Old St. Patrick Catholic Church

Parent / Religious Education Commitment

Parish and family catechesis are inseparable from one another because they each fulfill distinct needs of our children to grow morally and spiritually into disciples of Christ.

As the religious education program at Old St. Patrick we pledge to:

- ❖ Support you, as parents, by providing your child with a rigorous program that faithfully teaches according to the Magisterium of the Church.
- ❖ Assign meaningful lessons to be completed at home to supplement the catechesis in Sunday class.
- ❖ Provide materials, support, and guides to encourage you in your role as the first educators of your children in the faith.
- ❖ Facilitate an organized program with clear expectations directed to helping students and their families deepen their knowledge and love of Jesus Christ and His Church.

As a parent committed to deepening my faith and that of my child, I will:

- ❖ Regularly participate in the sacramental life of the parish as a loving witness of the Catholic faith for my child.
- ❖ Assist at Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation, in accordance with the teachings of the Church.
- ❖ Ensure that my child faithfully attends religious education classes with the understanding that more than 4 absences throughout the year can be grounds for my child having to repeat grades in the following year.
- ❖ Pray with and for my child. In addition, I will help my child learn all the prayers assigned throughout the year.
- ❖ I will assist my child in completing the lessons and activities before class each week. I understand that faithfully completing lessons and quizzes is an essential part of the religious education program.
