Crawfish Raffle

St. Hubert's Ladies Altar Society will hold a Crawfish Raffle this spring. The drawing will be held Sunday, May 10, 2020, following 10:00 a.m. Mass. Tickets will also be sold at all Lenten Fish Dinners. The raffle is for one sack of crawfish, live or boiled, or $100.00 (winner's choice). Thanks to MIKO'S SEAFOOD for donating the sack of Crawfish. All money raised from this raffle will be used to replace the kneelers in the church.

Thanks to everyone for supporting our fund-raising event.

Confessions will be available in all parishes in the Archdiocese of New Orleans on three consecutive Wednesdays, March 18th, March 25th, and April 1st, from 5:00 PM-6:30 PM.

St. Hubert Parish Meeting Synopsis

The Archdiocese sent 3 representatives to meet with St. Hubert Parishioners last Wednesday to discuss how to revitalize this parish spiritually and financially. Archbishop Aymond has requested that we send a report to the Archdiocese before May 1, 2020 summarizing our parish's potential future income and restructuring our Finance & Pastoral Councils. A committee has been formed to compose this report and will meet on Thursday, March 15th at 6:00PM in the Parish Hall.

Stations of the Cross will be at 6:00pm every Friday evening in the Church throughout Lent.

Pre-ordered cookbooks will be distributed at the Parish Hall every Friday evening from 4:30pm to 7:00pm and before and after each weekend mass during the month of March. Cook book order forms are available on the Activity table in the church.

THIRST

Each time today’s Gospel story is read, I can’t help but think of the many television commercials I’ve seen depicting perspiring athletes lifting a beverage to their lips while the scorching sun beats down on them. Our culture has definite ideas about how to quench thirst. Today, those ideas are turned upside down. The Samaritan woman operates, initially, on the TV commercial level. She asks Jesus for the flowing water so that she will not have to keep coming to the well. Jesus then talks about what real thirst is, and how he, and he alone, can quench that thirst. Lent calls us to find those places deep within ourselves where we thirst. In our thirst, as did the Israelites, we cry out to God asking for springs of living water. Deep down we know that only the Lord can satisfy these thirsts.

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — When the people grumbled to Moses for water in the desert, the Lord heard and brought forth water from the rock for all to drink (Exodus 17:3-7).

Psalms — If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts (Psalm 95).

Second Reading — God’s love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit (Romans 5:1-2, 5-8).

Gospel — Ask, and you will be given living water so that you will never thirst again (John 4:5-42 [5-15, 19b-26, 39a, 40-42]).

SAINT JOSEPH, HUSBAND OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

March 19

Joseph, someone once joked, was indeed the perfect husband: the only major character in Jesus’ story who never utters a word! But the Gospel recounts and the liturgy celebrates his silent witness of faith-filled deeds: “With a husband’s love he cherished Mary, the Virgin Mother of God; with fatherly care he watched over Jesus” (Preface of Saint Joseph, Sacramentary). Catholic devotion, therefore, hails him as patron-protector of the universal Church. Some cultures set a festive “Saint Joseph’s Table,” welcoming the poor and strangers to feast with family and friends. Tradition keeps today as the anniversary of his death, which we presume was peaceful, with Jesus and Mary present. Thus, Catholics invoke Joseph as Patron of a Happy Death. Descended from David’s house, which God finished “building” through Joseph’s provision of a home for Mary and Jesus, he was, fittingly, a carpenter by trade; thus, patron of workers. Spring, nature’s rebirth, begins between his feast and Annunciation (March 25), appropriately, since Joseph’s silent obedience and Mary’s “Let it be done to me according to your word” (Luke 1:38) usher in humanity’s spiritual rebirth.

WISDOM

A wise old owl lived in an oak.
The more he saw the less he spoke.
The less he spoke the more he heard.
Why can’t we all be like that wise old bird?

March 15, 2020

To: Clergy, Religious and Laity of the Archdiocese of New Orleans Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

I pray that your Lenten journey has been a time of drawing closer to Christ and responding to his invitation to conversion.

As we identify an area of our life that needs change, we can be assured of God's help for us to face our weakness and experience a change of heart. Lent should include standing before our merciful God and asking for his forgiveness in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, better known as Confession.

Please be reminded that a priest will be available in every church in the Archdiocese of New Orleans for the next 3 Wednesdays (March 18, March 25, and April 1) from 5:00 PM -6:30 PM.

The heart of Jesus is open and he invites you to know and accept his mercy. Whether we have been to Confession recently, or perhaps it has been many years, now is the time to know that his heart is open and eager to forgive.

Let us remember one another in prayer as we continue this journey through Lent to the new life of Easter.

Wishing you God's blessings,

I am Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend Gregory M. Aymond

Archbishop of New Orleans
