Dear Parishioners,

As I shared with the daily Mass goers a few weeks ago, I am currently reading a biography on the life of Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen, the great orator, preacher, and churchman of our 20th century.

There is a story that while he was on his many travels across the world, he was celebrating Mass in Africa. He noticed that one of the participants was a woman who had lost her limbs from the elbow and knee down. After Mass, he visited with her and inquired where she lived. She said that she lived 4 miles away and to attend Mass she would crawl (a total of 8 miles round trip).

Moved by her profound love for the Eucharist and great lengths to attend the Holy Sacrifice, he said that tomorrow he would bring holy communion to her. The following day, like most priests, there are interruptions and at times, we are sidetracked from our original plan. After finally receiving a moment to get back on track, Archbishop Fulton Sheen got on a bike to ride to the woman's home.

And before he got out of the church grounds, she was there at his doorstep. Shocked, embarrassed, and utterly moved, before he could apologize for his delay, she said, "I couldn't wait any longer to receive our Lord." At that very moment, he was so inspired by her genuine and sincerity for the love of the Eucharist that he made a promise to commit to a holy hour before the Blessed Sacrament every day of his life.

Mind you, this is a man who traveled much, and for great length of time on trains, planes and automobiles. Somehow, some way he found every day of his life a church or chapel whatever the hour and however jetlagged or fatigued to fulfill this commitment to our Lord. I can imagine that he probably had a few instances in which he was like Saints Peter, John and James in the Garden of Gethsemane falling asleep before our Lord.

For this reason, in all his recorded writings, retreat talks, and presentations, he was so passionate in his exhortation upon the importance and the power of the Eucharist especially in the Blessed Sacrament in one's spiritual life.

As announced a few weeks ago, starting January 2 in this new civil year, we no longer are required to sign up for Masses with contact list. We are expected to maintain a capacity limit which means as soon as the capacity is met in the church, we will open seating in our satellite location. Mask/Face covering for entry is required.

Without a doubt, during the last 9 months, the various guidelines and restrictions have provided all of us a greater desire for the Eucharist and more importantly, how essential and necessary the Eucharist is in our lives especially spiritually. The Eucharist is not only the source of our communion with Christ, but also communion and fellowship with each other. We hunger for community and family.

So, as we transition into this new procedure, I ask you to continue to be considerate, thoughtful and patient with the "first come, first served" method (which includes no reserving seats) that as we all share to be inside the Church to celebrate the Eucharist that the sacrifices seen in generosity and sometimes deferring do not cease so all can receive an opportunity to be in the church.

Blessed New Year!
~ Fr. Michael

Prayers for Fr. Roberto and the Missionaries of the Holy Spirit

Fr. Roberto Saldivar returned home this week to the MSpS Convent in Roy. Let us continue to pray for his full recovery through the intercession of Venerable Felix of Jesus Rougier.

Merciful Father, in your goodness, I confidently ask, through the intercession of Venerable Father Felix of Jesus Rougier, the complete recovery of Fr. Roberto Saldivar, Missionary of the Holy Spirit. Glorify your servant on earth so that all priests, religious men and women, and laity, inspired by his example, may be transformed into your son, Jesus Christ, Priest and Victim. May all be for the greater glory of the Most Holy Trinity, the holiness of your priestly people, and the building of your kingdom on earth. Amen.
