ADMINISTRATOR'S CORNER

The prophet Habakkuk (Habakkuk 1:2-3; 2:2-4) laments and questions the goodness of God for all the evil and injustices happening in the world. It just presents to us in the lamentations of the prophet, God's grace is overflowing slow to anger and relenting in punishment to his people of Israel.

The second reading (2 Timothy 1:6-8, 13-14) Paul tells never to be ashamed to testify to our Lord. To take his words that was heard as the norm in faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. To guard this rich trust with the help of the Holy Spirit that dwells with us.

In our Gospel (Luke 17:5-

10) the Apostles beg from the Lord to increase their faith. But what made the disciples ask Jesus for an increase of faith? In our previous gospels from the parable of the prodigal son, the dishonest steward and Lazarus and the rich man, directs us to a different way of understanding of how God works for his

It is not stagnant, it is dynamic. A faith that does nothing in practice is thoroughly lifeless (James 2:17). Our faith should go hand in hand with our actions. If we ask forgiveness from God, then we are also ready and willing to forgive no matter what the cost is. It is easier said than done but it can be done. Let go and let God.

It is never easy to be a Christian much more to be a disciple in a world full of violence, anger and arrogance. But Christ did not promise us a comfortable life but by faith he promised us a glorious life. It is disappointing and frustrating with what is happening with our world today, but we can work and do something in our own little way.

And our responsorial Psalm challenges us; "If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts."

God is good. All the time!

ways are not man's ways (Is 55:8). It tells us that we take orders and commands from Jesus who reveals God to us and not from the world.

Our faith is a gift from God.

ANNUAL OCTOBER MASS COUNT

October is the month our Diocese asks parishes to conduct a count of the number of adults and children attending the Saturday Vigil and Sunday Masses.

Beginning first Saturday Vigil and first Sunday of October, our usher volunteers will be counting for mass attendance while the celebration is going on. Don't be surprised if you see them around counting. This is one of the things we usually do every year. I would like to thank our volunteers for doing a wonderful job at St. Michael and Sts. Peter and Paul. Anyone who is interested to join the Ministry, please don't hesitate to call the office.

MISSION STATEMENT:

"To live our baptismal promises by living our faith through prayer, service and generosity."

VISION STATEMENT:

"That all who enter this Church encounter Christ as children of God, disciples of Christ, and stewards of every gift entrusted to us by God."

MEDITATION
If it delays, wait for it.
(Habakkuk 2:3)

Nobody likes to wait. Whether we are waiting for a traffic light to turn green or awaiting the birth of a child, time seems to drag. Even if we tell ourselves that our wait will soon be over, we still feel eager for everything to hurry up.

This must be how the prophet Habakkuk felt as he looked out at his beloved city, Jerusalem. The Babylonian army had defeated Egypt, and the people knew they were next on the list. Added to the threat of war was the moral and religious state of the city. Weak kings continued to make and break alliances with pagan nations, worship of false gods was on the rise, and the rich and powerful continued to exploit the poor and weak.

“How long, O Lord?” Habakkuk pleaded. He felt surrounded by “destruction and violence...; strife, and clamorous discord” (1:2-3). And God seemed to be nowhere in sight.

You know how that feels, don’t you? A child has turned away from the Church, and you long to see her find her way home. A friend is not returning your calls, and you wonder what you did wrong. Violence against the weak, the unborn, and the foreigner is increasing, and you don’t know if God will ever put an end to it. Sometimes it just hurts to have to wait for a resolution.

If this describes you, then know that God has a word for you, the same word he gave to Habakkuk: “The vision still has its time” (2:3). God’s vision, his plan, is still unfolding. He is not standing by helplessly, watching you struggle. Try your best to hold on; put your faith in his love and his mercy. Even if it seems to be taking forever, don’t give up. God still loves. He will always love you.

God promised Habakkuk that those who hold onto their faith in him “shall live” (Habakkuk 2:4). That includes you.

“Lord Jesus, I believe in your love and mercy. Come and teach me how to wait in faith!”

PUBLIC ROSARY

Saturday, October 12

12:00 Noon

Waiialua Bandstand
 Park

Public prayer is powerful. Public prayer is far more powerful than private prayer to appease the anger of God and call down His mercy, and Holy Mother Church, guided by the Holy Ghost, has always advocated public prayer in times of public tragedy and suffering.

Because the word “ROSARY” means garlands of roses ...please bring a stem of red rose to be placed by the Blessed Virgin Mary statue.

Please provide your own chair or mat to sit on and an umbrella and hat to wear to protect yourself. And, don’t forget to bring your rosary.
