In Jesus' parable of the Unjust Steward, we encounter a financial manager who has wasted his master's wealth and faces dismissal from his position. To overcome the crisis confronting him, the steward reduces some very considerable debts owed by poor neighbors to his master in order to help them out. Though the steward has sinned against God and his master by squandering what belongs to someone else, both the prudent way in which he goes about resolving the crisis coupled with relieving people who are in need can be seen as a way to better steward the gifts entrusted to us by God. Although good stewards today acknowledge that they may never use their God-given gifts in a way that completely conforms to the demands of the Gospel, a commitment to using their gifts with prudence and for the purpose of helping their neighbors wins God's favor.

St. Hubert Cookbook Fundraiser

St. Hubert’s Church is creating a custom cookbook featuring favorite recipes from our members and friends. This cookbook will be professionally published and is sure to be a treasured keepsake for us all. Money raised will be used toward the reupholstery of our church kneelers.

Please consider submitting your favorite recipes so you can be represented in our cookbook. Many recipes from all of our members and friends will ensure that our cookbook is a success. We are using Morris Press Cookbook’s website to easily submit recipe/s online. If you do not have Internet access, our committee can enter them for you. Submit hardcopies of your recipe/s by putting them in the collection basket or put thru the office door mail slot at the Faith House. Please mark the envelope “cookbook”. If additional recipe sheets are needed, please feel free to pick as many as you need on the activity table in the back of the church.

Prayer for Protection against Storms and Hurricanes
 Our Father in Heaven through the intercession of Our Lady of Prompt Succor, spare us during this Hurricane season from all harm. Protect us and our homes from all disasters of nature. Our Lady of Prompt succor, hasten to help us. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Annulment Writing Workshop

The Archdiocese of New Orleans will offer a writing workshop for persons seeking an annulment in the Catholic Church or for persons responding to an annulment. The workshop will be held in the St. Charles Borromeo Parish Center in Destrehan. The series will be for three (3) Saturdays, October 5, October 12 and October 19, 2019. Hours are 9:00 AM– 11:00 AM. The materials for the series cost $25.00. To register go to our website <https://nolacatholicfla.regfox.com/annulment-writing-workshop>. For more information, please call Cathy, 504-861-6243.

Special Thanks: We are very Blessed to be a part of a loving and faith-filled Church Community. We extend our sincere thanks to everyone for your prayers, well wishes and gifts for our retirement from St. Hubert’s School of Religion. We especially offer thanks and appreciation to the teachers who volunteered their time and talents to teach our Catholic Faith to the youth of our Community. Also, a special thanks to the St. Hubert Ladies Altar Society, Nancy Omond and all those who planned and prepared for the celebration. It was very special to celebrate with all of you; our Parish family, our friends, and our own family.

May God continue to Bless you and your families,

Deacon Garland and Pauline

GOD IS ON THE SIDE OF THE POOR

Two of today’s readings make it quite clear that God is on the side of the poor. Amos describes in detail the exploitation of the poor and needy. The psalm repeats that God acts to benefit the poor and lowly. But Luke turns things upside down, telling a tale of a conflicted steward, about to be fired, who demonstrates his cleverness and is rewarded. Like the community to whom Paul writes in Timothy, these readings are personal, directed to believers, members of the Jewish and Christian communities, who struggle to deal with personal choices about how to conduct their lives. They offer an outline for how God wishes us to live in a world as complicated and as confusing as our own.

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — The Lord never forgets the sins of those who take advantage of the poor (Amos 8:4-7).

Psalm — Praise the Lord who lifts up the poor (Psalm 113).

Second Reading — God our savior wills everyone to be saved (1 Timothy 2:1-8).

Gospel — The one who is trustworthy in small matters is also trustworthy in great ones (Luke 16:1-13 [10-13]).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Although June is the month most associated with weddings in the United States, September has become more popular in recent years. Wedding celebrations always require some savvy planning, and people who have a talent for hospitality in the mix. At the wedding feast at Cana, the mother of Jesus was recruited to deal with some of the details of the banquet, and when a very understandable crisis arose, she did what she could to rescue the party. Anyone who has ever run out of ice, dessert, or table settings knows the stress!

Slowly, the memory of Jesus Christ’s blessing of this marriage feast led the Church to form a way to bless marriages. A thousand years ago weddings migrated from the family home to the doors of the church, where the celebration was held in public view. From this practice came a prayer called the “Nuptial Blessing,” one of the most solemn prayers in our tradition. It is very much like the prayers by which baptismal water and chrism are consecrated, the ordination prayer over a priest, and the Eucharistic Prayers over bread and wine. Four hundred fifty years ago, weddings moved inside the church building. All of this gives married couples good reason to celebrate their anniversaries well, especially with the clinking of glasses filled with good wine.
