In today's second reading, we hear the author of the letter to the Hebrews liken the daily life of the Christian steward to a race, a long-distance race perhaps, certainly not a sprint; requiring endurance and a single-minded focus on Jesus at the finish line. Good stewards are firmly committed to running the race, to live the Christian life to the fullest, to keep their eyes focused on Jesus. They don't grow weary. They don't lose heart. They know there is immense joy waiting for them at the finish line. Are you fully committed to living each day for Christ? Are you running the race, or are you simply jogging? Just walking? Sitting? Going backwards? Going nowhere? Some of us may want to reflect on what we can do to run the race with even more conviction. Others may want to reflect on how to simply enter the race and start running.

Prayer for Protection against Storms and Hurricanes

Our Father in Heaven through the intercession of Our Lady of Prompt Succor, spare us during this Hurricane season from all harm. Protect us and our homes from all disasters of nature. Our Lady of Prompt succor, hasten to help us. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion - Redelegation

There will be a meeting for all of St. Hubert Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion on Tuesday, September 10, 2019, at 6:00 pm in the Parish Hall. This redelegation will certify all Ministers for additional five years.

APPRECIATION GATHERING

St. Hubert Parish Community has planned an appreciation gathering for Deacon Garland and Pauline Roussel on Saturday, September 7, 2019, at 5:00 pm in the Hall. Please sign the list on the activity table if you are able to attend.

A Note from Deacon Garland:

Pauline and I will no longer oversee St. Hubert's School of Religion. We have been involved in the education of the youth of St. Hubert Parish for approximately 35 years. Together we have helped countless number of youth receive the Sacraments and taught them about serving their Church. I have been the Director for many of those years and Pauline has helped by coordinating the registration, curriculum, and the organization of classes. We have also handled the Archdiocese of New Orleans Safe Environment Program requirements for St. Hubert for several years.

St. Hubert is merging with St. Peter's Religious Education Program beginning this school year. St. Hubert will continue to support our students both financially and spiritually. Thanks to all of the volunteers and teachers who have helped with our program, and thanks to everyone for your continued support.

Please be assured that I will continue to serve our Church and Community as a Permanent Deacon. May God bless you all!

LISTEN TO JESUS AND THE PROPHETS

Prophets have always had a tough row to hoe. Their words, often unwelcome, are used against them to persecute and even kill them. Such was the fate of the Old Testament prophets, and Jeremiah is a great example of this. Jesus endured opposition from sinners, and did not turn back from a shameful death in order to rise to a glorious new life. The ultimate prophet, Jesus sought to warn the people of his time and ours of the divisions that his words would cause, showing himself to be the prophet of all time. We all need to look at our divisions and dilemmas in light of Jesus' teachings and warnings, and seek to understand all that he has proclaimed and taught about what will happen if we fail to listen.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In recent weeks, we have reviewed how the Churches of East and West have enriched one another, and this past Thursday's solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary was born in the Eastern Church. It is a gift from the ancient Church of Jerusalem, a commemoration of the death of Mary, and a feast charged with a deep sense of the Resurrection. Mary, the first disciple, is the first to share fully in Christ's victory over death. In the tradition of the East, August 15 is the "Dormition of the Theotokos," or the "Falling Asleep of the God-bearer." There is no shadow of death or gloom in the theology, since this is seen as a transformation of Mary's life into a heavenly and immortal existence. There is a sense in the tradition that she who made earth heavenly and exalted the human race by her faithfulness is glorified today.

A persistent legend among Orthodox Christians tells how all the disciples, except Thomas, who was preaching in India, were present at Mary's death and burial, and sat by the tomb for three days. On the third day, Thomas saw Mary's body rising to heaven. She greeted him as "my friend," and he was escorted by angels to proclaim her assumption to the others, who then realized her tomb was empty. Thus Thomas, the one who expressed doubt at the resurrection of Christ, received a gift from Mary: the chance to proclaim resurrection faith to the disciples.

OCCUPANCY

The value of life does not depend upon the place we occupy. It depends upon how we occupy that place.

—St. Thérèse of Lisieux

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time
August 18, 2019

[Jesus] endured the cross, despising its shame, and has taken his seat at the right of the throne of God.
