PRAY TO SAINT ROCH

Blessed St Roch, Patron of the sick, have pity on those who lie upon a bed of suffering. Your power was so great when you were in this world, that by the sign of the Cross, many were healed of their diseases. www.daily-prayers.org/novenas

Bishop Kagan implores us to,
above all else, pray.
“O, Mother of Perpetual Help,
pray for us who have recourse to Thee!”

WORLD DAY OF VOCATIONS

As Catholics, we believe in the power of vocations to help spread the Gospel message, and vocations are an important part of the community. The vocations to priesthood, the diaconate, or religious life are at the center of our efforts to spread the good news. However, we need to also remember the vocations of married life and single life as service to the church. It is at our baptism that we are given the mandate to spread the Gospel through our vocation in the church. We hear in Scripture that Jesus stands at the door of our heart and knocks. He only invites and never demands or breaks into our lives without our acceptance. He knocks, we open the door, and the invitation and welcome are complete. Let us pray: God of the invitation, you knock upon the door of everyone's heart. We seek the courage to open that door, for we know the responsibility of saying yes. We humbly ask you for your wisdom to serve your church with compassion and acceptance. We believe that when we say yes, you will provide the grace for the work ahead. Give grace to those men and women who have dedicated their lives to constant service to your church. Also give grace to those couples and single men and women who work for the church in their secular lives. We ask all this through Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit. Amen. "How long has Jesus been knocking at the door of your heart, waiting to enter?"

PRAY FOR OUR SEMINARIANS

World Day of Prayer for Vocations is next Sunday, May 3. This week, we encourage you to pray especially for all the seminarians, deacons, priests, and religious in the Diocese of Bismarck. Offer a prayer for the young men and women in our diocese, so they may respond with courage to God's call to the religious life. To learn more about the seminarians who are currently studying for our diocese, visit www.bismarckdiocese.com.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

The Church encourages those who are unable to receive the Eucharist to make an act of spiritual communion, when we unite ourselves to God through prayer, especially while watching the Mass or making a visit to our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. It is a beautiful way to express to God our desire to be united with Him when we are unable to complete that union in the reception of Holy Communion.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

PRAY FOR PROTECTION AGAINST THE CORONAVIRUS

SEMINARIANS: Let us pray for the seminarians of the Diocese of Bismarck during this time of transition: Rev. Mr. Mark Aune, Rev. EASTER SEASON: The Easter Season Will Continue for 40 Days! "Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, 'Peace be with you.'" John 20:19 Easter week, or Easter time, concluded on the 2nd Sunday of Easter, known since April 2000, as Divine Mercy Sunday. But the Easter season continues for another 40 days, through the Ascension to Pentecost Sunday, which celebrates the descent of the Holy Spirit which inaugurated the Christian church. Just as we are invited to do something special during Advent and Lent, you are invited to do something special this Easter season. While you are "sheltering in place" and binge watching your favorite movie or show, take just 30 minutes a week and watch one lesson in Bishop Robert Barron's program, The Mass. In six lessons, you will discover the answer to the question, Why do I go to Mass? Through these engaging videos from Bishop Barron, you will come away with a deeper understanding of what the Mass is and why it matters; why it's the most important thing you can do on Earth.

VOCATION VIEWS: Do you recognize Jesus in your midst? Is your heart burning within you? Think about the possibility of walking the path with Jesus as a brother, sister, priest, or deacon. (Luke 24:13-35)

STEWARDSHIP SUMMARY: "Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!" shout the crowds in today's Gospel. May we be always ready to share our blessings when we are sent in His name!

RACHEL'S VINEYARD: Rachel's Vineyard is a very confidential retreat for anyone struggling with the emotional or spiritual pain of an abortion. This is open to all individuals regardless of faith denominations. Register below or contact Carol at 605-374-5639 or ckling@sdplains.com for more information and dates of retreats.

PRAY THE MEMORARE

Bishop Kagan asks of us to pray the Memorare at this time of the coronavirus.

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me.

MARRIAGE MOMENTS: Jesus Himself drew near and walked with them..." (Luke 24:15) Take a walk together today or soon and while you are walking imagine Jesus walking with you and talking through your beloved to you.

PARENTING POINTERS: Earth Day was April 22nd, but many communities are celebrating this weekend. Join with your child in doing something to honor the earth this weekend - recycle, plant something, observe nature... Be creative.
