My Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Last week was really a blessing to me. I had my Religious Order with me for the past five days and we spent our whole time in going to different places and having meeting. But I have to apologize to all of you for not being in the Parish for those days.

My Religious Order Founder reached at JFK Airport on Monday at 8.30 AM so I along with Fr. Joseph and Fr. David left from here at 4.00 AM, went to Staten Island, picked up Fr. Roland and went to JFK to receive him. We stayed the whole day in Staten Island and the next day that is on Tuesday we celebrated Mass with Cardinal Dolan in the Cathedral at 7.00 AM and had Breakfast with him thereafter. Then we went to Niagara Falls stayed there for night and after enjoying the beauty of Niagara Falls left from there on Wednesday and came to our Parish stayed here for the night. On Thursday we all celebrated Mass here in our Church and left from here to Middletown, had lunch with Bishop Domick Laganegro and went to Staten Island from there.

On Friday after doing some shopping we went to JFK to leave our Religious Order Founder at the airport. He left at 4.30 PM to India. We went to Staten Island from airport, dropped Fr. Roland off, went to Callicoon and Narrowsburg to leave Fr. Joseph and Fr. David and came back to our Parish late in the night and slept very well.

Since I was doing all the driving for the past five days I was very tired and slept nicely after coming to the house and couldn't even get up for morning Mass on Saturday.

Thanks to all of you for letting me spend my time with my Religious Order Founder and Priests. God Bless You!

BLUE MASS '2017'

The Blue Mass is named after the blue color or police uniforms, the mass is said to remember the lives of first responders who died in the line of duty, support those who serve, and pray for their continued safety. At the Blue Mass in 2015, Cardinal Wueri said, "This Blue Mass does several things. First of all, it thanks everyone in uniform who stands between us and violence. We're all called to something more than violence. We're called to the message of Jesus, His love, His peace."

Here in our Church of St. Anthony of Padua and St. Thomas Aquinas we have the Blue Mass on Saturday September 9th at 4.00 PM. Bishop Dominick J. Lagonegro will be the Principal Celebrant for the Mass. Dinner will be served at the Church Parish Center after Mass. All are Welcome.

BLESSED MOTHER PRAYER GARDEN

My dear Brothers and Sisters,

With all your support we were able to complete our Blessed Mother Prayer Garden. Last week we finished laying the bricks in front of our Prayer Garden. After looking at the work, some of our Parishioners approached me whether is it possible for them to get a brick? Since this is the only chance for them to get a brick I don't want to disappoint them. If any of you want to buy a brick do it before Sunday, September 10.
