TWENTY SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Jeremiah 20:7-9

In this particularly poetic passage, Jeremiah complains that while teaching the Lord's word, he is subjected to insults and derision. He determines to remain silent, but he cannot because the desire to speak the Lord's name is "like a fire burning in my heart."

Second Reading: Romans: 12:1-2

Paul tells the Christians to make sacrifices to avoid the trappings of the times, and to do God's will.

Gospel: Matthew 16:21-27

Jesus tries to make his disciples realize that by following him, they will endure suffering, degradation, and death. He tells them that they must deny themselves and take up the cross in order to be his disciples.

Thank you for your continued support and generosity

From Cardinal Dolan...

Dear friends in the Lord:

Today, our archdiocese takes up the Catholic Home Missions Appeal (CHMA), and I ask that you prayerfully consider participating. This Appeal supports the (arch) dioceses here in our own country that struggle to make ends meet and to serve all of the needs of their parishioners. It is through your generosity that many churches are able to keep their doors open and provide essential pastoral services.

The Diocese of Laredo is located in southern Texas, along the Texas-Mexico border. Many in this diocese live on the margins of society, either as immigrants or as people living in poverty, and it is a challenge for the diocese to keep up with the needs of its people. With your contributions to the Catholic Home Missions Appeal, the diocese reaches out to some of the most marginalized people---those in prison. Many detainees are returning to the Catholic faith and are in need of the Lord's mercy. Your gifts provide liturgical and educational supplies, help priests offer the Eucharist and other sacraments, and support volunteers' and ministers' outreach to more than 10,000 men and women in detention facilities. Your generosity brings Christ's message of love, compassion, and reconciliation to this often forgotten population.

Your support of this Appeal makes a difference in the lives of our brothers and sisters right here in the United States. Please prayerfully consider how you can support the Appeal this year. To learn more about the Appeal and those who benefit from it, visit www.usccb.org/homemissions. Thank You for strengthening the Church at home.

With prayerful best wishes, I am,
Faithfully in Christ,
+ Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan
Archbishop of New York

SACRED HEART CHURCH, POND EDDY

I take this opportunity to appreciate all our parishioners who supported in keeping our Sacred Heart Church open in Pond Eddy. And the last Mass for this year will be celebrated on September 11th, Sunday. Again we will reopen the church in 2018, first week after Easter.

BLUE MASS '2017'

The Blue Mass is named after the blue color of police uniforms, the mass is said to remember the lives of first responders who died in the line of duty, support those who serve, and pray for their continued safety. At the Blue Mass in 2015, Cardinal Wueri said, "This Blue Mass does several things. First of all, it thanks everyone in uniform who stands between us and violence. We're all called to something more than violence. We're called to the message of Jesus, His love, His peace."

Here in our Church of St. Anthony of Padua and St. Thomas Aquinas we have the Blue Mass on Saturday September 9th at 4.00 PM. Bishop Dominick J. Lagonegro will be the Principal Celebrant for the Mass. Dinner will be served at the Church Parish Center after Mass. All are Welcome.

BLESSED MOTHER PRAYER GARDEN

My dear Brothers and Sisters,

With all your support we were able to complete our Blessed Mother Prayer Garden. Last week we finished laying the bricks in front of our Prayer Garden. After looking at the work, some of our Parishioners approached me whether it is possible for them to get a brick? Since this is the only chance for them to get a brick I don't want to disappoint them. If any of you want to buy a brick do it before Sunday, September 10.

'200' CLUB

Tickets for the 200 Club for 2017-18 are still available. And they will be on sale after the weekend Masses

FOOD PANTRY

The food pantry is always in need of food stuffs and/or monetary donations! Please be generous. Thank you for your increased giving to the food pantry.
