Get in the Game:
Football & Catholic Mass

*Article By: Mark Hart
September 11, 2015*

Well, another new football season is upon us and it got me thinking about how the Catholic Mass can be a lot like a football game, if we look at it from a slightly “wider” perspective.

Stick with me, here:

Draft Choice - Where to sit in relation to the air conditioning or fan.

Rushing - Picking the shortest Mass, usually on a Saturday afternoon.

Endzone - Where we park our rears.

Cornerback - Where too many Catholics sit... in the corner, in the back.

Safety - The stance some priest take when preaching.

Extra Point - The homily just won't end.

Draw Play - What many kids do during Mass.

Facemask - The look some wear on their faces. (C'mon, we're all sinners, people!)

Timeout - When parents take children out of church for making too much noise.

Passing - Handing the collection basket to the person next to you.

Illegal Use of Hands - Taking money out of the collection basket.

Quarterback - People that try to make change for a dollar in the basket.

Holding - What sometimes happens during the Our Father.

Touchback - What we do during the sign of peace.

Forward Motion - How we go to communion.

Two Minute Warning - “Bow your heads and pray for God’s blessing”

Blocking - When people stand at the exit, talking to the pastor at the door.

Running Back - What we do after Mass to catch the 1 p.m. kickoff.

Player or Spectator?

Notice that at every Mass, you are not a fan but a player in the game. That’s what God is calling us to be in Mass and in life.

Consider this verse from 1 Thessalonians: We urge you, brothers, admonish the idle, cheer the fainthearted, support the weak, be patient with all. - 1 Thessalonians 5:14.

Here St. Paul reminds us that we are not meant to sit back and watch, but to be fully engaged and passionately active in our faith. We must cheer on our teammates in their faith journeys, not from the stands but from the playing field. The Mass bears with it the highest invitation to engage not only mentally, but physically, as well!

Our team is only as strong as our weakest player. Any good coach will remind us of that. Encourage your teammates who are in the stands of life to get in the game with you. God has a jersey (Sacraments) and playbook (Scripture) waiting for them.

And let’s not ever forget what play does every team call when they are desperate? That’s right... the Hail Mary.

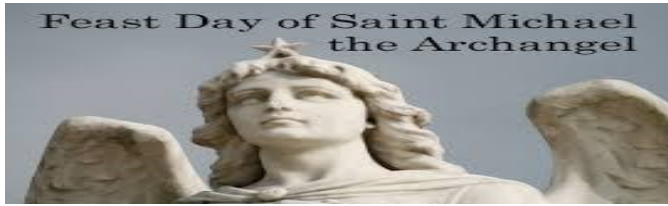

Do we get more “passionate” about our favorite team or sport than we do about our faith? Does your prayer life reflect that you are “in the game” and part of God’s team, daily, or has it fallen into more of a “spectator” status?

NATIONAL VOCATION AWARENESS WEEK Teach Your Children to Use GPS....

After Mass today, have a conversation with your children asking, “What do you want to be when you grow up?” After a few moments of discussion, ask, “Who do you think God wants you to be when you grow up?”

Emphasize to your children that God has a specific plan in mind for them, and that following God’s plan is the surest way to happiness. Every life decision—which college to attend, whom to date, which job to pursue, whether to enter seminary, whom to marry—should be undertaken only after praying for God’s guidance.

In other words, encourage kids to navigate life using GPS—God’s Positioning System.

How Parents Can Nurture Vocations

Set an example. Model discipleship and a loving marriage to your children.

Seek role models. Befriend priests, sisters, and brothers and invite them to your home.

Look to scripture. Read and discuss the Bible stories of Mary’s response to God (Luke 1:26-39), and Jesus calling the Apostles (Mt. 4:18-22).

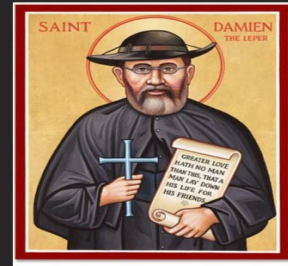

Pray for the future. Pray aloud that your children will follow Jesus and remain open to holy marriage, priesthood, and religious life.

If your child does express interest in the priesthood or religious life, be supportive. The best thing you can say is “Whatever God wants for you, I want for you, too. Just keep praying to discover His will for your life.”
