor our sacristans and altar servers at Holy Family. They have made my life as a deacon so easy. I can confidently say, that there are no finer altar servers in the archdiocese (and beyond). Their reverence, devotion and generosity is awe-inspiring.

This note is not saying good-bye, but Thank You. I am still and will continue to be a member of Holy Family. I hope to be able to assist at Mass periodically and you will certainly continue to see Nadine and my children at Mass and parish events.

I would appreciate your prayers for me as I begin my new assignment. My prayers will continue for you so that God will continue to bless you and all the wonderful things that He is doing through Holy Family!

WELCOME DEACON MICHAEL NEVIN

Archbishop Hebda has assigned Deacon Mike Nevin to Holy Family as of the beginning of September. Deacon Nevin is concluding his assignment at Saints Peter and Paul in Loretto. He will continue to assist the Archdiocesan Office of Worship in a part-time capacity.
INTERCESSIONS

*Please pray for:

Phil Ameluxen † (friend of Jim & Donna Williams)*

To request prayers, go to www.hfcmn.org/prayer-requests, or call the parish office 952.929.0113. Submitted prayer intentions will be shared via “Prayer Partners” Flocknote messages and the bulletin for one week per request.

Ever been asked, “Where’s your proof that God exists or that you have a soul?” Father Robert Spitzer attempts to answer those questions in this important text that challenges material secularism, presenting traditional and contemporary evidence for God and a transphysical soul from several major sources. Access the eBook or Kindle book at www.FORMED.org; hover over the “Read” tab, choose “Nonfiction” from the dropdown, and find it in the “Practical Living” section. Enjoy!

Dante’s Divine Comedy
Written 700 years ago, Dante’s Divine Comedy remains one of the greatest works of Catholic literature of all time. Most importantly, it is a spiritual autobiography of a lost man, a troubled soul, in need of rescue. As an imaginative approach to faith, the Comedy has the ability even today to help us toward spiritual growth. This guided tour through the Divine Comedy by Dr. Mary Reichardt (Univ. of St. Thomas) will include: an introduction to the entire work and Inferno 1-5 (Sept. 21); Inferno 6-34 (October 26); Purgatorio (Nov. 16); and Paradiso (Dec. 14). A text of the complete Comedy, translated by Mark Musa, will be provided for each registrant. Meet in Fr. Moorman Hall the listed Saturdays from 9-11 AM. Cost will be $20 and includes books. Register and pay at www.hfcmn.org/pay-divine-comedy by Thursday, Sept. 12th.
