We Interrupt this Lenten Journey to Bring You a Public Service Announcement…

No one knows how grave the spread of the coronavirus is. How many people will it infect? How many people will get seriously ill from it? We want to avoid the panic that has gripped so many people, but at the same time exercise the virtue of prudence.

How Holy Family is addressing the coronavirus situation:
- Our cleaning crew is now daily disinfecting the pews, the communion rail, and all handrails and doorknobs throughout our facilities.
- All extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion are asked to disinfect their hands right before distributing the Holy Eucharist.
- People who have health problems with gluten are being asked if they can receive a low gluten host instead of receiving the Precious Blood from the chalice.
- The priest will not take offense if you do not wish to shake hands after Mass—a wave is also friendly!

What can you do to help?
- Stay home from church or school if you are sick! You are dispensed from the obligation of attending Sunday Mass if you are unwell. Even if you feel able to “tough it out,” please be considerate of not wanting to spread germs to others.
- Wash your hands or use hand sanitizer regularly.
- Do not hold hands at the “Our Father” or exchange the sign of peace.
- At the time for Holy Communion, open your mouth wide and extend your tongue so as to make it easy to receive the sacred host. Do NOT move your head to intercept the host, but wait for the host to be placed on your tongue. If you are in the back of church, come to a full and complete stop before receiving. These simple steps help to avoid unintentional contact.

The question has been asked about the use of holy water fonts since many hands enter the water each day. You are certainly free to abstain from using holy water as long as you wish. Our church will retain holy water for those who wish it since the traditional blessing specifies that it is to assist in dispelling sickness: “Let no breath of infection, no disease-bearing air, remain in these places.”

We sincerely hope that this outbreak passes quickly. Please pray for all those affected—both by becoming sick and by being adversely impacted by the economic consequences of this epidemic.

Food for Thought

I arise today
Through the strength of Christ's birth and His baptism,
Through the strength of His crucifixion and His burial,
Through the strength of His resurrection and His ascension,
Through the strength of His descent for the judgment of doom.

From the “Breastplate of Saint Patrick” (5th century)
God hears the prayers of the little children! We got walloped in October and November with extra cold temperatures but now I am optimistically hearing predictions for an early spring. The ground is already thawing and the weather forecast for the next two weeks is unseasonably mild. Our students have been praying for our new facility to be completed as soon as possible and the Lord seems to be answering them by clearing the way for construction to begin early!

Our contractor foresees bulldozers on site in early April. We have to wait for MNDOT to lift the heavy equipment restrictions on the roads, but then it is clear sailing. Pray that April and May are not very rainy so much progress can be made even before summer. We will soon need to add prayers for the safety of workers as the heavy-lifting begins!

This work will mean some discomfort with drop-off and pick-up for our students as school is in session. Let’s be sure to exercise our patience with one another especially in those morning and afternoon hours. Please be particularly attentive to showing courtesy to our neighbors during this entire process. Driving and parking will be challenging at times—don’t selfishly let your frustration ruin someone else’s day.

Pray also that we can close the gap to finish our fundraising efforts! Thanks for all of your prayers and sacrifices so far—God is blessing our parish abundantly!

~ Fr. Joseph

LENTEN LECTURE SERIES: THE “CONFESSIONS” OF ST. AUGUSTINE WITH SMALL GROUP DISCUSSION

Every Tuesday in March at 7pm in Fr. Moorman Hall, John Hartnett, is hosting a Tuesday evening adult faith formation series on the “Confessions” of St. Augustine.

Walk-ins are welcome. After the lecture, attendees will be able to reflect upon and share insights on the spiritual life and its common struggles in a small group format after the lecture. We will refer to the translation by Frank Sheed, but other translations are acceptable.

CELEBRATE THE SOLEMNITY OF ST. JOSEPH

Thursday, March 19th, come celebrate and join us for breakfast after the 8am Mass in Fr. Moorman Hall. Lenten austerity is lifted for only two great feasts during this penitential season: St. Joseph and the Annunciation of the Lord. For us, the solemnity of St. Joseph is a particular occasion of rejoicing because he is the head of the Holy Family. Thus, join us as we honor St. Joseph as a special patron of our parish! (Since this is a large celebration, the normal Wednesday Donuts will be cancelled on March 18.)

LENTEN CONCERT

"The Crucifixion" by Sir John Stainer

Sunday, March 29 at 3pm

Enjoy this magnificent meditation on Our Lord’s suffering and death as we begin the last period of Lent, traditionally known as Passiontide. The combined choirs of Holy Family Catholic Church will present this masterpiece under conductor Scott Turkington, along with guest soloists.

Free Admission but donations gratefully accepted to support our sacred music program. Wine and cheese reception following.

LENTEN CONFESSION NIGHT

Wednesday, April 1, 7-9pm.

There is no better preparation for Easter than to go to confession! Avoid the long lines—we will have a number of priests available to hear individual confessions.

PROPER DISPOSAL OF BLESSED PALMS

Because blessed palms are sacramentals, they cannot be thrown away. They must either be burned or buried to be disposed of correctly. For your convenience, you are invited to bring your last year’s blessed palm branches to church for disposal. Baskets will be placed at the church entryways the weekend of March 28 & 29 and through March 31.

DISCIPLES ARE NEEDED!

We are in great need of Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, especially at the 11am Mass. If you are able to be a part of this Ministry, please contact Sharon at 952.999.4890 or Sharon.pero@hfcmn.org for any questions and to set up a training time.
